WOMAN'S CLUB HAS FINE YEAR

Since 1914 when a small group of public-spirited women organized themselves into the "Arcadia Co-operatives," which later became the Arcadia Woman's Club, this organization has been in the vanguard of progressive clubs of California.

The burning of the club mortgage last season ranked the Arcadia club with the few clubs in California that can call "their home their own."

But mortgage-lifting, important as that is, was not the only activity of the Woman's Club last year, as many tired committee chairmen can eloquently testify. There were social events, civic welfare work, philanthrophy, and many other affairs on the diversified calendar.

NEW SECTION

The organization of a music section, under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, marked a forward step. This group has already arranged an interesting program of music study and appreciation for the coming year.

Outstanding social events included a fashion tea for new members, the smart Turf Club dance, held each year at Santa Anita, Husband's night, when the forgotten club husband was feted, and a beef steak dinner, staged by the membership committee.

The regular events such as the Peach-Blossom Festival and Boy Scout night were well attended. The Festival was particularly lovely with its fragrant blossoms turning the clubhouse into a vernal bower.

Reciprocity Day celebrated on April 5 was one of the big occasions of the year. Officers and visitors from practically every club in the Los Angeles District were in attendance.

Among bell-ringing committees was the membership committee, headed by Mrs. Glenn W. Watson, who by silver-tongued oratory and gentle courtesy upped the membership lists by 50 new members. This group also staged a smart fashion show on September 28.

SPLENDID PROGRAMS

The program committee, composed of Mrs. C. E. Hoover, Mrs. J. S. Craig and Mrs. Lumpkin, arranged a consistently entertaining and informative program for the entire year.

Mrs. C. W. Stewart's hospitality committee did lovely and gracious service during the year. Attired in charming formal gowns they presided at all formal affairs, and a contingent were on hand to greet members at each meeting.

ROSTER OF OFFICERS

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, whose presidential record is one of the finest in club's history, was reelected to office.

She will head the following official group during the coming year: Mrs. James A. Stoker, vice-president; Mrs. H. E. Riess, sceond vice-president; Mrs. E. J. Frentress, recording secretary; Mrs. B. E. Rubottom, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. E. Larsh, Federation secretary; Mrs. John Murfett, treasurer; Mrs. W. C. Bonner, program chairman; Miss Eva Reynolds, parliamentarian; and Mesdames C. C. Hoffman and Mrs. J. S. Craig.

WOMAN'S CLUB BURNS MORTGAGE ON BUILDING AT FINAL MEETING

At the final meeting of the year of the Arcadia Woman's club last week, Wednesday, the mortgage on the clubhouse was burned. Each past president held a lighted match to the document which was placed in a gold miner's pan. The presidents were Mesdames Mark Millspaugh, Grace Newhall, Nellie C. Pickard, Nellie White, Bertha Lewis, Mattie D. Peck, Emma D. Mead, Marion Pike, Ella Byrne, and Jessie Stewart. A large audience was present.

Reports were made by the officers and chairmen and Mrs. Helen Lumpkin received the prize for the most concise and comprehensive one. Mrs. Glenn B. Watson, membership chairman, reported 54 new members for the year just past, bringing the total to nearly 200.

The new officers were then installed by Mrs. Edith Roberts, who accomplished it in a delightful manner. Officers are: president, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh; first vice-president, Mrs. Stoker; second vice-president, Mrs. Susan Riess; recording secretary, Mrs. Ethel Frentress; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ethel Rubottom; federation secretary, Mrs. Bertha Larsh; treasurer, Mrs. Elsie Murfett; program chairman, Mrs. Belle Bonner; parliamentarian, Miss Eva Reynolds, and Mrs. C. C. Hoffman and Mrs. J. Stephen Craig, trustees. The afternoon was concluded with tea served by the hospitality chairman, Mrs. Jessie Stewart, and her committee.

Interesting and little known facts of history of the Arcadia Woman's club came out at the last meeting of the year when past presidents and charter members gathered to tell the present-day members how those of the past met their problems . . . It was told how the club grew from seven original members who gathered at the city hall to organize . . . For years members met at the city hall and Mrs. Ella Byrne drew many laughs when she told of her trials as a "garbage-can hider" . . . It seemed when swanky guests called members of the reception committee had their troubles trying to hide the garbage cans that so ungracefully lined the back entrance of the city hall.

Music Section Potluck Picnic

Members of the newly formed Music Section of the Arcadia Woman's club will hear an outline of the coming year's program at a potluck picnic to be held Tuesday, July 11, at the home of Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, section chairman, 480 Naomi avenue.

Mrs. Lumpkin said plans included the history of music, biographical studies of famous composers, as well as the study of musical compositions and orchestrations. Guest artists will be invited to appear during the season and each program will be illustrated by records or performers.

SCROLLS REVEAL ENGAGEMENT OF MISS MARGARET BROWN

When tiny white candles were held beneath miniature scholastic caps and scrolls, invisible ink appeared bearing the interesting news of the engagement of Miss Margaret Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Brown, of Pasadena, to Robert Chambers of Arcadia.

This unique method of announcing the betrothal was used at a garden party, Saturday evening at the Brown home, celebrating the graduation of Mr. Chambers from U. S. C. No date as yet has been set for the wedding.

The scrolls were presented each guest as refreshments were served at the conclusion of an evening spent playing ping-pong and other garden games.

Miss Brown, the grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brown of this city, is a graduate of Pasadena Junior College. She was a member of the exclusive "One Club" while there. An active young clubwoman she is now secretary of the Junior Woman's club of Arcadia.

Mr. Chambers, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Chambers, 232 South Second avenue, graduated from Pasadena Junior college before entering U. S. C. He was a members of O. S. F. at the junior college and affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity at the university. He is well known in Arcadia for his active leadership among Boy Scouts.

Guests at the announcement party were Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Chambers, and Deane Moore, Arcadia; Mr. and Mrs. William Bartholomew, Mr. and Mrs. Al Polish, and Miss Dee Dee Cope, Alhambra; Miss Wohlwend and James Taylor, South Pasadena; Jack Boaz, San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reeve, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Stauffer, the Misses Mary Ann Moss, Virginia Larson, Helen Thomas, Betty Reeve, Juanita Hanson, and Messrs, Jack Kadera, Bud Cope, Fred Potter, Edward Versaw, Vernon Lief, and Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

Engagement Told At Graduation Party

Saturday evening Miss Margaret Brown of Pasadena entertained with a graduating party for Bob Chambers who last week finished as foreign trade course at the Universty of Southern California. Clever cards revealed "that Cupid's dart had hit the mark" and in the near future the two would be married.

Mr. Chambers is the son of Mr, and Mrs, A, R, Chambers, 232 South Second avenue; Miss Brown is the daughter of Mr, and Mrs, H, L, Brown, 1832 Wagner St, Pasadena, and grauddaughter of the W, J, Browns of South Second avenue.

Graduating from Redondo high school, Mr. Chambers attended Pasadena Junior College where he met his fiance, then attended S C, becoming affiliated with the Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is an Eagle Scout and Scoutmaster of Boys Scout Troop No. 5, sponsored py the Woman's club. Miss Brown is a member of the "One" club, a P J C organiation.

Guests at the party included Mr, and Mrs, Chambers and Deane Moore of Arcadia; Mr, and Mrs, Wm, Bartholomew, Mr, and Mrs, Al Polish, Miss Dee Dee Cope of Alhambra; Miss Doris Wohlvend, James Taylor of South Pasadena; Jack Boaz of San Diego; Mr, and Mrs, Frank Reeve, Mr, and Mrs, Maurice Stauffer and the Misses Mary Ann Moss, Virginia Larson, Helen Thomas, Betty Reeve, Juanita Hanson and Jack Kadera, Bud Cope, Fred Potter, Edward Versan ann Vernon Lief of Pasadena.

JUNIOR CLUB INSTALLATION

Summer flowers and rainbow colors will be used in the symbolical ceremonies formally inducting officers of the Arcadia Junior Woman's club into office.

The installation will be held tonight at the Woman's clubhouse at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Edith Roberts as installing officer. Miss Barbara Geiger will take over as president, with Mrs. Nate Dobbing, vice-president; Miss Margaret Brown, secretary; Miss Marjorie Dickson, treasurer, and Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, retiring president, Federation secretary, to serve as her official board.

Mrs. A. R. Chambers, Mrs. C. E. Hoover, and Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, will be sponsors of the group.

Senior board members will be special guests, and the meeting is open to the public.

Retiring sponsors, Mrs . R. H. Lucas and Mrs. John Hostutler, assisted by Mrs. Chambers, were hostesses at a tea, honoring Junior members and prospective new members, held Saturday in the Lucas home.

A beautiful tea table, decked with varied flowers, tall white tapers, and a gleaming silver service, was the center of sociability during the afternoon.

On Thursday the Juniors staged a gay treasure hunt from the clubhouse. Fifteen members participated, with Miss Norma Clark and Miss Edith Ekman in charge.

Mrs. Timerhoff Enters Sixth Year As Chairman

For the sixth consecutive year Mrs. Emily Mann Timerhoff was elected chairman of the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's Club.

The election took place at the last meeting of the year held in the gardens of the Timerhoff home. It followed a delightful potluck luncheon served in the oak arbor of the gardens.

Although Mrs. Timerhoff asked to be relieved of her duties, members would not hear of it and re-elected her for her sixth term, choosing as aides, two vice-chairmen, Mrs. John Vanderbur and Mrs. John Renshaw, to assist her in her duties.

Others on the governing staff will be Mrs. J. MacFarlane, who will be in charge of Spanish word drill the first six months of the term, with Mrs. Renshaw replacing her for the last six months; Miss Eva Reynolds, secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Bert Rubottom, clipping book. Retiring officers are Mrs. Renshaw, vice-chairman; Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. J. S. Craig, clipping book.

Present were Mesdames E. J. Frentress, H. E. Riess, J. J. Rudden, and infant son, Henry; Florence Miller, J. S. Craig, C. F.Ganther, C. F. Hookway, Cleo Thompson, and infant son, George William Wayne; Robert Chambers, E. Hagan, C. E. Hoover, Eugene Perry, James Stoker, Catherine Thomas, Miss Florence Reynolds, Indianapolis, Ind., and those mentioned above.

Mrs. Timerhoff to Head Section Again

The last meeting of the History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club was recently held in the gardens of the Timeroff home on Genoa street, a delightful pot-luck luncheon being served at noon.

Mrs. E. M. Timeroff was re-elected chairman for the sixth consecutive year, with Mrs. John Vanderbur and Mrs. John Renshaw, vice-chairman. Others on the governing staff will be Mrs. J. M. MacFarlane, chairman of the Spanish word drill the first six months, with Mrs. Renshaw holding the same position for the last six months; Miss Eva Reynolds, secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Bert Rubottom, clipping book. The year just closed has been most interesting and successful.

MELODIES OF SHAKESPEARE TO BE STUDIED BY SECTION

Forty-three charter members of the newly organized Music Section of the Arcadia Woman's Club heard Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, chairman, read an outline of study to be presented during the coming season.

The business meeting followed a potluck picnic held Tuesday in the outdoor patio of the Lumpkin home.

Assisting Mrs. Lumpkin in preparing the program outline were Mesdames Ethel Frentress, Fanny Needham, Maxine Balling, and Betty Craig.

Mrs. Lumpkin explained that from six to eight members will take part in each program, which will be divided into three sections—the main subject, biography and history. In this way a background for further musical study will be given each member.

SURVEY FIELD

During the first year the entire musical field will be surveyed, Mrs. Lumpkin told fellow members, with the second year given over to specialized study such as American, Russian, or Hungarian music.

Primitive music from the earliest known recorded songs to the time of the Greeks and the music of the early Christian church will be investigated, according to the chairman.

Songs of the troubadours and the meistersingers and the music of Shakespeare will be touched upon, with stories of famous hymns and the perusal of English, French, and German carols given special attention in the yule season.

STUDY OPERA

In January during the Metropolitan Opera radio broadcasts the section will turn its thoughts to the operas. German operas and stories of famous operatic singers will be given at a later period, Mrs. Lumpkin announced.

Besides the biographical data of famous composers, the section will devote much time to the history of famous composers, the section will study the development of the orchestra and the ancestry of the piano from the time of the dulcimer, she pointed out.

Mrs. Lumpkin glowed when she described the musical festival to be held in May. Special events and musical personalities of prominence will be introduced at this time.

The next meeting will be held in September at the home of Mrs. Irene Culver, 367 Camino Real, on September 12. At this meeting music appreciation, and the "Listener's Part in Music" will be taken up.

Appointments made yesterday included Miss Barbara Geiger as press chairman; Mrs. Susan Riess, historian; Mrs. Irene Culver, hospitality chairman; and Mrs. Emily Mann Timeroff, clipping book.

Music Group Plans Year's Activities

The music section of the Arcadia Women's club met for a pot-luck luncheon and to plan their coming year's study, at the home of Mrs. Charles Lumpkin, 480 Naomi avenue, Tuesday. The section, organized May 31, boasts 40 members. They plan to make a brief study of opera, symphony, history of music, and music appreciation to determine in which phase of the subject the greatest interest of the group lies.

The first regular meeting of the group will be held September 12, at the home of Mrs. Irene Culver, 367 Camino Real. A dessert luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock, to be followed by a study period from 2 to 4. This schedule will be adhered to every second Tuesday of each month.

Junior Women Plan Arrowhead Outing

On Tuesday evening, the Arcadia Junior Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, 1949 Arcadia avenue, San Gabriel, with the new president, Miss Barbara Geiger, presiding.

Plans were made for the group to spend the weekend of July 22 at Lake Arrowhead. Those attending beside the hostess and the president were Misses Virginia Hostutler, Virginia Brown, Eleanor Ott, Betty Welch, Marjorie Dickson, Dorothy Dobbings, Margaret Brown, Irene Bachman, and four guests, Misses Mary Lou Hobbs, Winifred Hubbard, Rosemary Paden, and Lo Ree Ganser, and Mrs. A. R. Chambers, one of the club's sponsors.

Millspaughs Back From 9,500-Mile Motor Trip

Visits to the two world's fairs, observing Congress in action, seeing Annapolis, West Point, Baltimore, Md., and Williamsburg, Va., where the Rockefellers have recreated a revolutionary village, were only a few highlights of the 9500 mile motor trip just completed by Mr. and Mrs. Mark Millspaugh. Mrs. Millspaugh is president of the Arcadia Woman's club.

The Millspaughs, who left Arcadia in June, arrived home Saturday from a trip that included, Texas, Arizona, the South, Boston, New York, Portland, Me., New Hampshire, Vermont, Albany, Buffalo and Niagara Falls, N. Y., Ontario, Canada, and Detroit and Battle Creek, Mich.

Stop-overs were made in Chicago, Wisconsin, and Minnesota to visit friends and relatives, before the return trip via Lake Tahoe, Reno, and San Francisco, where they visited the Fair.

According to the Millspaughs the San Francisco Fair exceeds the New York Fair in beauty and charm.

WEST ARCADIA PRESS

Millspaughs Back from Extensive Tour of Country

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, of 659 Naomi, returned last Saturday from an extended trip which took them over practically all of the United States.

From Arcadia they drove to Texas, then north through Tennessee to Virginia, where they visited Williamsburg, the capital of the original colony, which mothers William and Mary College, recently restored by the Rockerfellers. They also visited Mt. Vernon, Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, Niagara Falls, and Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Millspaugh "did" the World's Fair in New York and travelled as far north as Portland, Me., seeing the places of note at each place where they stopped.

On the return trip across the continent, the vacationers visited many relatives and friends, stopping in Detroit, Kalamazoo, and Battle Creek, Michigan; Chicago, Illinois, and several cities in Wisconsin and Minnesota. In coming down the western coast the couple made stops at Lake Tahoe, and Yosemite with another stop in San Francisco to see the fair on Treasure Island.

In commenting on the trip both report fine weather all along the way with no car trouble to detract from the enjoyment.

Bridge To Be Taught At Woman's Club

The program committee of the Arcadia Woman's club is arranging a series of bridge parties to be held each Monday afternoon at the clubhouse throughout the year.

Beginning on August 21, the parties will open with a half hour lecture by a certified Culbertson teacher. The play will begin promptly at 1 o'clock and will continue until 4.

Mrs. W. C. Bonner, program chairman of the club, and well known bridge teacher, announces that the meetings will be open to all women members of the community who are interested in learning bridge or improving their game.

Special attention will be paid to auction players who wish to learn contract. The latest teaching methods will be employed and every up-to-date teaching device and aid is to be used.

According to Mrs. Bonner the players will be divided into three divisions—beginners, intermediate advanced. Each player may choose her own grouping and will be advanced as rapidly as possible.

A small fee will be charged for the play, proceeds of which will be donated to the club for the purchase of furnishings for the stage. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. W. C. Bonner at ATwater 7-1123.

WOMAN'S CLUB SPONSORS LESSONS IN CONTRACT

W. C. WAYS AND MEANS CHAIRMEN ENTERTAINED

Ways and means chairmen of the Women's club were yesterday entertained at luncheon by Mrs. Belle Bonner who heads the fiance committee for 1939-40, and has named a member for each month.

Projects for the year and social activities were discussed during the afternoon by those attending: Mmes. J. Stephen Craig, Charles Stewart, Marianna Wisniewski, William Lewis, M. M. Trew, Bert Morris, and LeRoy Anderson. Mrs. Glenn B. Watson and Mrs. Charles Lumpkin were unable to attend.

After contributing their monthly fund quota to the club's treasury, via benefits, card parties or other functions, chairmen and those helping will have 'done their bit' for the year. In inaugurating this idea, Mrs. Bonner follows in the footsteps of other clubs and organizations that have found it workable.

Luncheon For Finance Group Of Woman's Club

Hostess to the finance committee of the Arcadia Woman's Club was Mrs. Belle Bonner, chairman, who entertained at luncheon at the Aztec Hotel yesterday afternoon.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 24, 1939.

ARCADIA JUNIOR CLUBWOMEN MARK UP BUSY TWO YEARS

Organized under the aegis of the Arcadia Woman's Club the Arcadia Junior Woman's Club has gone ahead with full swing since its inception in 1937 under the auspices of Mrs Charles Stewart, senior club president, at that time.

The group of energetic young women, who compose the membership body, divide their club time between welfare work and social activities. While good times are enjoyed by the club, the helpless and the sick are not forgotten.

One of the philanthropic acts of the Juniors this season was the presentation of a Braille book, purchased from Braille Institute, and presented to C. M. Erbaugh of Dayton, O.

FIRST PRESIDENT

Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, the first president, served two terms and it was she who inaugurated the Juniors' first Reciprocity Day last February, which proved one of the most successful occasions of the entire year.

Early in the Juniors' history decision was made to assist the Arcadia Fire Department in its philanthropic work. This they do each year by dressing the battery of dolls annually distributed to the city's unfortunate children.

Assisting at a benefit carnival for the Arcadia Community Church and preparing and serving luncheon to Community Chest workers were only two of the ways the Juniors served the community last year.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS

Outstanding social affairs of the past included a series of dances given by the club. A Spanish dance in September, a Sports dance in November, and the South Seas dance in May, were featured.

The Mother's Day breakfast, honoring the mothers of members, is an annual event. This year the group congregated at Pierre's in San Marino.

Officers elected for the first year besides Mrs. Gibbs, were Miss Virginia Hostutler, vice-president; Miss Eleanora Ott, secretary Miss Virginia Brown, treasurer ,and Miss Gertrude Dickinson, program chairman.

Those holding the official rein for the 1939-40 season are Miss Barbara Geiger, president; Mrs. Dorothy Dobbings, vice-president; Miss Margaret Brown, secretary, and Miss Marjorie Dickinson, treasurer

Juniors Plan Formal Tea

Arcadia Junior Woman's Club members held an informal picnic meeting at Arcadia County Park, Tuesday evening, with Miss Barbara Geiger, president, presiding.

Supper was served after a short business session, at which plans were launched for a formal rush tea to be held the latter part of September.

LAUNCHES NEW CAREER

Miss Barbara Geiger, president of Arcadia Junior Woman's Club, entered the employment of the Southern Counties Gas Company's Monrovia office, Monday, for a three months' probationary period.

HISTORY SECTION MEMBERS BID BARNGROVERS 'GODSPEED'

Geniality and good spirits made the "going away" party of Major and Mrs. George Barngrover, who left for San Francisco for an indefinite stay, given Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff, in the rear garden of their home, "Sylvania," 321 Genoa Street, a long-to-be-remembered affair.

A chicken dinner was served by the hosts on an outdoor table, colorful with its burden of China asters.

Afterward, members of the California History section, of which the hostess is chairman and Mrs. Barngrover a member, accompanied by their husbands, arrived to wish the Barngrovers "godspeed," and give the historical salute, "adios, go with God."

Garden flowers decked the living room to which the party returned for refreshments after games on the illuminated porch and lawn.

Later, reminiscences of vacation incidents were told. John Vanderbur told of a "disappearing fish" that bothered him on a recent cruise. All took active part in this, and Miss Eva Reynolds climaxed the tales with a Law story.

Present, besides the honorees and hosts, were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, Mr. and Mrs. H. Riess, Misses Eva and Florence Reynolds, Mrs. E. Thomas, Mrs. B. Rubottom, Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbur, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Chambers, Mrs. J. M. MacFarlane, Mr. and Mrs. E. McLean, and Mrs. Arthur Coble.

Barngrovers Given Farewell Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. E. Timerhoff, 321 Genoa street, entertained Major and Mrs. George Barngrover, of 838 Fairview avenue, at a chicken dinner Saturday evening. The table was set out-of-doors under the big oak tree. In the evening, members of the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club, of which Mrs. Barngrover is a member, with their husbands gathered at the home to bid farewell to the Barngrovers, who are going north for an indefinite stay.

The evening guests were also entertained out-of-doors, where lights were strung all about the garden. The time was spent with games, and each guest told some laughable vacation incident, which caused much merriment. The delightful affair concluded with the serving of dainty refreshments.

MUSIC SECTION TO OPEN FALL SEASON NEXT TUESDAY

"Music Appreciation" is to be the main topic of discussion at the first meeting of the newly organized Music Section of the Arcadia Woman's Club when members assemble at the home of Mrs. Irene Culver, 367 Camino Real, next Tuesday, Sept. 12, at 1 p. m.

This meeting is open to members of the section and of the Woman's Club, officers announced. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Helen Lumpkin at Atwater 7-2831.

Dessert will be served before the main business of the day is taken up. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Bert Rubottom, Mrs. J. T. Reynolds and Mrs. Lumpkin.

Mrs. Lumpkin will give one of the three divisions of the main topic, "Elements of Music, Rhythm, Melody and Harmony"; Mrs. E. J. Frentress will speak on "The Listener's Part in Music," with Mrs. J. S. Craig's discussion of "What Music Does to You," completing the triad.

Mrs. C. E. Hoover will tell of "Music of the Ancients"; Mrs. George M. Needham of "Music of the Ancient Greeks" as auxiliary subjects.

The roll call topic will be "What I Enjoy Most in Music."

Practical demonstrations on piano and victrola will illustrate each point in order that music may be increasingly enjoyed and understood by those who study with the section.

A pilgrimage to Los Angeles Museum at Exposition Park was conducted Saturday afternoon by Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman of California History and Landmarks section of Arcadia Woman's Club.

Members studied the historical exhibits and were particularly interested in the skeletons taken from La Brea tar pits. Sabre-toothed tigers, lions, cougars, wolves, and other prehistoric animals are represented.

The mural, painted by Charles Knight, of New York City, was inspected. This mural depicts a giant sloth, being slowly drawn to death by the suction pit. About him are painted the animals that prowled the prehistoric swamp.

Mrs. H. E. Riess told of personal family history while visiting the Lincoln exhibit as her father, R. V. Mallory was a member of the "great liberator's" staff.

MRS. C. L. DUNHAM, WELL KNOWN ARCADIA CLUB WOMAN, PASSED AWAY WEDNESDAY AFTER A LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Maye S. Dunham, wife of C. L. Dunham, a retired banker of 144 El Dorado Street, Arcadia, passed away early Wednesday morning at a hospital in Los Angeles. She had been in poor health for several years.

Mrs. Dunham was born in Lincoln County, Neb., May 15, 1877, and came to Arcadia in 1920 with her husband. Up until several years ago before her health failed she was active in social and church work. She was the founder of Chapter CK P. E. O. Sisterhood of Arcadia; charter member of Arcadia, Order of Eastern Star, and served four years as president of Arcadia Woman's Club. She is also a member of the Arcadia Community church.

Funeral services will be held at Glasser and Johns Chapel on South First avenue, Arcadia, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Dr Milo Fiske, pastor of the Arcadia Community church, officiating. Interment will be in Live Oak Cemetery in Monrovia.

The deceased is survived by her husband, C. L. Dunham; a brother Fred Schick, of Holdridge, Neb. and other relatives.

MAYE DUNHAM SERVICE SET

With the passing yesterday morning of Mrs. Maye Schick Dunham, prominent clubwoman, Arcadia lost one of its best-beloved pioneers.

Mrs. Dunham came to Arcadia in 1919 from Holderedge, Neb. In 20 years of residence she identified herself with many worthwhile developments of community life, and had a responsible part in the shaping of several organizations of the city.

It was largely through her efforts that Chapter CK, P. E. O., was organized in 1921, and she became its first president, serving two years.

Mrs. Dunham was twice president of the Arcadia Woman's Club, first in 1922-23 and again in 1925-26. She held the only life membership ever issued by the club, it having been bestowed upon her by members in appreciation of her splendid leadership.

CHARTER MEMBER O. E. S.

A charter member of Arcadia Chapter, O. E. S., organized in 1926, she was the first secretary of the chapter. The Ladies' Aid Society and Missionary Society of Arcadia Community Church claimed much of her time and attention in the earlier years of her life here. She filled the office of president of the Aid society and lesser offices in both.

Born in Lincon County, Nebraska, May 15, 1877, she married Clarence L. Dunham, February 16, 1898. One child born of this union, a daughter, Dorothy, passed away in 1917, at the age of 17 years.

For the past several years, Mrs. Dunham had retired from active participation in community affairs because of poor health. She is survived by her husband, Clarence Dunham, and one brother, Fred Schick of Holderedge, Neb.

Funeral services are to be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from Glasser and Johns Mortuary chapel, 500 South First Avenue. Rev. N. Milo Fiske will officiate.

Arcadia Club Woman Passes, Rites Saturday

Mrs. Bertha Gertrude Larsh wife of Walter E. Larsh passed away yesterday at her home, 651 Camino Real ave, Arcadia. Mrs Larsh was a prominent member of the Arcadia Woman's club and a member of the Calvary Baptist church in Pasadena.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the Grace Chapel in Inglewood with Rev. W. E. Boyer, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church officiating.

Mrs. Marsh was born December 1, 1878 in Winfield, Kansas and had made her home in Arcadia for the past 9 years.

She is survived by her husband Walter E. Larsh, one son Walter E. Larsh, jr., of Los Angeles and one daughter, Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth McAllister of Long Beach.

Hold Larsh Funeral Rites

Funeral services were held Saturday morning for Mrs. Bertha G. Larsh, well known Arcadia clubwoman, who passed away September 6, from Inglewood Grace Chapel, with Rev. W. E. Boyer, officiating. Interment followed at Inglewood Cemetery. Glasser and Johns of Arcadia, were in charge.

Born in Winfield, Kan., December 1, 1878, Mrs. Larsh had resided in Arcadia since 1930. She was prominent in the Arcadia Woman's Club, having served as an officer and director for six years. She was a member of Calvary Baptist Church at Pasadena.

HOW TO ENJOY MUSIC TOLD

There is rhythm in everything.

You may hear melodies all around you and feel harmonies everywhere.

These and other interesting facts about music were brought out Tuesday afternoon at the first meeting of the new Music Section of Arcadia Woman's Club when 30 members met at the home of Mrs. Irene Culver, 367 Camino Real.

One way in which you may learn to appreciate music is to "let yourself go and listen to as much music as possible," speakers, who included Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, Mrs. Betty Craig and Mrs. Ethel Frentress, told members. "Music Appreciation," divided in three related divisions, was the first topic chosen for discussion.

Mrs. Fanny Needham and Mrs. Mabel Hoover told of the history of music down to the time of Christ, Mrs. Needham giving pointers on Grecian music, and Mrs. Hoover on the music of the ancients.

Reports on Hollywood Bowl concerts were given in "thumbnail" form by Mrs. Ruth Harpole and Mrs Jessie Stewart.

The roll call "What I Enjoy Most In Music" brought forth many enlightening and amusing ideas on musical tastes.

Dessert was served as each member arrived and the meeting started promptly at 1:30.

The next meeting will be held on October 10, at the home of Mrs. Jene Williams, 357 Naomi Avenue.

Members attending were Mesdames Maxine Balling, Frentress, Lumpkin, Craig, Juliet Renshaw, Bessie Vanderbur, Caroline Ganther, Lola Trew, Ina Millspaugh, Bertha Nichols, Blodwen Ferrante, Anderson, Hough, Margaret Perry, Florence Muller, Needham, Anna Lumpkin.

Club Music Section Opens Fall Season

The fall season of the music section of the Arcadia Woman's club made an auspicious beginning on Tuesday, when about 35 ladies gathered at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Irene Culver, 367 Camino Real.

Instead of serving tea in the late afternoon, as has been usual, light refreshments were enjoyed before the meeting proper opened. Cohostesses with Mrs. Culver were Mrs. Bert Rubottom, Mrs. J. T. Reynolds, and Mrs. Charles Lumpkin.

Mrs. Lumpkin, chairman of the section, talked on "The Elements of Music, Rythm, Melody and Harmony." Mrs. E. J. Frentress spoke of "The Listener's Part in Music," and Mrs. J. S. Craig discussed "What Music Does to You."

Mrs. C. E. Hoover's and Mrs. George M. Needham's subject was "Music of the Ancients."

The roll call topic was "What I Most Enjoy in Music." It was an exceedingly interesting meeting.

CLUB MEMBERS ATTEND PRESIDENTS' COUNCIL

Club Women At District Meet

On Monday, Arcadia clubwomen attended the Los Angeles District California Federation Woman's Club Presidents' Council at Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Oscar Elvrum, president of Los Angeles District, presided. The main address was given by Mrs. Thomas H. Richards of Chico, state president of the federation, who was on her only official visit for the year to the Los Angeles district.

L. A. DIST. COUNCIL M'TG ATTRACTS CLUBWOMEN

According to Mrs. Thomas H. Richards, president of the California Federation of Women's clubs, the most important thing before clubwomen of the United States is to maintain peace. The State leader was chief speaker at the first 1939-40 presidents' council conducted by Mrs. Oscar S. Elvrum, Los Angeles district president at Redondo Beach Monday.

Other speakers included Dr. Frank K. Foster, professor of education at U. C. L. A. who discussed 'the course in safety education to be taught all public schools of the state.

Dr. Owen Coy, director of the State Historical Society, discussed California's early history prior to its admission to the Union in 1850. Mrs. James K. Lytle, president of the State Congress of Parents and Teachers, and Joseph Scott spoke on the ham and eggs plan.

Guests numbering 659 women were welcomed by Mrs. J. J. O'Donnell, president of the hostess club and by representatives of the Mayor and the Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce. District chairmen, State officers and honored guests were introduced by Mrs. Elvrum.

Music included a group of songs by Jack Papendorff with Feodor Kolin accompanying and the Beroma trio from the Neighborhood School of Music, a club project headed by Mrs. J. K. Hokom.

At the close of the program an amusing skit was given under direction of Mrs. B. M. Johnson, drama chairman. In the cast were: Mmes. Elvrum, June Webster, Lowell Phillips, P. E. Willis and Grace Kirby, with Thelma Culver, Muriel Harris and Drusa Belle Frazier singing.

CHAIRMEN PREPARE PROGRAMS FOR FALL CLUB OPENINGS

In order that a well-rounded program may be offered members of various women's organizations during the fall and winter season, many chairmen have spent the summer months attending auditions, interviewing program possibilities, and mulling over the hundred and one details attendant upon such work.

A program of money-raising parties must be arranged to keep the treasury smiling and this requires conferences and discussions galore.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Opening on October 4, the Arcadia Woman's Club will inaugurate the year's work with a splendid program arranged by Mrs. W .C. Bonner, program chairman. One of the highlights of the day will be the appearance of the Juvenile Trio Extraordinaire. This group, composed of Dolly Loehr, 12, pianist; Virginia Ellis, 12, violinist, and Aileen O'Day, 11, vocalist, has appeared in motion pictures and radio work. The first two named were featured in "They Shall Have Music," starring Jascha Heifetz.

Woman's Club Season Opens Next Week

The first meeting of the year of the Arcadia Woman's club will be held next Wednesday, October 4, with luncheon served at 12:15. Following the luncheon a book review will be given by Charlotte Dakin of Hollywood. Miss Dakin has taught drama, voice and diction in several universities and is also an actress of note.

The program following will be given by the "Trio Extradinaire," three talented young girls from 11 to 13 who appeared in the picture "They Shall Have Music," which is scheduled to be shown in Arcadia in the near future.

Juvenile Artists to Entertain Club

On Wednesday, October 4, at the first meeting of the Woman's club of Arcadia, Mrs. Belle Bonner, program chairman, promises an unusual feature. The program will be presented by the "Juvenile Trio Extraordinaire" composed of Dolly Loehr, pianist, 12 years of age; Virginia Ellis, violin, 12; and Aileen O'Day, vocalist, 11 years old.

Dolly and Virginia are in a picture which the United Artists corporation has recently filmed, "They Shall Have Music," and which is being shown this weekend at Warner Brothers' theatre in Los Angeles at Seventh and Hill streets. Aileen recently completed a 13 weeks' radio engagement. The trio's repertoire includes operatic, light opera, and popular music. Dolly is the pupil of Eartha Ihm Loehr, Virginia of Peter Meremblum, and Aileen of Madam Holtzman, each teacher being a leader in his field, and each justly proud of his pupil.

WOMAN'S CLUB PLANS GALA OPENING WEDNESDAY, OCT. 4

Launching one of the busiest club seasons in many years will be the opening day of the 25th annual club year of Arcadia Woman's Club, calendared for next Wednesday, Oct. 4, at the clubhouse.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh will begin her second term as president by presiding at the 12:15 luncheon, with Mrs. Claude Bonner, program chairman, presenting the program at 1 o'clock.

The program will open with reviews of late books by Charlotte Dakin, former drama instructor at Northwestern University, Scripps College, Max Rheinhardt Work Shop, and University of Colorado.

Miss Dakin's appearance will be followed by that of the Trio Extraordinaire, a group of professional child musicians, in a presentation of light operatic and concert music.

The trio, composed of Dolly Lahr, 12, pianist; Virginia Ellis, 12, violinist, and Aileen O'Day, 11, vocalist, appeared in the picture, "They Shall Have Music," soon to be screened at the Arcadia Theater.

Close on the heels of opening day will come the first in a series of entertainments to be sponsored throughout the year by the ways and means committee. The first affair, a dessert-bridge, is scheduled for Monday afternoon, October 9, at 12:45 o'clock. Mrs. J. S. Craig is chairman in charge.

A feature of the afternoon will be the presentation of fall modes in a fashion show staged by a Pasadena department store. Background music will be played by a Hawaiian trio.

Bridge and other games will follow the show and unique prizes for winners in each division are now being selected by the chairman. Reservations may be made through Mrs. Craig at Atwater 7-1848.

Ladies Invited to Dessert Bridge

A dessert bridge will be given at the Woman's club house on October 9 at 12:45, to which all ladies in the community are invited. Mrs. J. Stephen Craig, as ways and means chairman for October, promises a delightful party. Games will be provided for those who do not play bridge, and unique prizes will be awarded.

NO BRIDGE CLASS

There will be no bridge lesson at the Arcadia Woman's club Monday afternoon, owing to the dessert bridge which is being given at the club house that day.

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS FIRST LUNCHEON MEETING OF YEAR

The first meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club on Wednesday was successful in every way. A delicious luncheon was served at 12:15 by Mrs. Irene Culver, chairman, and her committee, which included Mesdames Ethel M. Gilbert, Fanny Needham, Harriet Lucas, Juanita Bunting, Florence Muller, Lola Trew, Lulu Reynolds, and Gudrun Kaurin.

The president, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, presided, and at 1 p. m. Charlotte Dakin, interpreter, was introduced, and gave an interesting hour of reviews of current books and plays.

The highlight of the afternoon was the appearance of the "Trio Extraordinaire," composed of Dally Lahr, 12-year-old pianist; Virginia Ellis, 12, and Aileen O'Day, vocalist. These musical prodigies gave a splendid program of popular and operatic music.

Comments will be made during the interpretations by Virginia Stewart Metze. Both were students in the Mary Wigman School of Dance in Germany.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17,

MRS. WILLIAMS HOSTESS TO MUSIC GROUP AT INTERESTING SESSION

Forty members and guests of the music section of the Arcadia Woman's club filled to overflowing the French period living room of Mrs. S. L. Williams, 353 Naomi, Tuesday afternoon.

Dainty morsels of dessert were offered by the gracious hostesses, by Mesdames Williams, Anna Lumpkin, Margaret Perry, and Flora McCaleb.

After a short business meeting and the roll call, to which members were required to name a musical instrument, ancient or modern, three papers were read.

"Early Church Schools to the Sixteenth Century" was the theme of a paper by Mrs. S. L. Williams, read by the secretary, Mrs. E. E. Balling. Mrs. Bert Morris discussed the bits of the biographies of Ambrose and Pope Gregory. A paper about Franco of Cologne and Guido D'Orezzo with a brief expose of the contribution of each to musical form as we know it today was read by Mrs. Esther Hough.

Harold H. Scott, of the music department of the Arcadia-Monrovia-Duarte high school and director of the San Gabriel Symphony orchestra, discussed the origin and development of orchestras and orchestral instruments. Members of the high school orchestra illustrated various tone shadings achieved by the different instruments of the modern orchestra. The instruments ranged from a violin to the double bass and a piccolo to a bassoon. The facile tongue and impressive vocabulary of Mr. Scott were as much enjoyed as the very interesting subject matter.

FIRST BENEFIT PARTY OF WOMAN'S CLUB BIG SUCCESS

If future ways and means committee benefit parties are as successful as the first affair staged at Arcadia Woman's Club on Monday under the direction of Mrs. John S. Craig, general chairman, then indeed the coffers of the club this year will be bursting with plenty.

For at Monday's affair more than 175 women crowded the auditorium, filling it to overflowing and necessitating extra bridge tables to be placed on the stage and foyer to care for the crowd.

Professional models wearing smart fall ensembles paraded about the auditorium to the languid strains of stringed music at the hour fashion show that preceded the bridge. Sumptuous fur wraps, richly jeweled evening gowns, chic afternoon ensembles, pretty morning frocks, and the last word in dinner and cocktail outfits were shown.

Many prizes were donated to high scores. Winners included Mrs. Marion Edwards, Mrs. Elsie Ray, Mrs. Rose Yarrow, Mrs. Gibbons, and Mrs. K. Perrine, first in contract; Mrs. A. Armbruster, first in auction, and Mrs. Emily Faulkner, first in Chinese checkers. Mrs. Lorna Kaskel won the door prize.

Since most of the materials for dessert were contributed, a nice sum is expected to be realized for the club's treasury.

Assisting Mrs. Craig in the enterprise were Mesdames Harvey Moss, Jackson Stanley, John Murfett, Bert Morris, H. E. Riess, C. F. Ganther, B. E. Rubottom, E. J. Frentress, and Eugene Perry.

Mrs. Robert Scheffel, Mrs. R. H. Lucas, Mrs. F. A. Tester, Mrs. Claude Bonner, Mrs. W. P. Osterhout, Mrs. Arthur Smollen, Mrs. Eugene Harpole, Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, Mrs. Edwin Balling.

Mrs. Robert Ferrante, Mrs. William Hobbs, Mrs. J. T. Reynolds, Mrs. A. R. Chambers, Mrs. M. J. Bankhead, and Mrs. W. G. Lewis.

FASHION SHOW, BRIDGE ATTRACTS LARGE CROWD

One hundred and seventy five viewed and reviewed the fall fashon show staged Monday at the Woman's club with more than 40 dresses, suits and coats professionally modeled.

The afternoon started off with refreshments by the chairman, Mrs. J. Stephen Craig and her committee and concluded with auction, contract bridge and Chinese checkers.

Prize winners for the contract games included Mmes. Marion Edwards, Elsie Ray, Rose Yarrow, Gibbons and Kay Perrin. Mrs. Emily Faulkner captured the Chinese checker award and Mrs. Armbuster the auction. Mrs. August Kaskel was the fortunate winner of the draw prize.

This fall affair will materially swell the treasury which was practically depleted in the spring with the paying off of the clubhouse mortgage. The finance committee, Mrs. Belle Bonner, chairman is anxious to build up a fund preparatory to enlarging the auditorium. At Monday's event every available inch of space was utilized to seat members and friends, the stage and foyer being crowded to capacity, as well as the main assembly room.

...Lots and lots of Arcadia women must like to play bridge...judging from the crowd, Monday, that greeted the first bridge party to be staged by the ways and means committee...the auditorium was filled with women bent on bridge...energetic Mrs. James Stephen Craig... was the chairman....

Garden Group Meets with Miss Faulkner

The first meeting of the garden section of the Arcadia Woman's club was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Emily Faulkner, 481 West Palm drive, with Mrs. Elsie Murfett presiding. Mrs. Bertha Nichols was elected secretary.

Then followed an interesting demonstration on flower arrangement by Mrs. A. Reid, of Glendora, former state federation garden chairman. Mrs. Reid brought her own containers and flowers from her own garden.

The afternoon concluded with a social hour and the serving of tea and cakes to the 22 members present. Mrs. J. Stephen Craig acted as cohostess with Miss Faulkner.

BRIDGE DAY

Bridge Day is being observed each Monday at 12:30 at the Arcadia Woman's club house. All ladies, whether club members or not, are cordially invited next Monday. The half hour instruction, which precedes the play, will deal with doubles, penalty, and take out.

FASHION SHOW AND CARDS ENJOYED BY CLUB AT SEASON'S FIRST PARTY

The first party of the season, given by the Arcadia Woman's club on Monday, was a great success, with fully 175 ladies attending, to whom a delicious dessert was served at 12:45. This was followed by a lovely fashion show, put on by the F. C. Nash company of Pasadena and directed by Miss Jane Robinson. All sorts of ladies apparel were shown, including sports wear, afternoon ensembles, costume suits, furs and fur trimmed coats, dinner dresses, and evening gowns. These were displayed by eight professional models to the accompaniment of soft Hawaiian music provided by an unseen trio of young men.

Cards and games followed, the prizes going to Mesdames Marion Edwards, Elsie Roy, Rose Yarrow, K. Perrin, and M. Gibbons in contract. Mrs. Armbruster in auction, and Miss Emily Faulkner in Chinese checkers. The draw prize, a beautifully decorated cake, was won by Mrs. Lorna Kaskel.

Mildred Bryant Brooks To Address Arcadia Clubwomen

FAMOUS AMERICAN ETCHER, TO ADDRESS ARCADIA WOMAN'S CLUB AT TOMORROW'S MEETING

Mildred Bryant Brooks, famous etcher and first woman to win the $500 associaite award from the Sociiety of Etchers in 1936 at Chicago, will bring a display of her works and comment on "The Romance of Etching" at tomorrow's meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club.

Of charming personality and well versed in her art, Mrs. Bryant has won 19 national and international etching awards, including the silver medal at Paris in 1937. Claiming the west as her home, the artist is the first person this side of the Rocky Mountains to be internationally recognized. She has appeared before many well known clubs and audiences locally and abroad and comes highly recommended.

Mrs. Wood Glover and her committee will serve luncheon at 12:15, reservations may be phoned to her.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Belle Bonner, accredited Culbertson contract bridge teacher, program and finance chairman, enough money has been earned from the Monday afternoon lessons and play at the Woman's club to purchase the greatly needed spot lights. These proved advantageous at last week's program when the stage was used. Before the series of lessons started officers decided the money derived therefrom would be used to refurbish the stage. Arcadia and Temple Ciity ladies continue to attend, learning the fudamentals and fine points of the game from Mrs. Bonner.

Members are cordially invited to attend the club meeting tomorrow by the president, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh. Current events are also slated for a brief review.

Noted Etcher to Speak to Club

Mrs. Belle Bonner, program chairman of the Arcadia Woman's club, announces the entertainer for the next meeting of the club, to be held on November 1, as Mildred Bryant Brooks, of Pasadena. Her subject will be "The Romance of Etching."

Mrs. Brooks has won 19 national and international awards for her own work. In 1936 she carried off top honors in Chicago at the convention of the International Society of Etchers and in 1937 won the silver award in Paris. Besides her genius at etching, for which she uses California scenes, Mrs. Brooks is an authority on flower arrangement and shadow boxes.

OCTOBER 29, 1939

ARCADIA

Mildred Bryant Brooks, nationally-known artist, will demonstrate "The Romance of Etching" at the Arcadia Woman's Club meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Current events will be given during the luncheon period. Guest speaker will be Miss Cryssie Ann Hotchkiss, Spanish teacher at the Monrovia - Arcadia - Duarte High School, who spent the summer in Europe.

Mrs. May Glover is luncheon chairman, with Mesdames Alice James, Shirley Hartnett, Flora McCaleb, Ruth Harpole, Harriet Armstrong, Henrietta Anderson, Gladys Bird, and Lois Kendall composing her committee. Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, will preside.

Fall Flower Show

The annual fall flower show of the garden section will be held Nov. 8 at the clubhouse, according to Mrs. Elsie Murfett, chairman.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO HEAR ARTIST

Mildred Bryant Brooks, nationally known artist, will demonstrate 'The Romance of Etching" with an illustrated lecture at the Arcadia Woman's Club, next Wednesday, November 1, on the afternoon program.

Current events will be given during the luncheon period with Mrs. Carl Randolph, chairman, presenting Miss Cryssie Ann Hotchkiss, Spanish teacher at Monrovia-Arcadia-Duarte High School, who spent the summer in Europe, as guest speaker.

Mrs. May Glover is luncheon chairman, with Mesdames Alice James, Shirley Hartnett, Flora McCaleb, Ruth Harpole, Harriet Armstrong, Henrietta Anderson, Gladys Bird, and Lois Kendall composing her committee. Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, will preside.

'Bowl of Rice' Party Planned Saturday

The annual "Bowl of Rice" dinner will occur Saturday evening at the Woman's club house and all members of the community are invited to enjoy a turkey dinner, which will be unusually fine.

R. H. Schwarzkopf, official chairman last year, is again directing the affair and promises a splendid program. Every cent realized will be sent to China. The ladies of the Altar society of the Church of the Holy Angels, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Margaret Rubly, president, are providing the dinner. "Nuf sed."

Club Entertained by Dancer, Singer

The regular meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club held last week was an interesting event. A large crowd, more than 100 ladies, enjoyed the luncheon served at noon by Mrs. Anna West and her efficient committee.

Kurt Metze gave a number of dances, one Spanish, one Javanese, a Gypsy dance, and an original one which he called the Sailor Boy dance, with Virginia Stewart Metze as commentator.

This was followed by several vocal solos by Mary Estey, sung to her own accompaniment, after which she entertained with several delightful piano solos.

DANCE COMPOSED 'FOR FUN' WINS OVATION AT CLUB

In a vigorous, rollicking sailor's dance composed "just for fun", Kurt Metze, dancer, brought down the house, displaying an unexpected flair for comedy, and completely captivating his audience with the last dance on the program of original compositions which he staged at Arcadia Woman's club, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Metze danced four numbers each with deep cultural implications and while his more serious numbers, "Toreador", "Japanese Stylized" and "Gypsy" dances were artistically complete, it was the verve and joy he gave to the "Sailor Boy" that stopped the show.

Miss Mary Estey, pianist-chanteuse, accompanied Mr. Metze and between his numbers sang "Clavelitos" a rippling Spanish number, by Valverde and a jolly folk song, "El Zifiro", with graceful fire and animation. Her piano solos, "Praeludium" by MacDowell; "Traumerei" by Strauss, contrasted interestingly with "Romance" by Debussy and "Concert Etude in D Flat" by Liszt showing her all around musicianship and sensitivity.

Mrs. Ina P. Millspaugh, president, graciously guided the luncheon meeting, introducing four new members, Mesdames Marjorie S. Braithwaite, Frances Williams, Claire S. Pates, and Sutia P. Utman. She also presented the chairmen of her standing committees, Mrs. Bonner, program and finance; Mrs. Winnie Tester, membership; Mrs. Bertha Lewis, press; Mrs. Alice Moss, hospitality; Mrs. Janet Crane, courtesy; Mrs. Hartnett, philanthrophy; and Mrs. Susan Riess, house.

Mrs. Bonner introduced Mrs. Virginia Stewart Metze who gave a comprehensive outline of the art of the dance before her husband's concert.

Hallowe'en black cats and colors and fall flowers on the table made the attractive decorations used by Mesdames McMaster, Mae Brown, Nettie Noack, and Elizabeth Ingram. Flowers, picked and delivered by the Garden Section, were jointly contributed by Mesdames Moore, Moss, Bonner, and Florence Granville.

In addition to names announced last week for the luncheon committee, chairmaned by Mrs. Anna West, was that of Mrs. Helen Connor.

ARCADIA CLUB WOMEN DISCUSS PLANS TO ENLARGE AUDITORIUM AND ARRANGE FOR ESCORT NIGHT, NOV. 6

PATRONESSES NAMED TO SERVE ON 'RICE BOWL' COMMITTEES

Plans were rapidly nearing completion today for Arcadia's "Bowl of Rice" dinner to be staged Saturday evening, October 28, in the Woman's Clubhouse, when the citizens of this community will take part in a nation-wide benefit directed to bring relief to the women and children of war-scarred China.

Communities throughout the United States during the last week of October will be participating in similar dinner events, under the supervision of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, chairman of the movement inaugurated in this country last year.

Tickets for the turkey dinner and "surprise" entertainment, priced at 75 cents, went on sale this week at the Bank of America, City Hall, Chamber of Commerce, and the Schwarzkopf and Meents Realty office, 11 West Huntington Drive. R. H. Schwarzkopf is chairman of the Arcadia event, being reappointed by Colonel Roosevelt in appreciation of the splendid manner in which last year's dinner was staged here.

Mrs. Bert J. Morris is in complete charge of the dinner program, Schwarzkopf announced.

Serving as patronesses for the affair are:

100 DINERS AT 'RICE BOWL'

Embodying the grace and beauty of her country's womanhood, Mrs. W. S. Wang, of Pasadena, told guests at the Bowl of Rice benefit dinner held Saturday night in Arcadia Woman's clubhouse, of the changed status of modern Chinese women.

More than a hundred diners heard Mrs. Wang contrast the women of the past with those of the present day and point out the active part taken by Chinese women in their country's struggle. She also sketched the school system and told of improvements made in educational methods.

Mrs. Wang, wearing a black and white Chinese gown, was honor guest as was C. C. Liang, Chinese scholar and graduate student of Cal-Tech, also garbed in Chinese dress.

Mr. Liang narrated the history of the Chinese language and told of the various dialects that divided an area as small as twenty miles, making it impossible for a Chinese to understand his countrymen residing twenty miles away.

Demonstrating differences in Chinese the charming pair related an ancient Chinese legend in Mandarin, China's classical tongue, and in a dialect. The impromptu English translation of the tale given by Mr. Liang was roundly applauded.

R. H. Schwarzkopf, Arcadia's Bowl of Rice chairman, presided and did much to advance the enjoyment of the evening by his goodnatured "ribbing" of the audience. "Victims", who responded in kind, included A. N. Multer, Emma Hainer, Harvey Moss, Frank Hoagland and Charles Berry. Captain John Record, at the behest of the chairman, described a trip he made through the Orient.

The Altar Society of the Church of the Holy Angels cooked the delicious roast turkey dinner and members of the Young People's society assisted in the serving. Mrs. Margaret Rubly, society president, and Mrs. Bert J. Morris, past president, headed the dinner committee.

Donations of food were made by the Shopping Bag, Market Basket and Robinson's markets, Chairman Schwarzkopf announced.

At the auction following the dinner Thomas N. Havlin purchased the reproduction of an oil painting by Wing, famous Chinese artist, used this year as a theme for Bowl of Rice parties throughout the country.

Patronesses for the affair included Mesdames A. R. Chambers, Glenn Watson, C. E. Hoover, Emma E. Hainer, B. Morris, W. H. Hobbs, Grace E. Schwarzkopf, Virginia Diggins, H. S. Brookover, M. G. Millspaugh, Ralph B. Ericsson, Rubly, G. S. Eberly and J. R. Griffitts.

Arcadia Boy Scout Troop 5 In Demonstration

Boy Scout Troop No. 5, sponsored by the Arcadia Woman's club, Tuesday evening entertained about 60 members and friends demonstrating their skills learned during the summer.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, Woman's club president, introduced Mrs. A. R. Chambers, chairman, who in turn introduced her son Bob Chambers, troop scoutmaster. The Men's auxiliary, H. N. Dickinson, Dr. C. W. Shier, C. J. Smith, F. A. Tester, and H. E. Cox acknowledged introductions.

Robert and Ward Miller entertained with accordian numbers, Robert also playing the piano. Mrs. John W. Loy of Alhambra, representing the Federation of Mothers' Auxiliaries briefly addressed the group, presenting plans for forming a Mothers' club here.

Among the hobbies exhibited by the boys were: canaries; crystal receiving set; rock collection and other interestiing gadgets.

This troop is proud of its accomplishments. Recently 51 merit badges were awarded at the Court of Honor which proves the boys have spent many hours of work and study during the summer.

Refreshments concluded the annual event which is scheduled in the Woman's club year book as "Scout Night". Cakes were furnished by the boys' mothers but the Scouts bought the ice cr,eam.

Husbands To Be Club Guests Monday Night

"Escort Night," annual entertainment devised for husbands and escorts of members of Arcadia Woman's Club will be held Monday evening, November 6, at 6:30 o'clock, when a turkey dinner will be served before an unique evening of entertainment, "A Trip To Hawaii" is presented.

Mrs. W. C. Bonner, program chairman, promises an unusual program featuring Hawaiian music, authentic native hulas by Miss Helen Quirk of Monrovia, and singing and dancing, staged in a "South Sea" atmosphere.

Heading the dinner committee are Mesdames Arthur Smollen, Glenn Watson and Le Roy Anderson.

FAMOUS ETCHER SLATED FOR WOMAN'S CLUB PROGRAM WEDNESDAY

Mildred Bryant Brooks, famous etcher and first woman to win the $500 associaite award from the Sociiety of Etchers in 1936 at Chicago, will bring a display of her works and comment on "The Romance of Etching" at next Wednesday's Woman's club meeting.

Of charming personality and well versed in her art, Mrs. Bryant has won 19 national and international etching awards, including the silver medal at Paris in 1937. Claiming the west as her home, the artist is the first person this side of the Rocky Mountains to be internationally recognized. She has appeared before many well known clubs and audiences locally and abroad and comes highly recommended.

Mrs. Wood Glover and her committee will serve luncheon at 12:15, reservations may be phoned to her.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Belle Bonner, accredited Culbertson contract bridge teacher, program and finance chairman, enough money has been earned from the Monday afternoon lessons and play at the Woman's club to purchase the greatly needed spot lights. These proved advantageous at last week's program when the stage was used. Before the series of lessons started officers decided the money derived therefrom would be used to refurbish the stage. Arcadia and Temple Ciity ladies continue to attend, learning the fudamentals and fine points of the game from Mrs. Bonner.

Members are cordially invited to attend the club meeting next week by the president, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh. Current events are also slated for a brief review.

SPONSOR FREE DANCE FOR ARCADIANS

A series of dances for young folk of Arcadia will be held this winter in the Arcadia Woman's Club, Miss Joan Wilson and Miss Lona Augustine, supervisors in charge, announced this week.

The movement, designed to provide suitable environment for juvenile dancers, has been approved by the club and each function will be chaperoned by club members.

Tomorrow night, at 8 o'clock, Miss Wilson and Miss Augustine are inviting Arcadians of all ages to attend a dance at the club and enjoy a program of free entertainment.

Tommy Tucker's orchestra will supply the music for the dancers, and Miss Wilson will perform an exhibition Viennese waltz, a polka, and a tango, while Miss Augustine will play a group of piano numbers at the intermission.

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the evening. There is no charge of any kind and all dancers of the city are invited.

Experienced in recreational work and youth leadership, Miss Wilson will be remembered as county recreational leader at Arcadia County Park last summer. She has had a thorough grounding in dance work under Arthur Murray, Ernest Belcher, and Theodore Kosloff.

JOAN WILSON

LONA AUGUSTINE

Miss Augustine, formerly with R.K.O. and Paramount studios, studied music in Europe and in Hollywood. She is now connected with the Oge Schol of Artists in Hollywood.

RECEPTION SET FOR NOV. 14

Invitations are in the mail for the informal wedding reception that is to follow the marriage of Miss Margaret E. Brown, of Pasadena, and Robert D. Chambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Chambers, of Arcadia, on November 14.

The wedding will be held at an undisclosed place and the young couple will come here immediately after for the reception.

Miss Brown, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stanley Brown, is secretary of Arcadia Woman's Club Juniors. She graduated from Pasadena Junior College, where she was affiliated with the exclusive One Club.

Mr. Chambers' alma mater was U. S. C. He belongs to Kappa Sigma fraternity. Now connected with Sears-Roebuck at their new store in Los Angeles, he is well known in Arcadia for his splendid work as scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop No. 5.

CHARM KEYNOTE OF WOMAN'S CLUB PROGRAM

Sir James Barrie would have liked the program at the Arcadia Woman's club yesterday for it was notable for that indefinable quality of "c h a r m" which he made famous by his writtings.

It began with Miss Cryssie Anne Hotchkiss, Spanish teacher of Monrovia-Arcadia-Duarte High School, who vividly described her tour through Spain immediately after the conclusion of the Spanish war, and the excitement of jittery Europe attendant upon the war in September.

Miss Hotchkiss, young, slim and informal, held her audience spellbound as she recounted adventures in Spain. She gave an eye-witness account of ruined buildings, gaping corners, where churches once stood, and trench-scarred battlefields, the aftermath of bombings in the city of Madrid.

From Spain, Miss Hotchkiss went to Italy, where she found the folk wearing their militarism lightly. She visited Vienna and Budapest and obtained the impression that the Viennese resented their Nazi masters.

The outbreak of war found her in Florence, and she quickly hurried to Paris to try and obtain passage home. After experiencing a Parisian blackout and many adventures in Havre she secured passage on the Ill de France. Aboard rumors flew thick and fast after the sinking of the Athenia and it was with a joyful heart that she saw the Goddess of Liberty lift her arm above the horizon.

Even injecting charm into a political speech, Mrs. Catherine Nelson, speaking against the 30-Thursday measure, sketched the disaster that has always followed the issuance of script since the time of Kubla Khan. She outlined many of the evils awaiting the state in the event that the bill is passed.

As fluid and lovely as one of her own etched lines, Mildred Bryant Brooks, internationally known woman etcher and the holder of 19 award medals, brought the art of etching to life as she prepared a copper plate for etching.

An accomplished speaker, with the ability to project her personality as cleverly as any dramatic actress, Mrs. Brooks made each gesture a thing of beauty as she waxed and smoked the plate. One of the interesting facts pointed out was that the art of etching is the same now as it was in the time of the old masters. There has been no short-cut discovered nor an easier method of preparation.

So individual is an etching, Mrs. Brooks told, that it cannot be copied. Each man's work is as distinctive as his fingerprints. The prepared plates upon which the artist draws are so sensitive they will record his heartbeats.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, presided, with Mrs. Carl Randolph, current events chairman, presenting Miss Hotchkiss as her portion of the splendid program. Mrs. Randolph spoke briefly on the world situation, but declined to comment at length, because of the "controversies" at home and the "confusion" abroad. Mrs. W. C. Bonner, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Brooks.

A board meeting followed the meeting and two political speakers discussed the pro's and con's of Proposition No. 5, the Sharkey-Hall oil bill.

Fall flowers decorated the luncheon tables and hall. Mrs. Harry Nesbitt and a committee were in charge. Mrs. May Glover headed the luncheon committee, composed of Mesdames Elizabeth Walker, Helen E. Smollen, Shirley Hartnett, Flora McCaleb, Ruth Harpole, Harriet Armstrong, Henrietta Anderson, and Lois Kendall.

Varied Program At Woman's Club

Nearly a hundred Arcadia women now know more about the process of etching than they did before they attended Wednesday's meeting of the Woman's club.

Mildred Bryant Brooks, famous etching artist of Pasadena, was the principal entertainer on the program hour, disclosing the steps necessary to prepare a copper plate for an etching. The interesting and informative speaker displayed many of her works and was well received by the audience.

During luncheon Miss Cryssie Hotchkis, teacher of Spanish in the local high school, spoke about her recent visit to Spain and France and her home voyage. Three political speakers presented their views on how to vote at next Tuesday's election.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, welcomed the members and conducted a brief business session.

Luncheon served to 84, was in charge of Mrs Wood Glover. Her assistants were: Mmes. Wm Anderson, Shirly Hartnett, Flora McCaleb, Ruth Harpole, Harriet Armstrong, Lois Kendall, Elizabeth Walker and A Smollen.

HISTORY SECTION MEETS FOR FIRST TIME IN NEW SEASON

The correct pronunciation of California's lovely old Spanish names and the preservation and memorizing of old California songs are to be two of the projects sponsored this year by the California History and Landmarks Section of Arcadia Woman's Club. Mrs. John Renshaw and Mrs. J. M. MacFarlane will be in charge of Spanish word drill and Mrs. Helen Lumpkin of the music.

A forecast of coming events was given at the first meeting of the new season held at the home of Mrs. Bert Rubottom and Miss Eva Reynolds, sister-members of the section, and decision to carry on the two projects was made.

It was announced by Mrs. Emily Mann Timerhoff, section chairman, that the first pilgrimage of the year will be held on Wednesday, November 29, and will be a 50-mile round trip to visit the four historic adobes of the Palomares, Alvarado, Carrino and Vejar families.

The November session will feature "The Gold Seal of California," by Mrs. John Vanderbur, and "A Trek to Old Adobes," by Mrs. Lumpkin, who is specializing in the history of old California homes.

Members reported on summer vacations and an informative paper on Hallowe'en was read by Mrs. J. M. MacFarlane. "The Ghosts of Yesteryear" formed a sheeted procession to tell reasons for the "All Souls Return."

The two hostesses presided over a Hallowe'en table at the social hour that was held at the end of the meeting.

Members present were Mesdames H. Riess, J. Renshaw, J. S. Craig, E. Falconer, H. Lumpkin, MacFarlane, E. Donkin, F. Muller, J. Stoker, E. Criddlebaugh, C. Crane, C. Crellin, E. Frentress, C. Ganther, J. Vanderbur, F. Glasser, C. Hoover, and E. Perry.

'PINOCCHIO' TO BE STAGED FOR CHILDREN ON NOV. 9

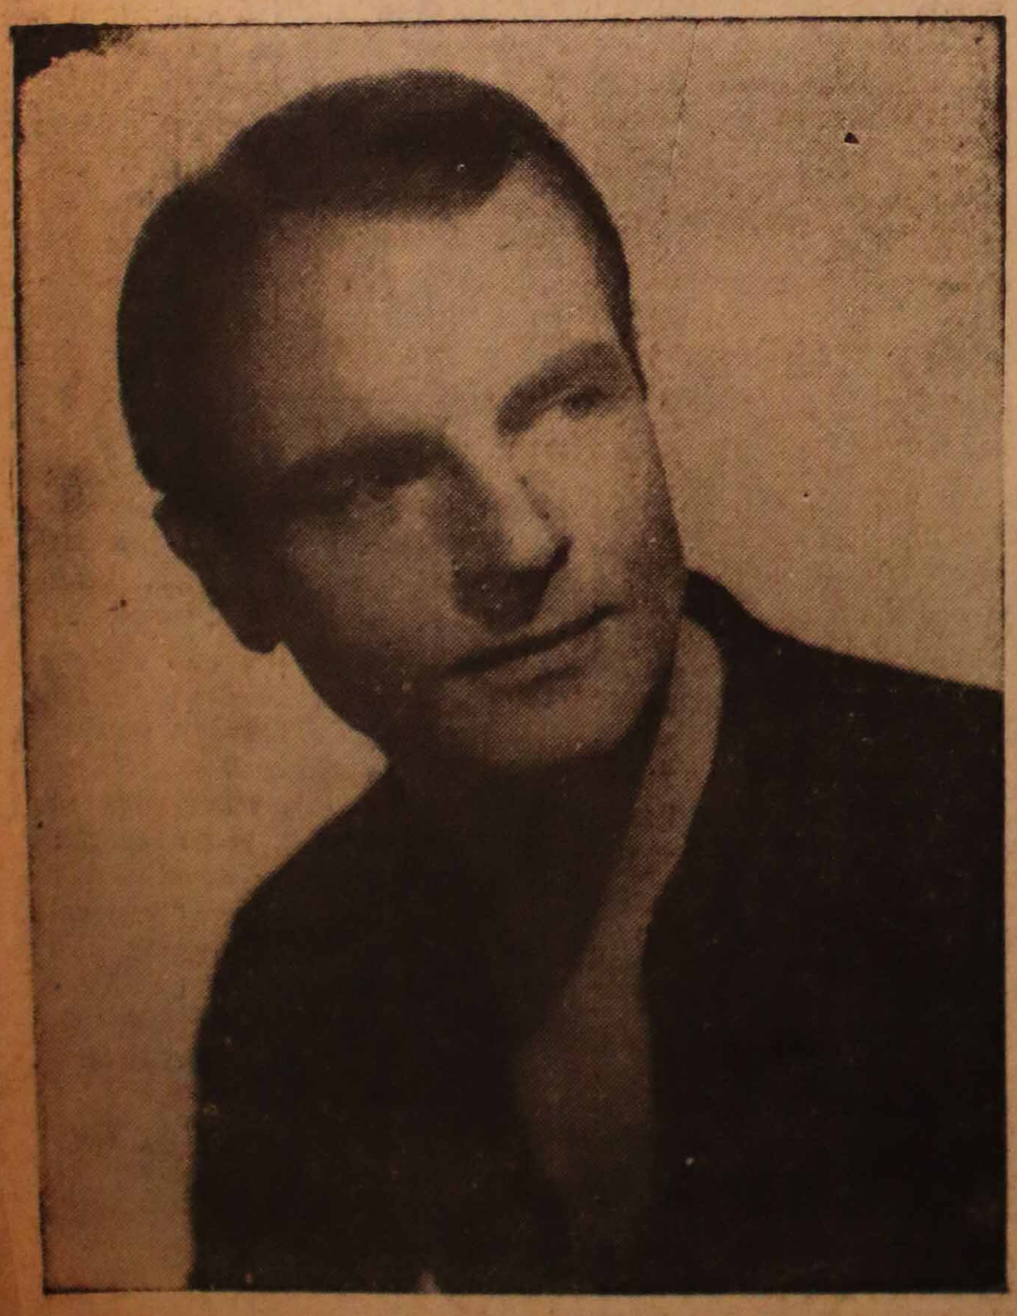
Arcadia Woman's Club and Parent-Teacher leaders are sponsoring a narrative ballet, "Pinocchio," to be staged by Junior Programs, Inc., on Thursday, November 9, at Monrovia-Arcadia-Duarte High School auditorium at 7:45 p. m.

"Pinocchio," the familiar story of the mischievous lovable puppet who came to life to find himself continually in hot water, will be danced by Edwin Strawbridge, noted ballet dancer. The background music has been especially written for the production. A narrator, in colorful costume, reads the scenario from the side of the stage as the pantomime is staged.

Junior Programs, Inc., is a non-commercial, non-profit organization, devoted to the task of bringing to the children of America the best in theatrical entertainment.

To the Arcadia sponsors goes the distinction of bringing Junior Programs to the west coast for the first time and the western inaugural is attracting attention from a number of Southland communities. Orders for tickets already have been received from cities in Orange county.

Twists the Fantastic Toe



EDWIN STRAWBRIDGE

"Pinocchio" Comes To Life

"Pinocchio," beloved character of childhood, will come to life for Arcadia youngsters on November 9 when Junior Programs, Inc., presents a ballet based on his life at the Monrovia-Arcadia-Duarte High School. The child coloring this picture in the neatest and most artistic manner will be awarded a prize and have his picture posted in the auditorium the night of the play. The picture must be sent to Virginia Stewart, 138 Alta Street, Arcadia. The winner will be announced next week in the Tribune and News.

FALL FLOWER SHOW SET FOR WOMAN'S CLUB ON NOV. 8

Amateur and professional gardeners of Arcadia are looking forward to next Wednesday, November 8, at 1 o'clock when the annual Fall Flower show of the Garden Section of the Arcadia Woman's club will get underway. There is no admission and all gardeners, whether club members or not, are invited by the committee in charge to exhibit.

According to Mrs. John Murfett, supervising chairman, exhibits will be received from 8 to 12 a. m. Exhibitors are requested to supply their own containers and all garden lovers are urged to take part.

A musical program, in charge of Mrs. Charles W. Stewart will be presented during the show and supper and light refreshments for those who wish them will be served at reasonable prices.

Mrs. Murfett reminded committee members that a special meeting has been called for Tuesday, November 7, in the clubhouse, at 2 p. m., to finish last details.

On the committee for the all-day affair are the following: Mrs. Jackson Stanley, Mrs. Harvey Moss, and Mrs. Murfett, supervising chairmen; Mrs. M. G. Millspaugh, Mrs. G. G. Meade, Miss Pearl Smith, Mrs. Anne Felt, and Mrs. J. MacFarlane, hostesses.

Mrs. James S. Craig, Mrs. Eugene L. Perry, Mrs. Horace S. Nichols, candy; Mrs. R. W. Evans, tea room; Mrs. Pauline Crader, Mrs. C. F. Noack, Mrs. J. Thompson, plant table.

Mrs. S. L. Chase, Mrs. G. M. Crawford, Mrs. A. R. Chambers, chrysanthemums and dahlias; Mrs. A. L. Parker, Miss E. Ruth Evans, and Mrs. Edward G. Marshall, roses; Mrs. Le Roy Anderson, flower arrangements.

Mrs. Moss, Mrs. Victor Wagoner, perennials and annuals; Mrs. William Brandt, cactus, gourds; Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, grasses and weed table; Miss Emilie Faulkner, fruits and vegetables; Mrs. Stanley, individual arrangements and miniatures; Mrs. K. B. Leslie, shrubs; Mrs. W. C. Bonner, junior exhibit.

Information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Stanley at Atwater 7-2837, or Mrs. Moss at Atwater 7-1841.

WOMAN'S CLUB ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW NOV. 8

Under the direction of the Garden Section of the Woman's club the annual flower show will be held in the clubhouse next Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Those of the community interested are invited to send in exhibits of cut flowers or potted plants. The event is open to the public.

WOMAN'S CLUB 'HOBBY DAY'

What clubwomen do for relaxation will be disclosed to an inquisitive world next Wednesday, November 15, at Arcadia Woman's Club, when members exhibit their hobbies on "Hobby Day."

Mrs. Edith B. Roberts, club member, will talk on "Hobbies" during the luncheon period. Mrs. Bessie Sanborn is luncheon chairman. She will be assisted by the following committee: Mesdames Luella Phelps, Alice Cline, Leon Burton, Catherine Thompson, Evelyn Brown, Leanore Glasser, Charlotte Henneforth, and Margaret McClarey.

A short business meeting is to follow at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, will be the conducting officer.

Thursday, November 9, 1939

MUSIC SECTION TO DISCUSS GREAT SYMPHONIES TUESDAY

Mrs. Ruth Harpole, 1156 Arcadia Avenue, will be hostess at the November meeting of the Music Section of Arcadia Woman's Club at her home on Tuesday, November 14, at 1:45 p. m. Dessert will precede the program. Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, chairman, will preside.

Hostesses assisting Mrs. Harpole are Mesdames Jessie Stewart, Gibbs and Lola Trew.

The program will open with a paper on Beethoven's Eroica Symphony given by Mrs. Florence Anderson. Mrs. Charlotte Henneforth will discuss Tschaikowsky's Fifth Symphony and a book review on "My Musical Life," will be given by Mrs. Stewart.

Mrs. Bell Bonner will outline the history of the secular schools of music from the 12th to 17th century; Mrs. Gibbs the troubadours and meistersingers, and Mrs. Juliet Renshaw the music of Shakespeare's day.

Under the biography division, Mrs. Frank Hoagland will tell of the lives of Adam de la Halle and Hans Sachs. The subject of the roll call is "What Symphony Music Does For Me."

Second Dance Of Series Set Nov. 17

The second in the series of dances for juveniles and young people staged under the direction of Miss Joan Wilson and Miss Lona Augustine will be held next Friday, November 17, at the Arcadia Woman's Clubhouse, with Tommy Tucker's orchestra of Los Angeles, supplying the music.

Members of the Woman's Club will attend each function as patronesses. These affairs are to provide a suitable environment for youthful dancers.

Refreshments and a program of entertainment will be included in the 25c per person admission charge, it was announced.

Mrs. Roberts on Club Program Wednesday

Luncheon, a program and business are scheduled for next week's meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club.

Mrs. Edith B. Roberts, versatile and popular book reviewer, will be the highlight of the afternoon, giving a talk on hobbies.

Luncheon will be served by Mrs. Hugh Sanborn and her committee at 12:15 and Mrs. Mark Millspaugh will transact the business of the day at two. Members are cordially invited to attend.

WOMAN'S CLUB ENTERTAINS HUSBANDS AND ESCORTS

Palms, bright flowers, grass mats, exotic screens,, and jardinieres of greenery transformed Arcadia Woman's Club into an Hawaiian scene Monday night for the annual Husbands' and Escorts' dinner and celebration. Mrs. Ina P. Millspaugh, president, presided.

More than 200 people attended the turkey dinner and program of entertainment that followed. Miniature Hawaiian scenes formed the clever centerpiece devised by the decorating committee, headed by Mrs. R. N. McMaster and Mrs. George Schenck.

A group of three Hawaiian musicians sang and played typical music and Miss Helen Quirk, of Monrovia, danced authentic native hulas, explaining the story behind each dance, on the program presented by Mrs. Belle Bonner, program chairman.

Mrs. Harold Wright, of South Pasadena, descendant of Hawaii's first king, read selections from Don Blanding, Island poet, and a colored travelogue in sound was screened through the courtesy of the Matson Navigation Company.

Heading the dinner committee were Mesdames LeRoy Anderson, Glenn Watson, and A. A. Smollen. They were assisted by Mesdames Ella Owen, Emmy Kaskel, Caroline Ganther, Evelyn Brown, Florence Muller, Earl McDonnell, Blodwen Ferrante, Helen Hall, Helen Connor.

Waiters and waitresses, each wearing traditional leis, were Margaret Brown, Virginia Brown, Eleanora Ott, Marjorie Dickson, Jane Robinson, Lenore Leeper, Marjorie Hobbs, Doris Lucas, Ida Lee Wheeler, Beth Lou Strong, Joellen Beckstrom, Lorraine Schenck, Russell Randolph and Calvin Meehan.

The committee responsible for roasting turkeys were Mesdames Bertha Lewis, Ethel Brentress, Leanore Glasser, Owen, Bess Hoagland, Bonner and Frances Leslie.

HAWAIIAN PROGRAM ENJOYED ON WOMAN'S CLUB ESCORTS' NIGHT

Escorts' Night was observed Monday, at the Woman's club house, with more than 200 attending.

Mrs. Glen B. Watson and Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, in charge of the dining room, with their committee served a fine turkey dinner with all the trimmings, and the decorations, both of the club house and of the tables, were very beautiful. These were arranged by Mrs. Margaret McMaster and her committee.

In keeping with the program, Hawaiian colors of yellow and green were used exclusively. After the banquet, a Hawaiian trio of young men entertained with some delightful music, followed by the reading of some suitable poems of Don Blanding's by Mrs. Harold Wright, of South Pasadena. Mrs. Wright is a direct descendent of the first king of Hawaii.

Escorts Night Dinner Party Entertained Hawaiian Style

More than 200 members and their escorts enjoyed the gala Hawaiian atmosphere and entertainment Monday evening at the "Escorts Night" dinner party sponsored by the Woman's club.

Turkey and trimmings formed the -piece de resistance' at the 6:30 dinner served at several long tables attractively decorated with South Sea island crepe paper palms and beautful mums. Leiis were much in evidence, 'waitresses' and other responsible for the successful event waring the bright hued insignia of Hawaii.

Telling the story, then interpreting with a dance, Miss Helen Quirk of Monrovia provided unusual entertainment. A descendant of the well known Queen Lil' read several of his native land poems and a trio of Hawaiian musicians furnished the musical setting, during the showing of motion pictures of the islands.

Responsible for the affair were Mrs. W. C. Bonner, Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, Mrs. G. B. Watson, Mrs. A. Smollen and their many assistants.

DESSERT BRIDGE

Extensive plans are being made by Mrs. M. M. Trew, November ways and means chairman, and her committee, for a dessert bridge to be held next Monday at 1 p. m. at the Woman's clubhouse. Chinese checkers will be provided as well as auction and contract, and many lovely prizes will be awarded. Everyone is invited whether a member of the club or not. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Trew, AT. 7-1697, or Mrs. Reynolds, AT. 7-2203.

BRIDGE DAY

Bridge Day was observed last Monday at Mrs. Bonner's home on First avenue, with four tables playing. Next Monday there will be no lesson because of the party to be given that day. Lessons will be resumed November 20 and the subject to be considered will be premptive bidding.

GORGEOUS ARRAY OF BLOOMS SEEN IN WOMAN'S CLUB FLOWER SHOW

Hundreds of posies sought the friendly shelter of the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse Wednesday, where with the aid of expert flower women they cast their shy charm or flaunted their exotic beauty.

Quilled mums, frilled mums, cabbage mums, single mums, button mums, and mums of every hue vied with Dahlias huge and glorious.

Prizes for best floral arrangements were donated by the Santa Anita Perennial gardens, Duarte road. First prize was won by Mrs. Ruth Wagoner with her symphonic display of shaded rust chrysanthemums arranged with bronzed autumn leaves in a clay jug of peasant manufacture from the Isle of Trinidad.

Mrs. J. D. Stanley's intricate arrangement of tiny flower containers bearing the weeest possible bits of flora, assembled on a glass what not, won second place. Dresden vases, golden slippers, Chinese vases, bottles of glass trimmed in shells, all in miniature, were among the containers.

The Arcadia schools entered 16 entries arranged by individual children or by a grade. First prize, an arrangement of pink roses in a blue bowl complete with two white ducks, donated by the club, became the prize of the fifth grade, First avenue school. The entry was a miniature Chinese garden.

Noteworthy among the displays was a table covered with yellow satin damask, with centerpiece of single white mums and lilies of the valley. Crystal three - branched candle sticks bearing white tapers, tiny Hummel figures whose sashes of green trailed eight strands on either side, and single white cabbage mums on each corner completed a very elaborate, well planned ensemble. Mrs. J. D. Stanley was the designer.

Mrs. John Murfett, chairman of the garden section of the club, and co-chairmen Mesdames J. D. Stanley and Harvey E. Moss were in charge of the show.

BRIDGE PARTY COMMITTEE

Mrs. Lola Trew, chairman of the benefit dessert-bridge, of Arcadia Woman's Club, set for next Monday, November 13, at the clubhouse, announces the following list of assistants:

In charge of the card games will be Mrs. Belle Bonner and Mrs. Florence Muller; the serving committee is composed of Mesdames Juanita Bunting, Isabel Evans, Ethel Gilbert, Alice Cline, Irene Culver, Grace Stanley, Edith Gruben, Florence Boller and Adele Nesbitt.

Mrs. Lulu Reynolds and Mrs. Pearl Schermerhorn will have charge of tickets, and Mrs. Gertrude Schenck and Mrs. Clara Morris the decorating.

Reservations will be taken by Mrs. Trew at Atwater 7-1697, and Mrs. Reynolds at Atwater 7-2203.

According to Mrs. Trew, the business people of Arcadia have generously donated handsome articles to be awarded as prizes and every effort is being made by the committee to make this a gala event.

Mrs. Trew Chairman Woman's Club Benefit

For her November quota of dollars for the Woman's club, Mrs. M. M. Trew has decided on a dessert-bridge benefit next Monday at the clubhouse to which members and the general public are invited.

Starting the afternoon at one o'clock with coffee and dessert guests will then play auction, contract or other games for which prizes will be awarded those making the highest scores. Arcadia merchants are 'doing their bit' by contributing merchandise for prizes. according to the chairman.

Assisting Mrs. Trew are Mmes. Juanita Bunting, Alice Cline, Irene Culver, Richard Evans, Ethel Gilbert, Grace Stanley, Edith Gruben, Ardene Boller, and Harry Nesbitt. Mrs. W. C. Bonner, assisted by Mrs. Florence Muller, will arrange the card tables and players and Mrs. Lulu Reynolds and Mrs. Pearl Schermerhorn will take care of the tickets. To insure an eye appeal setting, Mrs. Gertrude Schenck and Mrs. Bert J. Morris will decorate the club rooms.

"Don't forget the date, Nov. 13 and the hour, one p. m.." says Mrs. Trew.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS SECTION ESTABLISHED IN WOMAN'S CLUB

The International Relations section is another new department recently started in the Arcadia Woman's club. Twelve ladies attended the first meeting, held at the clubhouse last Thursday afternoon, and Mrs. Wood Glover was appointed chairman.

The present study subject is South America, and the program, sent out by the Pan-American Union from Washington, D. C., is sponsored by the General Federation of Woman's clubs.

Beginning at the next meeting, December 21, the ladies will gather at the different homes. Mrs. Belle Bonner, of 919 North First avenue, will be the first hostess, her assisting committee being Mrs. Elsie Krupp, Mrs. Florence Muller, and Mrs. Mary Pulver. Dessert will be served before the afternoon study session, which will deal with Brazil and Uraguay, particularly considering Rio de Janerio. All members of the club interested in this new project are invited to be present.

Club Philanthropy Department Busy

Two members of the newly created Philanthropy department of the Arcadia Woman's club attended a conference at club headquarters in Los Angeles last Thursday, Mrs. Edgar T. Reid, federation secretary of the local club and Mrs. M. A. Hartnett, chairman of the department, were acompanied by Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, federation secretary of the Junior club. will be held this month at the Ambassador hotel in Los Angeles.

Most of the session was built around the work of the Needlework Guild, whose ingathering much appreciated. Each member is asked to provide her own lunch, and coffee will be served.

GARDEN SECTION OF ARCADIA WOMAN'S CLUB STAGED ANNUAL SHOW OF BLOSSOMS WEDNESDAY

"Flowers here, flowers there, flowers everywhere" describes the Woman's clubhouse Wednesday when the Garden Section of the Arcadia Woman's club staged its annual show of blossoms.

Diversifying the floral panorama were here and there tables of bright hued gourds, cacti and succulents, grasses and weeds, even the commonplace vegetable found "sitting" room—a colorful egg plant accompanied by "his" family of foliage and flower added to the attractive glow of dahlias, 'mums and others from Nature's workshop that usually grace mi-lady's living rooms.

Three prizes, merchandise orders, were given by the Santa Anita Perennial Gardens (Mrs. Harvey Moss) for the most attractive and unique flower arrangements. These were garnered by Mrs. Ruth W. Wagoner, first, "autumn tones" leaves and chrysanthemums in the seasonal shades; Mrs. J. D. Stanley, second, "miniatures," a display of the smallest flowers of pastel hues arranged in tiny holders on two small gold and crystal shelf ensembles; and third, Mrs. Jack Senghas for her array of pansies.

Not only adults but the school children participated, with various entries, a prize award going to the First Avenue fifth grade.

Among those who took part in this flower fiesta were: The Wisteria Vine Gardens, Sierra Madre, a beautiful entry of cascade chrysanthemums which served as a back drop on the stage; Arcadia Girl Scouts; C. E. Roth with more than 100 gourds; Los Angeles Turf club; huge dahlias and roses from Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Chase's gardens; Mrs. G. M Crawford; Mrs. Bob Radley; Mrs. Wm. Brandt; Blanchard Gardens; Rockdale Nurseries, cacti and succulents; Mrs. Horace S. Nichols; Mrs. C. C, Hoffman; and many others.

Credit for the successful fall event goes to Mrs. Elsie Murfett, general chairman, who was assisted by Mrs. Moss, Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. Richard Evans, Mrs. A. Smollen, Mrs. Alice Cline and other club members.

At nine o'clock the curtain came down on the exhibits which were comparable with shows held in larger cities.

Riesses Entertain Club Board Members

The members of the executive board of the Arcadia Woman's club, with their husbands, were delightfully entertained last Thursday evening at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Riess, 22 East Longden avenue. Mrs. Stoker was cohostess with Mrs. Riess.

The evening was spent socially, Chinese checkers forming part of the diversion.

Those attending were the Messrs. and Mesdames Mark Millspaugh, John Murfett, C. C. Hoffman, B. E. Rubottom, James A. Stoker, and W. N. Powell of Minnesota.

Womans Club Board Entertain Their Husbands

Members of hte Arcadia Woman's club executive board and their husbands were entertained Thursday evening with dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Riess of Longden avenue. Mrs. James Stoker assisted Mrs. Riess.

The social evening of games was enjoyed by Messrs and Mmes. Mark Millspaugh, John Murfett, C. C. Hoffman, B. E. Rubottom, W. N. Powell and Mr. Stoker.

WOMAN'S CLUB BRIDGE PARTY

The benefit dessert-bridge staged at Arcadia Woman's Clubhouse, Monday, by Mrs. Lola Trew, member of the finance committee, as her contribution towards the year's fund raising attracted more than 75 players.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Emma L. Kaskel and Mrs. Mildred Petsch; auction prizes, Mrs. Olive Hoffman and Loverne Clark; contract prizes, Mrs. Belle Bonner, Mrs. Helen Smollen, Mrs. J. V. Hughes, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. M. Goodwin, and Mrs. K. B. Leslie.

Business firms contributing to the event included Shopping Bag Market, Arcadia Nursery, Ericsson Drug Company, Nadine Beauty Shop, Santa Anita Smart Shop, Becker's Dress Shop, Alice James Gift Shop, Childs Bakery, Glasser and Johns, and club member, Mrs. J. V. Stanley.

Mrs. Gertrude Schenck and Mrs. Clara Morris were in charge of decorations.

BENEFIT DESSERT BRIDGE PARTY ENJOYED AT WOMAN'S CLUBHOUSE

The ways and means committee of the Arcadia Woman's club, with Mrs. Lola Trew as chairman, gave a delightful benefit bridge on Monday at the Woman's club house. A goodly number attended and the tables at which dessert was served at 1 p. m. were very artistic. The table covers, in pastel shades, were centered with mounds of small bronze chrysanthemums.

Many prizes were awarded. Two cakes as door prizes were won by Mrs. Emma L. Kaskell and Mrs. Mildred Petsch. The auction prizes, first and second, were awarded to Mrs. C. C. Hoffman and Mrs. Laverne Clark. The contract prizes went to Mesdames W. C. Bonner, J. V. Hughes, Arthur A. Smollen, M. Goodwin, K. B. Leslie, and Mrs. McDonald.

All the prizes were contributed. The Glasser and Johns Mortuary donated the tallies, and merchandise was given by the Arcadia Nursery, the Shopping Bag, Van De Kamp's, Ericsson's Pharmacy, Nadine's Beauty Shoppe, Santa Anita Smart Shop, Alice James Gift Shop, Beckers, Child's Bakery, and Mrs. J. D. Stanley.

SUCCESSFUL BRIDGE BENEFIT AT WOMAN'S CLUB

A large group of fans gathered Monday for the Woman's club benefit dessert bridge party in charge of Mrs. M. M. Trew, November Ways and Means chairman. For the occasion decorations stressed the autumn motif with an array of 'mums on the stage, in the foyer and miniature mosaics of the blossoms as table centerpieces for dessert.

Prizes, donated by various Arcadia business houses, went to Mmes. Emmy L. Kaskel, Mildred Petsch, door; C. C. Hoffman and Loverne Clark, auction; W. C. Bonner, A. R. Smollen, J. B. Hughes, McDonald, M. Goodwin, and K. B. Leslie for contract high scores.

The chairman reported nearly $20 cleared to swell the building fund.

MANY WELL KNOWN SPEAKERS ADDRESS DISTRICT FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS IN MONROVIA FRIDAY

The District Federation of Women's Clubs presented a list of well known speakers at the Presidents' Council held at Monrovia Friday with Mrs. Oscar S. Elvrum presiding.

The following brief quotations from the speakers will be of interest:

Dr. Adamantios Th. Polyzoides: "United States has remained aloff from this war and has enacted a neutrality law that seems to be the best calculated medium to get us into trouble before long—a 'cash and carry' law that will be cash until European money runs out and then 'carry on the books for the remainder of the time."

Arthur F. Corey, public relations director for the California Teachers Association: "If we hope eventually to prepare our children to evaluate propaganda and motives, we might begin in our own organizations. Women's clubs should not avoid controversial issues. If we cannot differ in opinion and still be friends we have not advanced very far."

Mrs. Mark Jones, education director for the California Congress of Parents and Teachers: "We must know that not all propaganda is bad, nor all good; that we must suspend judgment until we have ascertained facts, we must not be gullible, but at the same time we must not become cynical."

"We are asking ourselves every day if we can stay out of this war. We should ask ourselves how we are going to meet that war that is going on in our very near borders the bold, unparalleled assaults of alien ideas on our government, our way of living, our economics, our schools and our churches. Our government can be not better than the sum of its citizens and every citizen today must be a soldier to fight for the things for which American democracy was conceived."

Mrs. Elvrum: "Many women feel that they are talled upon to give to the Community Chest be cause their husbands do so in business. But if we would feel that cents taken from our housekee ing allowance buys a bottle of mil 25 cents a pair of stockings f some child's feet, we would reali that even the smallest contributi helps."

Among the highlights of the day was a forum on district headquarters and its reason for existence as put forth by such well known leaders as Mrs. John Stearns Thayer, Mrs. Edward P. Haley, Mrs. Eugene Kromer and Mrs. Eugene Brockway. Their reports show that the mortgage on headquarters has been considerably reduced and that before another decade it will be debt-free.

Miss Mildred Hollister, chairman of education, presented Mr. Corey; Mrs. Frances Wilder, Mrs. Mark Jones and W. Harold Kingsley in a forum on propaganda analysis in which education was offered as armor against that modern weapon.

Mrs. E. L. Thomson, hostess president; Mrs. Donald Jennings, international relations chairman, Mrs. Rex Harbert, program chairman; Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson, County contacts chairman, and other federation officers featured on the program.

Noon luncheon was served at the Masonic Temple by members of the Eastern Star Auxiliary and at the First Methodist church. The many lovely red roses used to deck the table were furnished through courtesy Fred Cole from Recreation Park and the georgeous basket of dahlias courtesy of Chase's of Arcadia.

ARCADIA CLUBWOMEN AT PRESIDENTS' COUNCIL

Members of Arcadia Woman's club participating in the Federation Presidents' Council Thursday in Monrovia were Mesdames Mark Millspaugh, president, J. S. Frentress, Wood Glover, C. C. Hoffman, G. G. Meade, H. E. Moss, B. E. Rubottom, J. D. Stanley, C. W. Stewart, J. A. Stoker, John Thompson, E. E. Timerhoff, and Miss Eva Reynolds.

DANCE PLANNED TOMORROW EVE

On Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, the junior and senior high school groups of the "Junior and Senior Fortnighties" will congregate at the Arcadia Woman's Club for an evening of dancing, under the supervision of Miss Joan Wilson and Miss Lona Augustine.

One of the features of the evening will be a sample dancing lesson to teach the polka, quaint dance now revived by smart ballroom dancers.

Carl Ashton will act as Miss Wilson's partner to demonstrate the new ballroom steps, Tony Acosta will sing, and Tommy Tucker's orchestra, popular dance band, will play during the evening.

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the dancing. There is only a nominal fee per person and the affair is to be chaperoned by club members and their husbands.

GARDEN GROUP MEET TUESDAY

Mrs. C. F. Noack will be hostess at the regular meeting of the Garden Section of Arcadia Woman's Club when that group gathers at her home, 515 Le Roy Avenue, next Tuesday afternoon, at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Reed, of Glendora, will give a lesson on flower arrangement, and Mrs. H. Pike, former president of the club, will give a nature talk.

All club members interested in gardens and horticulture are cordially invited to attend. Mrs. John Murfett, section chairman, will preside.

DESSERT BRIDGE

The ways and means committee of the Arcadia Woman's club, with Mrs. Belle Bonner as chairman, is planning a dessert bridge for December 11, to be given in the hostess room of the Southern Counties Gas company in Monrovia. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Bonner at ATwater 7-1123.

MEMBERS DISPLAY HOBBIES AT WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

Home talent was brought out in full force at the Arcadia Woman's Club yesterday when club members exhibited their hobbies ranging from flowers to cooking, with a thousand and one pleasant bypaths between.

Perhaps Mrs. A. R. Chambers had the most unusual "hobby" there for she brought a Boy Scout from Troop No. 5 as a living example of her dearest interest.

Billy Lou Meyers was the manly young chap, who explained to the women the meaning of his nine merit badges.

Following luncheon, Mrs. Edith Roberts, club member, gave a witty discourse on hobbies, outlining advantages and telling of various types.

Hobbies can cover any known type of activity she said and pointed out that the late Don Marquis, noted for his humorous writings, had the hobby of cooking baked beans. Other famous men and women had hobbies from the conventional stamp collection of President Roosevelt to the egg cookery of Alexander Dumas. Thomas Babington MacCauley, great English writer, collected embroidered waistcoats, and Franz Liszt, green gloves and new neckties.

"Hobbies are 'anything in which you take an extravagant interest'," Mrs. Roberts defined. There are five rules to ask when venturing on your hobby, she said: First, does it appeal to you?; second, is it suitable?; third, does it fit your spare time?; fourth, is it adaptable? and fifth, does it fit your pocketbook? If the answer is "yes" to all these questions go ahead and enjoy yourself, she said.

At the conclusion of Mrs. Robert's talk, members arose and told of their own hobbies. Mrs. Helen Lumpkin named pottery making, collecting pitchers and jugs, and history as her hobbies; Mrs. Jessie Stewart, travel and collecting native handiwork; Mrs. B. O. Hagen, antiques; Mrs. Ruth Wagoner, bookbinding.

Mrs. Emilie Timerhoff, people; Mrs. Keenan, old china and needlework; Mrs. Zephrine MacFarlane, heirlooms; Mrs. Florence Boller, her baby; Miss Eva Reynolds, handerchiefs; Mrs. Helen Smollen, cooking; Mrs. Dorothy Stoll, reading, traveling, and painting; Mrs. Belle Bonner, vases; Mrs. Nellie White, gardening and basketry.

Mrs. Lumpkin, accompanied by Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, sang a group of three songs written by modern Russian composers.

Exhibits were excitingly diversified and ranged from flowers, needlework, antiques, bookbinding, basketry, to handerchiefs and quilts.

Mrs. Ina Millspaugh, president, presided. Sitting at her table were Mesdames Bonner, Stewart and White, Nettie Noack, Chambers, Scout Meyers, and a guest of Mrs. Chambers.

Thanks were extended to Mrs. Helen Smollen for her accepting the chairmanship of the luncheon committee at the last moment in order to "help out." Assisting her were Mesdames Charlotte Henneforth, Leanore Glasser, McDonnell, Alice Cline, Ella Owen, Olive Hoffman, Fanny Needham and Evelyn Brown.

Decorations were by Mesdames Ruth Riddle and Margaret McClary.

Hobby Day Observed by Woman's Club

Hobby Day at the Arcadia Woman's club last Wednesday proved a most interesting one. Mrs. Edith B. Roberts gave a delightful talk on the subject. The club members had brought exhibits of their individual hobbies which covered a wide range —needlepoint, baskets, quilts, afghans, handkerchiefs from many lands, pottery, jewelry, dolls, scrapbooks, tapestries, and many other things.

Luncheon was served at noon to about 80 members under the efficient chairmanship of Mrs. Arthur Smallen. The lovely decorations were in charge of Mrs. John Riddle and Mrs. Fred H. McClary. The music of the afternoon was furnished by Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, who sang three modern Russian songs, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. LeRoy Anderson.

HOBBIES DISPLAYED AT WOMAN'S CLUB WED.

An interesting assortment and display of hobbies yesterday greeted members at the regul r semi-monthly meeting of the Woman's club. Among the exhibits were needlepoint, baskets quilts, afghans, handkerchiefs from many lands, a small square of linen more than 150 years old with a poem minutely embroidered thereon, hand made pottery, jewelry, dolls, scrap books, tapesteries, book binding tools, vases and other divers articles.

Mrs. Edith B. Roberts gave a stimulating and informative talk on "Hobbies" following the luncheon, elaborating upon their place in one's life.

During the business, presided over by Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, members were reminded of the monthly Red Cross sewing class held in the clubhouse the second Wednesday of each month. The annual dance given at the Santa Anita Turf club is tentatively scheduled for April 12, 1940.

Mrs. Wood Glover, chairman of the proposed International Relations section asked those interested in joining to meet Thursday (today) to discuss the time and date of the monthly meeting. "We plan to call the section, "A tour of South America'," commented Mrs. Glover "the program being prepared and sponsored by Federal headquarters at Washington D. C., and is in reality a study class." About 25 signified intention of attending.

Mrs. Arthur Smollen, chairman, and her committee: Mmes. Ella Baughman Owen, Alice Cline, Evelyn Brown, Lenore Glasser, A. G. Henneforth, C. C. Hoffman, Fannie Needham and F. McDonnell were in charge of the luncheon with decorations done by Mrs. John Riddle and Mrs. Fred H. McClary.

The club's next meeting convenes December 6.

DIVERSIFIED PROGRAM AT MUSIC SECTION OF WOMAN'S CLUB

News and gossip of the neighborhood in the olden days at the time Christpher Columbus sailed the seas came through troubadors and meister singers on their jaunts around the country side with their musical instruments, says Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, before the music section of the Woman's Club at their meeting on Tuesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Eugene Harpole. In making further comment she related how marriages, deaths, births and other important happenings were recounted musically by these traveling musicians, who went from castle to casle.

The program for November was divided into three sections —symphonies, history of music and biographies of great composers.

During the business period, presided over by Mrs. Charles Lumpkin, several members who had attended the recent operas in Los Angeles, described them briefly narrating the story.

Secular schools between the 12th and 15th centuries were W. C. Bonner.

Mrs. John Renshaw's subject was music during Shakespeare's time. Mrs. LeRoy Anderson discussed and illustrated with records Bethoven's "Eroica" symphony and Mrs. A. G. Hen- "Fifth Symphony."

The biographies of Adam de la Halle, French composers and Hans Sachs, German musician, were given by Mrs. Frank Hoagland.

Mrs. Harpole assisted by Mrs. M. M. Trew, Mrs. Charles Stewart and Mrs. Gibbs, served salad, nut bread and coffee at the one o'clock dessert period, using small tables to seat the members. Flowers were used profusely to decorate the living rooms. About 30 ladies were present.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Mrs. Belle Bonner, program chairman of the Arcadia Woman's club, promises an interesting Christmas program for the next club meeting, on December 6. A day in Santa's work shop will be depicted by the dancing pupils, all children, of Dorothy De Pont, and humorous Christmas readings will be given by pupils of Thelma Laird.

MUSIC SECTION PROGRAMS ARE DELIGHT TO MEMBERS

So interested were members of the Music Section of Arcadia Woman's Club in their program given at the home of Mrs. Ruth Harpole, 1156 Arcadia Avenue, Tuesday afternoon, that it was nearly dusk before the meeting adjourned.

This group is finding their subject so fascinating that they are reluctant to "call it a day" and postpone adjourning as late as possible.

Mrs. Belle Bonner taking as her subject, "Secular Schools, 12th to 17th Century," told of the gradual secularization of music through efforts of wandering minstrels.

Contrary to popular belief, the troubadors of old were of the nobility, often being the only link with culture of a rude, half savage court. Richard I, was a troubador as were many other rulers of his day. These interesting facts were contained in the report of Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, who discussed "Troubadors and Meistersingers."

Mrs. John Renshaw disclosed in her paper, "Music of Shakespeare's Day" that Queen Elizabeth and her forebears, Henry VII and Henry VIII were accomplished musicians on the clavichord.

Music was given such impetus by this royal patronage that degrees in composing were conferred upon contemporary musicians.

An unusual point brought out in the paper of Mrs. Bess Hoagland was that Hans Sachs, composer-musician of the 16th century wrote more than 4,000 compositions.

Records played on a record-attachment from P. J. Miller's Electrical Appliance Shop illustrated the reports of Mrs. Charlotte Henneforth and Mrs. Florence Gale Anderson on Tschaikowsky's Fifth Symphony and Beethoven's Eroica, respectively.

Owing to the length of the afternoon's program, the book review of "My Musical Life," by Walter Damrosch, to be given by Mrs. Jessie Stewart was postponed until a later meeting.

Besides Mrs. Harpole and her assistant hostesses, Mesdames Gibbs, Stewart and Lola Trew, those present were Mesdames Ida Parker, Ethel Rubottom, Bertha Nichols, Kay Osterhout, Blodwen Ferrante, Esther Hough, Flora McCaleb, Janet Crane, Mabel Hoover.

Mesdames Hoagland, Emile Timerhoff, Irene Stoker, Florence Muller, Anna and Helen Lumpkin, B. O. Hagen, Bonner, Georgia Spragins, Renshaw, and Miss Eva Reynolds.

BRIDGE DAY

Next Monday Bridge Day will be observed at the Arcadia Woman's club. The lesson will begin at 12:30 and continue for one half hour, the subject being leads and discards, the language of the defenders. The game will start at 1 p. m. and merchandise orders will be awarded the winners.

HISTORY GROUP PLANS TRIP

The regular meeting of California History and Landmarks Section of Arcadia Woman's Club set for November 22, will be consolidated with the pilgrimage and will be held on Wednesday, November 29.

The group will start on "The Trek to Old Adobes," at 9:30 o'clock, in a motor cavalcade, carrying a picnic lunch, which is to be eaten at some point en route.

During the trip, Mrs. John Vanderbur will read her paper on "The Gold Seal of California," and Mrs. Helen Lumpkin will give historical highlights of each adobe visited. Fifty miles will be covered on the tour.

Anyone interested in California history is invited to accompany the group. Those of the section needing transportation may call Mrs. Emilie Mann Timerhoff, section chairman, at Atwater 7-2593, or Mrs. John Vanderbur, assistant chairman, at Atwater 7-1569.

NOTED SYMPHONIES, MEDIEVAL MUSIC DISCUSSED AT MEETING

The music section of the Arcadia Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Ruth Harpole, Arcadia avenue, Tuesday for a light luncheon, which was served at small tables and on trays to the 28 assembled music lovers, amid the cheer of hundreds of vari-colored mums.

The "musical menu" began with a discussion of Tchaikowsky's fifth symphony, given by Mrs. August G. Henneforth.

Mrs. Le Roy Anderson explained the different movements and the theme of the Eroica symphony, by Beethoven, and to illustrate her remarks played recordings of Eroica on a portable victrola with radio pick-up.

Secular music from the 12th to the 17th century was discussed by Mrs. W. C. Bonner. As an interlude and to give point to her remarks, Mesdames Helen Lumpkin and Le Roy Anderson sang a group of English ballads of the 13th and 15th centuries.

The history of music traced through the songs of the troubadours and the meistersingers, stressing the French contribution, was the theme of a talk by Eleanor Lucas Gibbs.

Mrs. Juliet Renshaw spoke on the music of the Shakespearian era, touching on the use of the clavichord. The English kings and queens of the 14th and 15th centuries, notably Elizabeth and Henry VI, were proficient on this instrument.

Biographical sketches of Adam De La Halle, French poet and musician of the 13th century, and the German poet Hans Sachs, who wrote during the 15th and 16th centuries, were given by Mrs. Bess Hoagland.

HISTORIANS TELL OF EARLY CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Emilie Mann Timerhoff attended the District Conference of California History and Landmarks Section, Monday afternoon, at Federation headquarters.

Speakers included Mrs. Maude White, writer, who discussed Indian lore, and Mrs. Isabella Lopez de Fages, descendant of an early California family, who told of the hardships suffered by the 29 Mexican women who came with the de Anza expedition.

Mrs. de Fages also displayed a quaint music box more than a hundred years old that played national tunes to which little mechanical figures danced.

MR., MRS. ROBERT CHAMBERS HONEYMOONING ON DESERT

At the San Encino Wedding Chapel in Pasadena, Tuesday evening, in the presence of their immediate families, Miss Margaret Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley K. Brown, of Pasadena, and Robert Chambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Chambers, of Arcadia, were united by Rev. W. Bowyer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a smart street ensemble of moss green crepe, with black accessories. Her corsage was of orchids and she carried an heirloom prayerbook that has been in her family for more than 150 years.

Attending the bridal couple were Mrs. Helen Bartholomew, of San Marino, as matron of honor, and Jack Boaz, of San Diego, as best man.

The mother of the bride wore wine velvet, and the mother of the bridegroom was gowned in black velvet. Both wore corsages of yellow roses.

Immediately after the ceremonies, the young couple held a reception for 200 guests at the Arcadia Woman's Clubhouse. They received standing under an archway of chrysanthemums in the foyer, which had been turned into a lovely bride's room by decorations of white roses.

Assisting as hostesses were Mesdames Pearl Rittersbacher, Walter Tatum, and Hazel Reeve.

Mr. and Mr. Chambers will reside in Arcadia after their honeymoon at Palm Springs.

Educated at Pasadena Junior College, Mrs. Chambers was a member of the exclusive One Club. She also holds the office of secretary to the Arcadia Woman's Club juniors. Mr. Chambers is connected with Sears Roebuck. He is well known in Arcadia for his splendid work among the Boy Scouts as leader of Troop No. 5. His alma mater is U. S. C., from which he graduated with high honors last spring. He was affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Among showers and parties given for the young bride was the personal shower given Sunday by members of the One Club at the home of Miss Juanita Hanson in Pasadena.

Other parties included the miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Rittersbaucher; the party of Mrs. Bartholomew; the kitchen shower hostessed by Miss Betty Reeve, and the shower given by Mrs. Arthur Bush of Arcadia.

CLUBWOMAN ATTENDS HISTORY CONFERENCE

Mrs. Emily Timerhoff, as chairman of the History and Landmarks section of the local Woman's club, attended the regular monthly conference held in Los Angeles on Monday in the club federation headquarters. The two speakers were Mrs. Mark White and Mrs. Isabella Lopez. Mrs. White, who is an authority on early California history, told of the Digger Indians, and Mrs. Lopez of the heroism of the Mexican women, who with their husbands colonized Southern California 59 years before the advent of the white man. Mrs. Lopez's great grandfather was one of the colonists, and her information was taken directly from records left by the padre who came with them.

Garden Section Meeting Held At Noack Home

Mrs. C. F. Noack, 515 LeRoy Avenue, was hostess to the Garden Section of the Arcadia Woman's Club, Tuesday afternoon, when that group met at her home for the regular session. Mrs. John Murfett, chairman, presided.

Refreshments preluded the meeting at which Mrs. H. H. Pike gave an interesting talk on birds of Southern California, illustrated by mounted birds. She also discussed pine cones, displaying a large and varied collection.

Mrs. James Reed, of Glendora, former State Garden Section chairman, demonstrated Thanksgiving and Christmas floral arrangements of fruit and flowers.

In order that members may have more time, future meetings will take up at 1 o'clock, instead of 2 o'clock, it was announced.

Mrs. Pike Talks on Birds to Club Group

The regular meeting of the Garden section of the Arcadia Woman's club was held on Tuesday, November 21, at the residence of Mrs. C. F. Noack, with 21 present.

Dainty refreshments were served and a short business session followed.

Mrs. H. H. Pike spoke on birds of Southern California. Mounted birds in celluloid tubes were passed around as she gave many interesting facts about them. She also gave a talk on pine cones and a collection of cones was used for illustration.

Mrs. James Reed of Glendora, former state garden chairman, gave a talk on flower and fruit arrangement suitable for Thanksgiving and Christmas decoration. Vases, bowls, and baskets were filled with flowers and fruits demonstrating what could be done with material from our own gardens.

HISTORICAL ADOBES VISITED BY LADIES

About 30 members of the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club, in a caravan of six cars, last week visited a number of the old adobes around Pomona, San Dimas, and Covina. The properties on which the homes stood were grants to the early Spaniards from the Spanish king.

The group lunched in Ganesha Park, and there Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, who has made a deep study of the subject, took them on a trek farther north into the state, telling of a number of adobes she visited last summer.

WEST ARCADIA PRESS

Last week a group of thirty women interested in California history, formed a caravan of six cars, visiting several old adobe houses in the Pomona, San Dimas and Covina districts. Most of the ladies were members of the California History and Landmarks section, Woman's club. During lunch at Ganesha Park, Pomona, Mrs. Charles Lumpkin told about some of these mud houses she had visited in the northern part of the state.

HISTORY SECTION

Six cars composed the cavalcade that carried members of the History and Landmarks section of Arcadia Woman's Club on their combined pilgrimage and meeting last week.

The first stop was at the historic old Palomares adobe in Pomona, which is one of the remaining four adobes located on the San Jose rancho.

Next the group gathered at the Alvarado adobe, a few blocks from the Palomares house. Here, a hundred years ago, a member of the Alvarado family in Los Angeles built his home to be near the Palomares family.

One of the rooms of this house was used as a chapel for surrounding ranchos and when a padre from San Gabriel traveled to the rancho, families gathered to attend mass and later hold a fiesta.

From there the party drove to the unoccupied Carrino adobe at San Dimas, overlooking Puddingstone Dam, completing the trip by a visit to the two-story Vijar adobe on the Diamond Bar Ranch at Spadra.

During the luncheon hour, Mrs. Helen Lumpkin told of old adobes visited during the past summer, giving an interesting account of their background. Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff, chairman, presided.

Composing the party were, besides Mr. and Mrs. Timerhoff, Mrs. C. W. Moore, Mrs. John Vanderbur, Mrs. Bert Rubottom, Mrs. J. J. MacFarlane, Mrs. Clarence Crane, Mrs. Horace Nichols, Mrs. Florence Muller, Mrs. H. E. Riess, Mrs. A. R. Chambers, Mrs. George M. Needham, Mrs. C. F. Ganther, Mrs. J. C. Cridlebaugh, Mrs. Eva Falconer, Mrs. Flora H. McCaleb, Mrs. Edwin E. Balling, Mrs. Anna Lumpkin, Mrs. E. J. Frentress, Mrs. C. E. Hoover, Mrs. Elsie Butler, Mrs. J. S. Stoker, Leroy Holmes, Mrs. Holmes, and Miss Eva Reynolds.

HISTORY TO BE TOLD DEC. 27

The next meeting of California History and Landmarks section of Arcadia Woman's Club is set for December 27, at the home of Mrs. Clarence Crane, 1436 Arcadia Avenue, Mrs. Emily Mann Timerhoff announced yesterday.

"The Gold Seal of California," will be the subject of a paper by Mrs. John Vanderbur and Miss Eva Reynolds will review the historical book, "Beyond the Blue Sierra," an account of the Father Junipero Serra's epical trip through California.

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. H. S. Nichols and Mrs. Eugene Harpole. Word drill be conducted by Mrs. J. M. MacFarlane. "Historical Dates" is subject of the roll call.

Diversified Program At Woman. Club Wednesday

Nearly 100 Arcadia matrons yesterday attended the pre-Christmas Woman's club meeting which started off with luncheon in charge of Mrs. Ardene Boller and her committee. A diversified program of entertainment filled the afternoon — book reviews, dances, musical numbers, readings, and playlets, in an attractively "attired" club room. Poinsettias and red button chrysanthemums "doing their bit" in seasonabe fashion.

Ama LeRoy Brown from Pasadena reviewed 12 books, the principal theme dealing with the present day world conditions.

A group of older girls—Rosemary Nelson, Dorothy Hoffman, Catherine Wright, Jean Sutherland, Mary Ellis, Dorothy Gallogly, Barbara Ambler, Rowena Cayer and Carol Lee apperaed in Spanish,Dutch and Waltz Bluette numbers. All are students of the dance at Miss Dorothee de Pont's studio and were presented by her.

A newcomer to Arcadia and member of the Philharmonic orchestra, Jascha Gegna, played several violin numbers, as did his pupil, Helen Swali. They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. LeRoy Anderson.

Concluding the program, Thelma Laird Shultheis of Monrovia presented a group of her pupils in a monologue, readings, and two short skits.

The president, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, announced that the International Relations section would start December 21, with Mrs. W. C. Bonner and Mrs. Wood Glover co-chairmen at the former's home. Brazil will be the country studied.

Members were reminded of and reservations taken for the bridge benefit Monday at the Monrovia Gas Co.'s office. The December Ways and Means chairman, assisted by Mrs. Bonner will be in charge of this event.

The next meeting, Dec. 20, convenes at 11:30 with a lunch and gifts will be brought for the needy.

WOMAN'S CLUB HERE HOST TO JASCHA GEGNA

Members of Arcadia Woman's Club were given a rare musical treat yesterday afternoon when Jascha Gegna, concert violinist, teacher, and member of the Los Angeles Philharmonic and Hollywood Bowl orchestras, appeared in duet with his artist-pupil, Miss Helen Swaby.

Mr. Gegna and Miss Swaby proved themselves authentic artists with an unusual rendition of the familiar "Dark Eyes," giving it new meaning. "Two Guitars," a Gypsy folk song, arranged by Mr. Gegna, was thrillingly fresh and original as they played it.

Miss Swaby's solo playing of "Csardas" was spirited, and her flowing tone and precise bowing gave vivid beauty to the selection. In poetic manner was her contrastive interpretation of Mendelssohn's "On Wings of Song." Mrs. Le Roy Anderson, accompanied the two musicians with excellent musicanship and sympathetic understanding.

Highlights of the season's best sellers were given by Alma LeRoy Brown, book reviewer of Vroman's Book Store, at the luncheon hour, at which Mrs. Ina P. Millspaugh, president, presided.

Pupils of Miss Dorothy de Pont opened the program with a dance fantasy, "The Doll Shop." Taking part were Barbara and Michael Lewis, Denny Coombs, Dorothy Gallagly, Barbara Ambler, Rowene Cayer, Carol Lewis, Kay Wright, Jeanne Sutherland, Dorothy Hoffman, Mary Alice Van Barnaveld, Rosemary Nielson, Jeanne Sutherland, Katherine Wright, Dorothy Hoffman, Marjorie Nesbitt, Kippy Perrine, June Kaskel, Diane Jones, Betty Lou Ercks, and Donna and Joy Hobbs.

Readings and selections with a Christmas theme, as presented by pupils of Thelma Laird Schultheis were enjoyable and fittingly concluded the afternoon.

Mrs. Florence Boller headed the luncheon committee, composed of Mesdames Luella Wallace, Leola Brown, Mable Raines, Beatrice Cockshott, Bessie Reid, Rowena Dillingha, and Ella Baughman Owen. Mrs. Belle Bonner and Mrs. Frances Leslie were in charge of decorations.

WOMAN'S CLUB GROUP ENTERTAINED WITH MUSIC, DANCES, PLAYLETS

Nearly 100 members attended the regular meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club last week. A lovely luncheon was served by Mrs. Arden Boller and her committee, with beautiful Christmas decorations of poinsettias and red button crysanthemums.

The diversified program included book reviews, dances, music, readings, and playlets. Ama Le Roy Brown of Pasadena reviewed several books dealing with present world conditions. Mrs. Dorothy De Pont then presented a number of her pupils in several dances, including the "Dance of the Dolls," with a little girl, which was particularly delightful. Jascha Gegna, a newcomer to Arcadia, gave several lovely violin numbers, as did his pupil, Helen Swali. They were both accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Le Roy Anderson.

In concluding the program, Thelma Laird Shultheis of Monrovia presented a group of her pupils in several readings and two short skits, which were much enjoyed. The next meeting will be held on December 20, and gifts will be brought for the needy.

PHILANTHROPY GROUP WILL MEET TO SEW

Mrs. M. A. Hartnett, chairman of the philanthropy section of the Arcadia Woman's club, announces that the next meeting will be held in the clubhouse on December 13 at 9:30 a. m.

Outsiders are invited as well as club members, and anyone having a portable sewing machine is requested to bring it. Each lady is to bring her own lunch, and coffee will be served by the committee.

NEW SECTIONS

Two new divisions have been added to Arcadia Woman's Club, the International Relations section, now studying South America, and the Philanthropy section.

The study group is headed by Mrs. Wood Glover, while the charity group is conducted by Mrs. M. A. Hartnett.

"A Tour of South America" is the topic chosen for study by the International Relations section. At the next meeting, set for December 21 at the home of Mrs. Belle Bonner, Ecuador and Rio de Janeiro will be discussed. Mrs. Bonner will arrange a showing of motion pictures of those countries and members will report on their study.

The Philanthropy division meet at the clubhouse the second Wednesday of each month for charity work and the Study group meets the third Thursday.

JUNIORS XMAS PARTY TONIGHT

Mrs. Robert Chambers (Margaret Brown) is in charge of the committee for the annual Christmas party of the Juniors of the Arcadia Woman's Club, set for tonight, at Knott's Berry Farm, at Buena Park.

The young clubwomen will meet at 6:30 p. m., at the home of Miss Barbara Geiger, president, 22 East Longden Avenue, and go to the farm in a body.

Mrs. A. R. Chambers, advisor, will be guest of honor. Each member has been requested to bring a 25c gift for exchange during the party.

At the meeting, held in Miss Geiger's home the dressing of the 16 dolls for Arcadia firemen was completed and reports were given by Miss Alice Zadnechek, American citizenship; Miss Marjorie Dickson, welfare, and Miss Eleanora Ott, philanthropy.

Plans to send a Christmas basket to Los Amigos Rancho, county facility, were completed by the group.

Miss Geiger Gives Shower For Bride

After an evening spent playing games, the honoree was presented with a stack of dainty presents.

Guests included Mrs. Dorothy Dobbings, Miss Eleanora Ott, Miss Marjorie Dickson, Miss Alice Zadnechek, Mrs. A. R. Chambers, mother-in-law of the honoree; Miss Mary Turney, and Miss Virginia Brown.

CLUBWOMEN MAKE DRESSES FOR NEEDY

The philanthropy section of the Arcadia Woman's club held a most successful meeting last week when 13 ladies spent the day at the clubhouse sewing. Fifteen dresses for Arcadia relief will be completed for Christmas. The material was donated by different members of the club.

The next regular meeting will be held Wednesday, January 10, at 9:30 a. m. and all ladies interested in such work, whether club members or not, are cordially invited.

WHITE BREAKFAST EXPECTED TO BE OUTSTANDING EVENT

One of the loveliest affairs of the entire club season is scheduled for next Wednesday at 11:30 a. m., when the White Breakfast of the Arcadia Woman's Club is held at the clubhouse.

Ministers of the city have been invited by the club to be guests of honor and a rich and varied program of traditional Yuletide music has been arranged by Mrs. Claude Bonner, program chairman.

The Boys' Choir of St. James Church in Pasadena will sing carols and hymns and a special group of numbers will be given by a harpist.

Mrs. Enid Case, representative of a Los Angeles store, will demonstrate the art of gift wrapping, and Thelma Laird Schultheis, well known dramatic reader, will give a Christmas selection.

Following the program, an exchange of gifts between members will take place around the Christmas tree. Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, will preside over the affair, while Mrs. Ella Baughman Owen heads the luncheon committee.

HISTORY MEETING

Mrs. Clarence Crane, 1136 Arcadia avenue, will be hostess to the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club next Wednesday, December 27, when they meet in regular session.

MEETING OF CLUB MUSIC SECTION SACRED MUSIC THEME OF ENJOYABLE

The music of Gluck and Haydn, 18th century German and Austrian composers, respectively, was discussed. Papers on the "Biography of Lowell Mason," read by Mrs. Florence Muller, and the "Beginnings of the Oratorios," with personal reminiscences by Mrs. B. O. Hagen, and "Storys Behind Our Hymns" by Mrs. Maxine Balling formed an important part of the afternoon's study. Coincidentally the roll call response, "My favorite Hymn," called forth many hymn titles whose background Mrs. Balling discussed.

A dissertation on carols, French, German and English, was illustrated by the lovely mezzo-soprano voice of its author, Mrs. Lola True.

Bells from all over the world, ranging from California Mission bells to elephant bells, pealed an accompaniment to "History and Romance of Bells" read by Mrs. E. Timerhoff.

The informal singing of Christmas carols by the whole group concluded the pleasant afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Susan Riess, 22 East Longden. Mesdames Betty Craig and Catherine Thomas assisted as co-hostesses. Twenty-one members were present.

CLUB SECTION MEETS

The international relations section of the Arcadia Woman's club will meet with Mrs. Belle Bonner, 910 North First avenue, at 1 p. m. December 21. Mrs. Bonner asks that reservations be made for the affair by calling ATwater 7-1123.

FROCKED CHOIR SINGS ANCIENT YULE CAROLS

Ancient Christmas carols, old Noel hymns, and the chorus from Handel's "Messiah," sung by a frocked choir of boys from St. James Church, in Pasadena, yesterday, at the White Breakfast given by Arcadia Woman's Club members, helped to kindle the Christmas spirit.

Yuletide decorations, a lovely tall Christmas tree on the stage, an arrangement of madonna and cherubs on the foyer mantelpiece and an auxiliary Christmas tree, about which were stacked heaps of presents for exchange, in the dining room, abetted it.

Mrs. Thelma Laird Schultheis, beautiful and poetic interpretation of "The Other Wise Men" was another Christmas pleasure, as was the presence of the ministers of the city as guests of honor. Mrs. Helen Lumpkin and members of the music section, assembled on the stage and led the club in group singing of carols and hymns.

A demonstration of artistic gift wrapping was given by Mrs. Enid Case, representative of a Los Angeles department store.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, presided at the luncheon. Seated at the speakers' table were Rev. G. H. Schuster, pastor of the American-Lutheran Church; Rev. N. Milo Fiske, pastor of the Arcadia Community Church; Rev. Frank De Jong, pastor of the Arcadia Mission, and Canon E. B. Smith, pastor of St. Luke's Episcopal Church. Other guests of honor included Mrs. Shuster and Mrs. Fiske.

Responsible for the charming Yule decorations were Mesdames Robert McMasters, George W. Schenck and Claude Bonner.

A large stack of attractively wrapped "white" presents attested to the interest of club members in the needy. It was announced during the meeting that the philanthropy and welfare department has nearly completed 15 dresses to be given to underprivileged girls.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh also announced the postponement of the International Relations meeting set for today.

Assisting Mrs. Ella Baughman Owen, luncheon committee head, were Mesdames Laure Hostutler, Catherine Thomas, Marjorie M. Harris, Ethel Rubottom, Elsie C. Krupp, Ellen Cridlebaugh, and Margaret Perry.

White Christmas Party at Arcadia Woman's Club

The true Christmas spirit was bountifully shown Wednesday when members of the Woman's club so liberally gave "white" gifts for distribution to Arcadia's less fortunate through the welfare chairman. Wrapped in the traditional white paper, the great pile of useful packages was stacked in the foyer, for the occasion decorated in blue with a miniature nativity set overlooking the contributions.

Led by Mrs. Charles Lumpkin and memgers of the music section, carols rang out through the building when the many voices of the audience joined in singing these seasonal songs.

John Henry Lyons presented his St. James church boys' choir in a half-hour of Christmas music and Thelma Laird Schultheis gave the beautiful reading, "The Other Wise Man."

Mrs. J. W. Owen and her committee—Mmes. R. E. Rubottom, Hardy Harris, G. H. Thomas, E. O. Krupp, Eugene L. Perry, J. C. Cridlebaugh and John Hostutler—served the 11:30 breakfast with 136 participating.

Special guests included several ministers and their wives: Rev. N. Milo Fiske and Mrs. Fiske of the Community church; Rev. Frank DeJong of the Christian Reform church; Rev. George Schuster and wife of the American Lutheran church; and Rev. Canon Smith of the Monrovia-Arcadia-Duarte Episcopal church. In being introduced by the president, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, each gave a brief talk pertaining to the Noel season.,

Mrs. Enid Case, through the courtesy of Bullock's, gave an entertaining and practical demonstration of gift wrapping, and the last meeting of 1939 concluded with Santa Claus distributing remembrances.

For the occasion Mrs. Marvaret MacMaster. Mrs. Belle Bonner and Mrs. Gertrude Schenck had transformed the club rooms beautifully with a mammoth Christmas tree, reaching to the ceiling, on the stage, holly, poinsettias and colorful berries complementing the holiday season.

WOMAN'S CLUB 'WHITE BREAKFAST' ATTENDED BY MORE THAN 100

The "White Breakfast" given last week by the Arcadia Woman's club called out 125 members, who very generously provided gifts for the less fortunate. to be distributed by the welfare committee.

Mrs. J. W. Owen, chairman, with her committee, Mesdames B. E. Rubottom, Hardy Harris, G. H. Thomas, E. O. Krupp, Eugene L. Perry, J. C. Cridlebaugh and John Hostutler, served the lovely meal.

Members of the music committee, led by Mrs. Helen Lumpkin and joined by many in the audience, sang carols, and John Henry Lyons presented his boys' choir of St. James Episcopal church of Pasadena in an half hour's program of Christmas music. "The Other Wise Man," a lovely Christmas reading, was given by Thelma Laird Schultheis.

Through the courtesy of Bullock's, Mrs. Enid Case gave an entertaining and practical demonstration of gift wrapping.

Special guests included the Rev. and Mrs. N. Milo Fiske of the Arcadia Community church, the Rev. Frank De Jong of the Christian Reformed church, the Rev. and Mrs. George Schuster of the American Lutheran church, and the Rev. Canon Smith of St. Luke's Episcopal church, Monrovia, who were introduced by the president, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh.

The clubhouse had been transformed into a bower of Christmas beauty by a committee composed of Mrs. Margaret McMaster, Mrs. Gertrude Schenck, and Mrs. Belle Bonner.

The very successful meeting, the last of 1939, concluded with Santa Claus distributing gifts to all the members present.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1939

Woman's Club Board Guests at Luncheon

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1939.

Mrs. Leslie Hostess to Garden Section

Mrs. Kenneth B. Leslie was hostess to the garden section of the Arcadia Woman's club on Tuesday at her home, 55 Floral avenue. Twenty-two members were present to enjoy a lovely dessert, which preceded the meeting.

Mrs. W. J. Lawless, of the Wistaria Vine Gardens, gave an interesting talk on her cascade crysanthemums, which was illustrated with colored pictures shown by Charles Kinear. The group was invited to hold a meeting at the gardens in the near future.

The gift exchange was unique in that each guest's Chistmas package contained something for her garden.

The consensus of opinion was that it was one of the best meetings the section has ever held.

Garden Section Of Womans Club Met Saturday

Mrs. Kenneth B. Leslie and Mrs. Belle Bonner were co-hostesses Tuesday when the Garden Section of the Woman's club met at the former's home for their December meeting.

Mrs. J. Lawless of Sierra Madre, well known through her association with the famed wisteria vine in the neighboring city gave an instructive talk about casade chrysanthemums, showing many pictures.

Mrs. John Murfett, president. presided over the short business session and dessert started the meeting. Approximately 25 attended.

BELLS SHOWN AT MEETING

Those were only a few of the bells of Mrs. Emily Mann Timerhoff exhibited by her as illustration for her talk, "Romance of Bells," given before the Music Section of the Arcadia Woman's Club, at the home of Mrs. Susan Riess.

On the program with Mrs. Timerhoff was Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, section chairman, who discussed the life of Gluck and Hayden. A paper on Lowell Mason, American hymn writer, prepared by Mrs. Florence Muller, was read by Mrs. Jessie Stewart.

Mrs. Maxine Balling told the stories back of famous hymns, and Mrs. Lola Trew outlined the history of German, English and French Christmas carols, singing carols to illustrate.

"The Beginnings of Oratorio" was given by Mrs. B. O. Hagen, who also reminisced on her girlhood singing experiences.

Assisting the hostess were Mesdames Catherine Thomas, Ethel Frentress, and Betty Craig.

The next meeting is set for January 9, at the home of Mrs. Clara Morris. "Grand Opera, French and Italian" will be taken up.

Mrs. Crane Hostess to History Section

The history and landmarks section of the Arcadia Women's club was entertained by Mrs. Clarence Crane at her home, 1136 Arcadia avenue, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. E. Timerhoff presided.

A feature of the very interesting afternoon was a review of "Beyond the Blue Sierra" given by Miss Eva Reynolds. Honore Morrow's historical novel told of that period of California history when Anza led the first colony of Mexicans and Spaniards by the overland route to San Francisco.

Mrs. John E. Vanderbur told the club about the Great Seal of California.

Mrs. Crane was assisted by Mesdames Ruth Harpole and Horace Nichols, who presided over the tea table.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1940.

Arcadia Woman's Club Hears Early History Program

Honore Morrow's historical ras" depicting early California days when Anza led the first novel, "Beyond the Blue Sier- colony of Mexicans and Spain- iards by the overland route of San Francisco, was reviewed at the December meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club, History and Landmarks section by Miss Eva Reynolds.

The meeting convened at Mrs. Clarence Crane's Arcadia avenue home and was presided over by the chairman, Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff. Another member, Mrs. John Vanderbur delighted the group with her interesting story about Caliornia's great seal.

Ms. Eugene Harpole and Mrs. Horace Nichols assisted Mrs. Crane at the tea table.

Arcadia Woman's Club to Hear Music Program

Mrs. Helen Lumpkin and her committee will serve the 12:15 luncheon at which time current events will be discussed.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh will preside. All members are cordially invited and luncheon reservations may be made to the chairman.

Mrs. Carl Randolph, current events chairman, will present a resume of world events.

Mrs. Claude Bonner will have charge of the program.

WORLD EVENTS OUTLINED AT WOMAN'S CLUB

More than two-thirds of the world's population is engaged in war.

That startling fact was driven home yesterday to members of the Arcadia Woman's club when Mrs. Carl Randolph gave her annual resume of world events.

Mrs. Randolph also pointed out that war operations covered more than three-fourths of the total area of the world and that the populations remaining at peace were either actively preparing for war or maintaining a policy of watchful waiting.

In her talk she outlined American events and traced the effect of the tariff on American labor with penetrating insight.

During the afternoon Paul Roe Goodman, pianist, and Allen Hubbard, baritone, presented a joint program that was one of the most enjoyable of the entire season.

Mr. Hubbard's rich voice did full justice to Schubert's Serenade and the Toreador song from Carmen, his opening numbers. Brilliant technique was displayed by Pianist Goodman in his interpretation of Rondo Capriccioso by Mendelssohn and Impromptu Fantasy by Chopin.

Claude Debussey's "Beau Soir," Richard Strauss's "Die Nacht" and "That Salome F r o g" the singer's own composition, formed interesting contrasts for his second group.

Mr. Goodman presented "Gitanerias" by Leucone, Valse Etude by Saint Saens and a Beethoven selection as his closing numbers. Concluding songs of Mr. Hubbard's were "Desert Song," Sigmund Romberg; the perennial "O Sole Mio" and Victor Herbert's ever-popular "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life."

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, presided at the luncheon, which was prepared by a committee headed by Mrs. Helen Lumpkin. Assisting her were Mesdames Elizabeth Hagen, Esther Hough, Maxine Balling, Betty Craig, Anna Lumpkin, Ethel Frentress, Marcia Crellin, Thelma Leeper, Susan Riess and Imogene Libby.

Mrs. Ruth Wagoner assisted Mrs. Margaret McMaster with the decorations.

HISTORY GROUP TO STAGE PAGEANT FOR DISTRICT

California History and Landmarks section of Arcadia Woman's Club will hold an extra session on Friday, January 12, at the home of Mrs. H. E. Riess, 22 East Longden, to prepare preliminary plans for the pageant to be staged at the Woman's Club on February 7.

This same presentation will be put on later for the District history group, it was announced.

At the last meeting held in the home of Mrs. Clarence Crane, Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff, section chairman, presided. Mrs. J. E. Vanderbur read a paper on the "Gold Seal of California," telling of the many changes wrought from time to time in the seal's design.

"Beyond the Blue Sierra," by Honore Morrow was reviewed by Miss Eva M. Reynolds. The book dealt with the period of colonization of the San Francisco Bay in 1776.

Tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Crane and her assistants, Mrs. H. S. Nichols and Mrs. Eugene S. Harpole.

Present were Mesdames Mark Millspaugh, Eva Falconer, Elsie Butler, John Renshaw, B. E. Rubottom, Crane, J. C. Criddlebaugh, Eugene Perry, George Barngrover, G. H. Thomas, Florence Muller, J. A. Stoke, Charles V. Crellin, E. E. Balling, and those named above.

ANNOUNCEMENT RECALLS TURF CLUB DANCE HISTORY

With the announcement of April 12 as the date of the fourth annual Turf Club dance, sponsored by Arcadia Woman's club, by Mrs. James Stephen Craig, general chairman, the brilliant successes of past years are called to mind.

Since its inception in May, 1937, the dance has been one of the smartest social events of the club season. The dances are attended not only by Arcadians, but by clubwomen and their friends from Los Angeles, Pasadena, and the San Gabriel Valley and its environs.

Originated by Mrs. Charles Willey, who also served as general chairman the first two years, the dance has gradually become a tradition in social annals of this area.

The record crowd of nearly 1,000 people attending for the first year was almost equaled by the more than 800 who attended each of the following years.

It is also traditional that chairmen provide not only the best dance band possible, but a program of stellar entertainment, bridge and cards, and other divertisements during the evening.

Last year, Mrs. Charles E. Hoover, general chairman, and an assisting committee added to the lustre of the dances' history by the splendid entertainment presented.

And this year Mrs. Craig is expected to equal, if not actually top, the records of her predecessors. The many unusual features she is planning will be announced at a later date.

Woman Peace Officer Will Speak Here

"Personality" that evanescent quality that turns paperhangers into dictators, waitresses into motion picture stars, and lands one man at the top while it sends another to the bottom, will be discussed by Marye Shannon Harrington at the next meeting of Arcadia Woman's Club, set for Wednesday afternoon, January 17, at 12:15 o'clock.

Mrs. Harrington and Jascha Gegna, concert violinist, who now resides in Arcadia, will compose the interesting duo on the afternoon program.

Mrs. Minnie Barton, noted policewoman and founder of the Minnie Barton Home for Girls, will speak during the luncheon on "Girls' Week." Mrs. Barton will be presented by Mrs. Emmy Kaskel, Arcadia policewoman. Mrs. Mabel M. Leahy, San Gabriel policewoman, will be a guest.

A Friday Morning club lecturer, Mrs. Harrington is noted as an authority on charm and personality. Said to possess an unusually attractive personality of her own, she is expected to tell the clubwomen what personality is and how to acquire it.

Mrs. Clara Smith is chairman of the luncheon committee. Named to assist her are Mesdames Lyda Fiske, Adele Nesbitt, Alice Miller, Rose Yarrow, Dorothy Stoll, Margaret Johns, Jessie Stewart and Pauline Crader. Mrs. Ina P. Millspaugh, president, will preside.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS NEXT WEDNESDAY

At the regular meeting of the Woman's club Wednesday, Mary Shannon Harrington will talk on "Personality," and Jassha Gegna, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, will entertain with his violin.

The usual luncheon will be served at 12:15, with Mrs. Clara Smith chairman.

GARDEN SECTION WOMAN'S CLUB MEET TUESDAY

A question box and open forum will be featured Tuesday when the Garden section of the Woman's Club meets at Mrs. Pauline Cradler's home, 1512 S. First avenue. Promptly at one o'clock the meeting will open with desert. Mrs. John Murfett will preside over the business session. Members and their friends are extended a cordial invitation to be present.

On Friday at Mrs. Susan Riess' home, 22 East Longden avenue, members of the Woman's club, California History and Landmarks section, will meet for an extra session to prepare preliminary plans for the pageant to be staged at the clubhouse February seventh.

EXECUTIVE BOARD TO MEET TODAY

The Executive Board of the Arcadia Woman's Club planned to meet today at the home of Mrs. Irene Stoker, 1132 South Fourth Avenue, for luncheon and a business meeting.

Mrs. Ina P. Millspaugh, president, will preside. Other members expected to attend are Mesdames Susan Riess, Ethel Frentress, Ethel Rubottom, Elsie Murfett, Belle Bonner, Olive Hoffman, Betty Craig, and Miss Eva Reynolds.

Music Sec. Woman's Club Met Last Tuesday

"In days of old, when men were bold . . " so we're told it took 26 strong men to operate the bellows of an organ and two to beat the keys," according to Mrs. Milo R. Sabin who talked on early instrumental music at the February meeting of the Woman's Club Music Section held Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Bert J. Morris' home.

An enthusiastic and spontaneous group of ladies enjoyed and took part in the day's program which opened at one o'clock with dessert being served by the hostess and her co-hostesses. Mrs. Florence Muller, Mrs. G. Spraggins and Miss Barbara Geiger.

Mrs. Charles Lumpkin, section chairman, presided, and responses to roll call were "operas I have enjoyed." During the study period "La Traviata" by Verdi and "Mignon" by Thomas were musically illustrated by radio pick-up supplied through the courtesy of the Miller Electrical Appliance Co. Members gave short reports on concerts and operas recently attended.

Mrs. Charles Stewart reviewed Walter Damrosch's auto-biography. "My Musical Life" and Mrs. W. C. Bonner read a paper prepared by Mrs. C. F. Ganther. who was unable to attend, on mediaeval and renaissance instruments.

Members and guests attending: Mmes. Robert Ferrante, B. J. Hagen, Eugene Harpole. C. E. Hoover, LeRoy Anderson. Bonner, J. S. Craig. A. R. Chambers, S. G. Lumpkin, Chas. Lumpkin, Frank Hoagland, Fannie Needham, H. S. Nichols, Spraggins, H. E. Riess, John Renshaw, Muller, B. E. Rubottom, Sabin, Jas. Stoker, Stewart, G. H. Thomas, M. M. Trew, E. E. Tiferhoff, Geiger, and Miss Eva Reynolds. Guests were Mrs. Sam Houston of Pasadena; Mrs. Powell Crothamel. Alrambra: Mrs. Catherine Mundy, Mrs. Imhoff and Mrs. McGee, president and program chairman, respectively of the Rosemead Woman's Club.

The next meeting is slated for February 13, at the home of Mrs. Bonner.

QUAINT FACTS CONCERNING MEDIEVAL PIPE ORGANS TOLD

In medieval times a pipe organ required 26 men to pump the bellows and single keys were from four to five inches in width. Organists were not called organists then but "organ beaters" and that is what the hapless performer literally had to do.

Those interesting facts were contained in the paper "Medieval and Renaissance Instruments" prepared by Mrs. C. F. Ganther and read by Mrs. Belle Bonner before members of the Music Section of Arcadia Women's club when they assembled Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. J. Morris for the January meeting.

Mrs. Milo Sabin gave an informative talk on "Early Instrumental Music" and many unusual disclosures were made during the roll call period on "Operas I Have Enjoyed."

A review of Walter Damrosch's autobiography, "My Musical Life" was given by Mrs. Jessie Stewart, while Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, section chairman, conducted the study period which was devoted to the study of opera. Mrs. Lumpkin used records as illustrative material and sang an aria, "Know Thou the Land" from Mignon.

THANK MERCHANT

Thanks were extended by the group to Paul J. Miller for the loan of an electrical record player.

It was announced that the next meeting will be devoted to study of German opera with Miss Eva Reynolds, for many years a devoted opera fan at the famous Metropolitan Opera House, telling stories of noted singers.

Mrs. Belle Bonner will open her home on North First Avenue, as a meeting place for the group.

MEMBERS NAMED

MUSIC SECTION MEMBERS STUDY ITALIAN AND FRENCH OPERA

Italian and French opera provided the theme for an afternoon's study for the Music section of the Arcadia Woman's club Tuesday. The 28 members and their guests were entertained at the home of Mrs. Clara Morris, 233 Norman avenue. Mrs. Florence Muller, Mrs. G. S. Spragins, and Miss Barbara Geiger were co-hostesses.

The roll call response, "Operas I Have Enjoyed," brought forth many enjoyable experiences among the works of the masters.

Informative papers, entitled "Medieval and Renaissance Instruments" and "Early Instrumental Music" were read by Mesdames Caroline Ganther and Lucile Sabin, respectively. "My Musical Life," by Walter Damrosch, was reviewed by Mrs. Jessie Stewart.

Mrs. Charles Lumpkin conducted the opera study hour, discussing with the group Verdi's "La Traviata" and "Mignon," by Tomas. She sang bits of several arias.

February 13 will be the date of the section's next meeting, at the home of Mrs. Belle Bonner, 919 North First avenue.

MUSICAL PROGRAM PRESENTED FOR WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

About 90 members of the Arcadia Woman's club attended the meeting held last week in the clubhouse and enjoyed a luncheon served by Mrs. Charles Lumpkin and her committee. Mrs. Robert McMaster and Mrs. Victor Wagoner were responsible for the attractive decorations.

The program was presented by Allen Hubbard, baritone, accompanied by Paul Roe Goodman. Mr. Goodman also played several solo numbers. Their much enjoyed program ended with "Sweet Mystery of Life," a universal favorite.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, presiding, announced the Presidents' Council to be held January 17 in Santa Monica. Any one desiring transportation may call Mrs. Irene Stoker at AT 7-1546.

April 12th was the date decided upon for the annual Turf Club ball, with Mrs. J. Stephen Craig as general chairman. In place of the usual current events period, Mrs. Carl Randolph gave an interesting resume of national and international events during 1939.

MRS. MINNIE BARTON GUEST SPEAKER AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Arcadia Woman's Club entertained a distinguished group of women yesterday, when Mrs. Minnie Barton, chief probation officer; Mrs. Claire Charles, former newspaperwoman and writer; and Mrs. Marye Shannon Harrington, lecturer, appeared on the same program.

Mrs. Barton, founder of the Minnie Barton Home and the Bide-a-Wee home for women and girls, spoke briefly of her work. She pointed out that while many things are done for problem boys, wayward women and girls are nearly forgotten. For that reason she appealed to the club for support for Girls' Week to be held in May, in order to awaken the public to the need.

Mrs. Mabel Leahy, San Gabriel policewoman, who accompanied Mrs. Barton, spoke on the Women's Peace Officers Association, of which she is secretary. Mrs. Emmy Kaskel, local policewoman and club member, introduced the visitors.

In a beautiful tribute to Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Charles, who aided Mrs. Barton in the establishment of the first women's court in the United States, told members of her early struggles in behalf of unfortunate women and girls. For nine years Mrs. Barton worked without pay of any kind before short-sighted police and legal officials recognized the need for such assistance.

Although scheduled to speak only on "Personality," Mrs. Harrington digressed long enough to give a spirited foreword on women.

"Women of today have the greatest opportunity in history to mould the world in which they live. Women's clubs alone are the most constructive method of expression ever offered womankind."

In speaking on personality, she compared it to a bridge over which "we go to meet life and over which life comes to us."

SECRET TOLD

"The secret of developing your personality is simply the attitude you have toward life. And the attitude you have is the determining factor in the shaping of your life.

Next in importance to your attitude is your appearance. But it must be the outward expression of the inward you. Never, never imitate. Originate for yourself. "In this day of reality, let us be real and be ourselves."

STUDY VOICE

Voices are important. She believes that if necessary, women should study voices and voice control in night school. American women have the shrillest and most nerve-racking voices in the world. So, says she, watch your voice; modulate it; lower it; and above all, study it, in an effort to make it pleasing.

Jascha Gegna, concert violinist, played "Folies D' Espagne, by Corelli, as his opening number. "Don't Scold Me Dear," his own composition, was played in duet with Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, who also accompanied him at the piano. "Red Sereafan," an original composition dedicated to Madame Jeannette Ysaye, wife of the great violinist, closed Mr. Gegna's concert.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh president, presided at the luncheon and the business meeting that followed.

Large Group Attends Woman's Club Garden Section Meeting

Thirty ladies attended the January meeting of the Garden Section, Woman's Club, held at Mrs. Pauline Cralers home on S. First avenue and heard W. F. Sheetz talk on out door living rooms and their historical back ground. The speaker showed drawings and charts during his descriptive explanations.

Mrs. J. M. Reed presented many attractive flower and desert flora arrangements. The open forum and question box created great interest among the group.

To raise funds for the section Mrs. J. Stephen Craig and her committee will have a food sale at the February 7 meeting of the club at the clubhouse.

The afternoon opened with dessert at one o'clock, followed by Mrs. Elsie Murfett conducting the business meeting.

Personality Talk At Womans Club Wednesday

Mary Shannon Harrington reached into her grab bag and brought out many fundamental facts yesterday in telling the ladies at the Womans Club how to have a charming personality. She stressed the importance of appearance, "which acts as a magnet if attractive, and thoughtfulness of those we come in contact with." Judging from the applause at the conclusion of her talk, members thoroughly enjoyed her message.

During luncheon Mrs. Minnie Barton, formerly probation officer under Judge Bullock and now Chief of the Peace Officers Ass'n. emphasized the fact that "girls need more attention and care than they are getting". The association is working on a "Girls' Week" and she requested the club to assist in promoting the plan. A member, Mrs. B. K. Charles, the original Prudence Penny, paid a high tribute to Mrs. Barton who in the early days of this work gave all her time gratis.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh presided over the short business session, made several announcements and called for the treasurer's report. The minutes of the past three months were read.

Music for the afternoon was furnished by Jascha Gegna who played several violin solos and a duet with Mrs. LeRoy Anderson.

Luncheon was served to 80 by Mrs. J. W. Owen and her committee: Mmes. C. J. Smith, J. C. Cridlebaugh, N. Milo Fiske Charles Stewart, Pauline Crader C. P. Cassady, G. H. Thomas, and F. W. Miller.

On the decorating committee were Mrs. Margaret McMaster and Mrs. Ruth Wagoner who had attractively decked the foyer and club room with early spring blossoms. Mrs. Harvey Moss, Mrs. Wagoner and Mrs. Bertha Nichols greeted members at the door upon their arrival.

There will be three weeks between this and the next meeting, which is Feb. 7.

● You hear a great deal about "career women," but who ever hears of career husbands?...While credit must go to a woman who achieves—incidently, boys, the ladies who get to the top have to be three times as good as you, and probably are paid less money—how about the man who stands quietly back of her?

...Listening in on Minnie Barton, chief probation officer, and Claire Charles the other day made me think that John Barton must be a pretty swell guy, too...Now sir, how would you like to be all aglow with the idea of stepping out and find out that your great-hearted wife had given your best shoes to a tramp!...John Barton survived that shock... and still loved his wife...Then another time the Bartons were preparing to go East and John gave his wife money to buy a new outfit, but alas, Minnie, bless her heart, stopped en route at the jail and found a poor, forsaken old lady with no money who was emerging into heavens knows what unless helped...and the money promptly went to the old lady's assistance...

...But John, the patient darling, mustn't be allowed to know and the ensuing scramble that took place to make a new dress in time for the trip was one of those things that women like to remember...

● LADIES, the pet hate of your menfolk is your crooked stocking seams...The concurring rustle that swept over the audience at a recent club meeting when that statement was made left no doubt in my mind that it was true...Evidently, every woman in the audience had been "told off" by friend husband on that score at some time or another...But we all love to hear what the gentleman like and dislike even if we do nothing about it...and the things that wise and witty lady speaker hinted at about inside information on the poor hapless male was certainly something.

THREE INTERESTING SPEAKERS HEARD BY LOCAL WOMAN'S CLUB

Nearly 100 members attended the regular meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club last week, with Mrs. J. O. Owen in charge of the lovely luncheon. Her committee consisted of Mesdames C. J. Smith, J. C. Cridlebaugh, N. Milo Fiske, Charles Stewart, Pauline Crader, C. P. Cassady, G. H. Thomas and F. W. Miller. The decorating committee, Mrs. Robert N. McMaaster and Mrs. Victor J. Wagoner, used spring blossoms in making the foyer and the club room very attractive.

During the luncheon hour Mrs. Minnie Barton, formerly probation officer under Judge Georgia Bullock and now Chief of the Peace Officers association, talked of her work among girls. She stated that the association is working on a plan to observe "Girls Week" and asked the club's cooperation to promote it.

Mrs. B. R. Charles, the original Prudence Penny, spoke very briefly, paying a high tribute to Mrs. Barton and her work. An interesting and instructive talk on "Personality" was given by Marye Shannon Harrington, and the music of the afternoon was contributed by Jascha Gegna, violinist, accompanied by Mrs. Le Roy Anderson.

Mrs. Lumpkin Hostess to History Section

A record crowd of 24 members of the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club gathered at the home of Mrs. Charles Lumpkin, 480 Naomi, Wednesday.

"The Black Gold of California" was the title of a fine report given by Bertha Nichols. Mrs. E. Timerhoff told bits of the life of Manuel Michel Torena, the first man in California to be enough interested in education to found schools.

The group had a song practice and a rehearsal of the pageant they plan to present to the club on February 7. Mesdames Ethel Frentress and Betty Craig served as co-hostesses with Mrs. Lumpkin.

WOMAN'S CLUB OPPOSES BRIDLE PATH ALONG DOUBLE DRIVE

Members of the Arcadia Woman's Club today had gone on record as opposing the proposal to establish a bridal path in the center parking along Santa Anita Drive.

The resolution of the club, in full, follows:

"WHEREAS, It has come to our attention that there is a definite movement afoot to develop a bridal path in the Parkway, between the two driveways of our Santa Anita Ave., or Double Drive, in Arcadia, therefore, be it

"RESOLVED, That the Woman's Club of Arcadia, does in no wise favor such a movement, and

"RESOLVED, That it is the sense of the Arcadia Woman's Club, that the original plan for beautifying and preserving this distinctive asset of our city, for the enjoyment of all our citizens, be in no wise altered or changed, and

"RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be sent to the Arcadia City Council, the Arcadia Chamber of Commerce, the Arcadia Tribune and the Arcadia Bulletin."

INT'L RELATIONS SEC. TODAY AT MRS. BONNER'S

The second meeting of the International Relations section, Womans' club meets today at Mrs. W. C. Bonner's home, 919 N. First avenue. The section chairman, Mrs. Wood Glover, will preside. During the afternoon pictures and talks on South America are to be given. Any one interested may attend.

WOMEN OPPOSE BRIDLE PATH

Whereas, it has come to our attention that there is a definite movement afoot to develop a Bridle Path in the Parkway, between the two driveways of our Santa Anita Ave., or Double Drive, in Arcadia, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Woman's Club of Arcadia, does in no wise favor such a movement, and

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Arcadia Woman's Club, that the original plan for beautifying and preserving this distinctive asset of our City, for the enjoyment of all our citizens, be in no wise altered or changed, and

Resolved, that copies of this resolution be sent to the Arcadia City Council, the Arcadia Chamber of Commerce, the Arcadia Bulletin, and the Acadia Tribune.

WOMEN PROTEST S. A. BRIDLE PATH

If the members of the Arcadia Woman's club have their way, there will be no bridle path along Santa Anita ave. At a recent meeting a resolution was drawn up, submitted to the city council, Chamber of Commerce and newspapers protesting the establishment of a horse path in the center parking along this famous "Double Drive."

'Men's Night' Plans Announced by Club

"Men's Night" at the Arcadia Woman's club will be held Monday, February 22. This affair will be the social benefit event for the month of February and will feature an hour of entertainment followed by an informal good time with stunts and games.

Reservations should be given to Mrs. Mabel Hoover or Mrs. Florence Anderson, who will represent West Arcadia on the general committee in charge of affairs. Mesdames Jessie Stewart, chairman, Ruth Harpole, Juanita Bunting, Imogene Libby, Grace Stanley, and Helen Hall complete the committee roster.

Clubwomen Plan Food Sale On February 7

Busy clubwomen may purchase a complete dinner at the benefit cooked food sale planned by members of the Garden Section of Arcadia Woman's Club, after the regular meeting on February 7.

Mrs. Betty Craig, chairman, will be assisted by a committee of members.

Salads, meats, vegetables, rolls, cookies, cakes, pies, tarts, and a dozen other dainties will be on sale. Large and small portions will be available to fit all sizes in families.

Historic Pageant Planned for Club

The program for the next regular meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club, on February 7, will be given entirely by the California History and Landmarks section of the club, under the direction of Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff. They will present a colorful pageant which will be repeated on Lincoln's birthday at the California club federation headquarters in Los Angeles.

On February 21 the club program will be supplied by the Neighborhood Music school of Los Angeles, which was the setting for the film "They Shall Have Music." The Arcadia club has a membership in this school which entitles it to a performance. The membership fees are used for buying instruments for the Neighborhood children.

JOHN STEVEN MCGROARTY AT WOMAN'S CLUB FEBRUARY 7

John Steven McGroarty, poet laureate of California and former congressman, will read his own composition, "California Down the Middle of the World" as a special feature at the Arcadia Woman's Club on Wednesday, February 7, when the History and Landmarks section takes over the program.

Mr. McGroarty's reading will open the afternoon section of the program, which will be followed by the presentation of a historical pageant, "California, Progressive Up the Years."

During the luncheon meeting, Dr. Owen C. Coy, lecturer and historian on California history, and editor of California History Nuggett, will talk on "California Under Six Flags." As a leader, Dr. Coy stresses the paying of tribute to the past, while remembering that the state is still "making history."

Mrs. Helen Lumpkin will appear as soloist, with Mrs. Florence Anderson accompanying her.

Antiques, Mexican articles and other atmospheric pieces will be furnished by club members for decorations on that day. Mrs. Emily Mann Timerhoff, section chairman, is in charge of the program.

Heading the luncheon committee is Mrs. Gertrude Schenck with Mesdames Marguerita Whiteman, Sally Schanbacher, Edith Roberts, Lulu Randolph, Mae Brown, Marianna Wisniewski and Bertha Nichols named to assist her.

'BLACK GOLD' SAGA TOLD CLUBWOMEN

The largest number of members ever attending were present at the January meeting of the California History and Landmarks section, Woman's club, which met at Mrs. Charles Lumpkin's home on Naomi ave.

"The Black Gold of California," was the title of Mrs. Bertha Nichols' report on the saga of oil. Sketching the life of Manuel Micheltorena, Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff, told interesting events pertaining to his activities. "He was the first man in California to be enough interested in education to start a school," related the speaker.

After the business, presided over by Mrs. Timerhoff, and the program, there was a rehearsal of the pageant slated for presentation at the Woman's club Feb. 7.

Assisting the hostess in serving refreshments were Mrs. Ethel Frentress and Mrs. J. Stephen Craig.

TROUBADOHR BAND TO ENTERTAIN WOMAN'S CLUB AND HUSBANDS

The Troubadohr band of Los Angeles will be featured in the first half of the evening's entertainment which will be enjoyed by members of the Arcadia Woman's club and their husbands on Thursday evening February 22, at 8 o'clock at the clubhouse on First avenue.

Hugh McNutt, formerly of St. Joseph, Mo., is the band leader. He was at one time a member of Arthur Pryor's band and has directed his own symphony orchestra as well as the Moila Shrine band, of St. Joseph. He is a member of the Scottish Rite orchestra and the Al Malaikah Shrine band, of Los Angeles. Solo numbers and featured artists will add variety to the 45-minute concert.

The second half of the evening's program will be given over to games and fun, under the direction of Dorris Edghill of Los Angeles, who promises a good time for all.

Mesdames Charles Stewart, chairman, Charles Hoover, Ardene Boller, LeRoy Anderson, Eugene Harpole, C. G. Bunting, Philip Libby, and Jackson Stanley are included in the committee in charge of the event.

THE ARCADIA TRIBUNE

JUNIORS PLAN DANCE FEB. 29

Plans for a leap year dinner dance to be held in Los Angeles at a smart cafe, on February 29, were discussed at the Arcadia Junior Woman's Club meeting last week.

Miss Barbara Geiger, president, and her committee will decide upon a place at the next regular meeting, on February 6.

Members present at the meeting were Miss Edith Ekman, Miss Louise Evans, Mrs. Margaret Chambers, Miss Alice Zednechik, Virginia Hostutler, Virginia Brown, Mrs. Dorothy Dobbings, Miss Marjorie Dickson, and Miss Eleanor Ott.

'TOUR' STARTED BY CLUB MEMBERS

Members of the International Relations section, Woman's club, yesterday started on their "good neighbor tour of South America."

Meeting at Mrs. W. C. Bonner's home, ten club members enjoyed the first part of their imaginary trip to the land of romance and beauty, making their first "stop" at the port of Rio de Janeiro while Mrs. Boyd C. Brown told the "tourists" about the highlights of this beautiful town and harbor. Mrs. A. R. Chambers then transported the travelers to Uruguay with an absorbing paper on that country.

Setting the stage for the trip, South American dance and song numbers were played on the radiophone, creating a fitting atmosphere.

Mrs. Wood Glover, chairman of the section, presided over the business at which time tentative plans were made for a program presentation at the Woman's club.

A South American dessert preceded the "voyage" served by Mrs. Bonner and the assisting hostess, Mrs. Elsie C. Krupp.

Others present were: Mmes. Mark Millspaugh, Williams J. Stephen Craig, C. C. Hoffman, and Susan Riess.

TROOP NO. 5 ORGANIZES MOUNTED "MUSTANG" PATROL

Interesting and unusual things are afoot in Boy Scout Troop No. 5, sponsored by Arcadia Woman's Club, with Robert D. Chambers as scoutmaster.

Chief among these was the recent formation of a mounted troop called the Mustang Patrol, which has five members, each of whom will be taught the care and control of his mount.

The organization of the new patrol came about because of increased membership in the troop, which already had three patrols, the Flaming Arrow, Bear and Eagle, and a demand for this type of work.

MOTHERS' AUXILIARY

Another unusual thing was the organization meeting for a Mothers' Auxiliary, the only one in Arcadia, which was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. E. Cox of Liveoak Ave.

The third change in the troop is the naming of Robert Kolling as assistant scoutmaster to replace Harvey Moss, Jr., who moved to Pasadena. Howard Boren is junior assistant and William Cox is senior patrol leader.

MEHBERS LISTED

NEW PATROL ADDED TO BOY SCOUT TROOP

Boy Scout Troop No. 5, sponsored by the Arcadia Woman's club, with Robert D. Chambers, scoutmaster, now has four patrols. The latest addition is the Mustang which has five members, each of whom will be taught the care and control of a horse.

The organization of the new patrol was due to increasing troop membership. The three other patrols are Bear, Eagle, and Flaming Arrow.

Boys in the new patrol are John Larson, Ed Roberts, Steve Nichols, Alfred Gale and Bill Myers. Other members are Bob Miller, Bob Richardson, Norman Miller, Harlan Smith, Elmer Staff and Bob Brown, making up the Flaming Arrow group with the Bear patrol members: Bill Libby, Paul Sands, Bob Page, Bill Page, Dave Maltbie, Clyde Bauer, and Dennis Coombs. Those in the Eagle patrol are Jim Roig, Bill Steinle, Tom Steinle, Howard Wheeler, John Sainsevain and Ward Robertson.

International Relations Section Meets

Mrs. W. C. Bonner was hostess at the meeting last week of the International Relations Section of Arcadia Woman's club.

A "tour of South America" was the program. Talks were given by Mrs. Boyd C. Brown and Mrs. A. R. Chambers. Atmospheric music was played on the radiophone as a prelude to the "trip".

Mrs. Wood Glover, chairman, presided at the business meeting at which tentative plans were made for a program to be presented before the club.

Mrs. Elsie C. Krupp was co-hostess and assisted at the dessert serving of a typical refreshment.

Members present, besides those named were Mesdames Mark Millspaugh, J. Stephen Craig, C. C. Hoffman, H. E. Riess and S. L. Williams.

NOTED HISTORIAN TO SPEAK AT "HISTORY" LUNCHEON

Dr. Owen C. Coy, historian, who is slated to speak at the Arcadia Woman's club next Wednesday, February 7, on the program presented by the club's history and landmarks section, is the author of twelve books dealing with California history.

Authoritative and interesting, Dr. Coy will discuss "California Under Six Flags." He is the former professor of California and western history at U. S. C., a director and curator of history of the Los Angeles Museum. Since 1913 he has been actively engaged in recording the history of our state.

Also on the program will be a reading by John Steven McGroarty, poet and former congressman, and the presentation of an historical pageant by club members.

Mrs. Emily Mann Timerhoff, chairman, will preside with Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president.

The saga of oil was related by Mrs. Bertha Nichols in her paper, "Black Gold of California" at the regular meeting of the history section held in the home of Mrs. Helen Lumpkin. Mrs. Betty Craig and Ethel Frentress were co-hostesses.

Forty per cent of the oil reserves of the nation are in California, Mrs. Nichols pointed out in her paper. California furnishes an eighth of the output of the world and a fifth of the nation's total. She traced the story of all oil from 1864 until modern times.

Mrs. Fanny Needham, a new member, told of pioneering days in Ohio and Illinois and Mrs. Timerhoff disclosed in her paper on Governor Micheltorena, that it was he who inaugurated the first school system of California, which has developed through the years into one of the finest in the United States.

A pageant rehearsal was held before the social hour, at which refreshments were served.

At the meeting were Mesdames John Renshaw, Bert Rubottom, James Stoker, Florence Muller, Eugene Perry, Clarence Crane, Needham, J. C. Cridlebaugh, C. F. Ganther, E. Butler, G. H. Thomas, Anna Lumpkin, E. J. Frentress, Eugene Harpole, Maxine Balling, Mabel Hoover, Florence Anderson, Miss Eva Reynolds, Mrs. Eva Falconer and a guest.

JOHN McGROARTY TO ADDRESS CLUB

Poet laureate of California, John Steven McGroarty, former congressman, as a prologue to the California history and landmarks section's historical pageant, "California, Progressive Up the Years," will read his own composition, "California Down the Middle of the World," as a special feature at tomorrow's meeting of the Woman's club. Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff, chairman of the section, is in charge of the program.

Dr. Owen C. Coy, lecturer and historian, also editor of California History Nugget, is slated as the luncheon speaker.

Luncheon at 12:15 starts the day off, with Mrs. Gertrude Schenck, chairman, assisted by Mmes. C. M. Roberts, Marguerita L. Whiteman, Sally Schanbacher, Carl Randolph, James E. Brown, K. C. Wisniewski and Bertha Nichols.

PASADENA POST,

John Steven McGroarty To Speak Before Arcadia Women's Club Wednesday

History, poetry, fashions, athletics, and a meeting of the Los Angeles County Federation of Women's Clubs presidents' council and regional round table will contrive to entertain and instruct San Gabriel Valley clubwomen during the week.

ARCADIA

John Steven McGroarty, beloved poet laureate and former Congressman, will speak before the Arcadia Women's Club Wednesday, when the California history and landmarks section will provide the program following a 12:15 p. m. luncheon in the clubhouse. Mrs. Gertrude Schenck will be luncheon chairman.

Mr. McGroarty will read his famous poem, "California Down the Middle of the World." Later a historical pageant, "California, Progressive Up the Years," will be presented.

Dr. Owen C. Coy, lecturer on California history and editor of the California History Nugget, will speak on "California Under Six Flags."

Mrs. Helen Lumpkin will sing, accompanied by Mrs. Florence Anderson.

MUSIC SECTION STUDIES OPERA

Two of the greatest opera composers of all times—Wagner and Mozart—will be discussed at the February meeting of the Music Section of Arcadia Woman's Club, next Tuesday afternoon, February 13, at the home of Mrs. Belle Bonner, 915 South First avenue.

Mrs. Bertha Nichols will talk on Wagner, with Mrs. Blodwen Ferrante telling of Mozart. The roll call is to be answered with names of great opera singers of the past and present.

Miss Eva Reynolds will reminisce of the days when she was a Metropolitan Opera boxholder, giving sketches of the great singers, composers and conductors she met during that period.

During the history period, lives of Bach, Mozart, Handel and Beethoven are to be outlined.

The program will start promptly at 1:30 o'clock and will precede the business meeting, Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, chairman, announced. Dessert will be served at 1 o'clock. Assisting Mrs. Bonner as co-hostesses are Mrs. Kay Osterhout, Mrs. Irene Stoker, and Mrs. Charlotte Henneforth.

Music Section Study German Operas

Reversing the usual routine, following dessert at one o'clock the program will start at 1:30, announces Mrs. Charles Lumpkin, chairman of the Woman's club music section which will be held Tuesday at Mrs. W. C. Bonner's home, 915 N. First avenue. Business is to be conducted at the conclusion of the afternoon.

The February session will feature Mozart and Wagner opera study with Mrs. Robert Ferrante and Mrs. Horace S. Nichols giving papers on these, supplemented with recordings. As a Metropolitan Opera house box holder, Miss Eva Reynolds is to insert her experiences of several years ago.

Famous opera singers of the past and present, will be the response to roll call.

SCOUTS EXHIBIT CRAFTS

Boy Scout Troop No. 5, sponsored by Arcadia Woman's club, and led by Robert Chambers, scoutmaster, will have an exhibit of handicrafts at Coleman's Variety store in honor of Boy Scout week. The exhibit opens today.

HISTORY SECTION PROGRAM ATTRACTS RECORD CROWD

Mrs. Emily Mann Timerhoff and the California History and Landmarks Section of Arcadia Woman's club chalked up another dazzling success yesterday when they presented the annual history program at the Woman's club.

The event attracted one of the largest crowds of the season and every inch of available space was filled to capacity.

Dr. Owen C. Coy, distinguished historian, gave the keynote speech of the day, "California Under Six Flags." He traced the history of California from the time of the Spanish colonization until its annexation by the United States. The six flags that have floated over California are those of Spain, Mexico, the Bear flag, the Russian flag, the Union Jack, and the United States.

COLORFUL AND VIVID

A colorful spectacle-pageant, vividly costumed, and with appropriate stage properties, written, acted, and directed by members, was presented, symbolizing the growth of the state from Indian days to modern times.

"California Progressive Up the Years" was the title selected by its authoress, Mrs. Timerhoff.

In lieu of John Steven McGroarty, poet laureate of California, whose wife is seriously ill, necessitating his constant attendance, Mrs. John S. McFarlane read his poem, "Just California" as the prologue. In keeping with the motif of the day Mrs. MacFarlane wore a flowing black gown and lace mantilla, with antique jewelry from the collection of Carlotta, Empress of Mexico.

ATMOSPHERE CREATED

Decorations were charming, with faded old shawls, strings of peppers, painted gourds, flower-filled miniature carretas, flags, and countless other articles creating the atmosphere of "yesterday."

GUESTS NAMED

Guests of honor included Mrs. Teresa Bouttier, chairman of California History and Landmarks club, and her sister, Mrs. Earl V. Gara, president of the same group.

In the pageant were Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, in gold costume, as "California"; Mrs. John Renshaw in Spanish costume was Spanish California; Mrs. Florence Muller as the "Indian"; Miss Barbara Geiger, "Junior clubwoman"; Miss Betty Anne Lumpkin, "Mexico."

Mrs. J. C. Criddlebaugh wore orchid and black as "religion"; Mrs. J. S. Stoker was "vineyards" in a flower frock with bouquet; Mrs. Eugene Perry was "gardens"; Mrs.

WEST ARCADIA PRESS

IMPRESSIVE PAGEANT OF CALIFORNIA HISTORY PRESENTED BY CLUBWOMEN

The California history and landmarks section entertained the Arcadia Woman's club in regular session Wednesday afternoon with a pageant, entitled "California Progressive Up the Years," written and directed by Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff.

California's development step by step was represented by members of the section, portraying the growth and development of highways, bridges, "black gold," gardens, vineyards, music, motion pictures, radio, etc., as each took its place in California formation.

Mrs. J. M. McFarlane read as a prologue "California Down the Middle of the World." Mrs. Timerhoff gave a running comment as the pageant unfolded and presented each performer.

Professor Owen C. Coy, of the history department of U. S. C., was the luncheon speaker, giving an interesting talk on "California Under Six Flags."

The tables, in keeping with the theme, were gay with Mexican pottery and painted gourds, and flags of Mexico and the U.S.A. floated over all.

Ticket Sale Brisk For Party At Woman's Club

Tickets are going rapidly for the benefit party to be staged at Arcadia Woman's Club, Thursday evening, February 22, according to Mrs. Jessie Stewart, chairman.

An evening of entertainment is planned that includes the rousing music of the twety-five piece Torreadhor Band, directed by Hugh McNutt of Los Angeles, noted bandman.

Miss Dorris Edghill, also of Los Angeles, will lead in the folk dancing and games which will follow the 45-minute concert.

Reservations for the affair will be taken by the committee, which includes Mesdames Juanita Bunting, Ruth Harpole, Florence Boller, Florence Anderson, Grace Stanley, Imogene Libby, Mabel Hoover, and Mrs. Stewart.

Tickets Now on Sale for Turf Club Dance

Mrs. James S. Craig, chairman, of the Turf Club dance of Arcadia Woman's club to be held at Santa Anita, Friday night, April 12, announces that tickets will go on sale this week, with Mrs. E. E. Balling as chairman in charge.

A prominent girls' orchestra has been secured for the dance, Mrs. Craig said. This group has appeared at many of the smartest hotels and cafes and is expected to be an outstanding attraction.

MONROVIA DAILY NEWS-POST FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1940

Arcadia Woman's Club Pageant Presented

The Golden State's progress down the years was gaily and authentically depicted yesterday in the pageant, "California, Progressive up the Years," staged by Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff and presented at Arcadia Woman's Club Members of the cast belong to the history and landmarks section. Slightly disappointing was the fact that John Steven McGroarty was unable to be present due to the serious illness of his wife and Mrs. J. M. MacFarlane read his poem, "California, Down the Middle of the World" as the fitting prologue.

Those participating included Mmes. Timerhoff, Charles Lumpkin, LeRoy Anderson, Florence Muller, John Renshaw, J. C. Criddlebaugh, James Stoker, Eugene Perry, Clarence Crane, F. C. Ganther, C. Thomas, H. E. Riess, Eugene Harpole, George Needham, H. S. Nichols, E. J. Frentress, B. E. Rubottom, C. G. Bunting, C. E. Hoover, E. E. Balling, J. S. Craig, John Vanderbur, Eva Falconer, George Barngrover, C. W. Thompson, Charles Crellin; the Misses Barbara Geiger, Jean Riess, and Betty Lumpkin. All were costumed and gowned as fitted their parts in the play.

Caretas filled with corn and colorful gourds, kumquots and calendulas stressed the California-Spanish theme used by the decorating committee on the luncheon tables, around which were seated 125 members and friends. Chairman Mrs. L. W. Keenan was assisted by Mmes. J. W. Owen, C. M. Roberts, C. C. Hoffman, Warner, W. Ragan, G. S. Spragins, C. F. Springsted, F. A. Tester, Braithwaite and Ausdal.

Dr. Owen C. Coy, of U. S. C. luncheon speaker, in humorous and witty manner traced California's early history and said, "It isn't the size of the state that is important but its history which is a cross-section of world history with many countries interlaced." His topic was "National and State Patriotism."

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, in presiding over the meeting, announced the music section meeting next Tuesday at 55 Floral avenue, one o'clock, Mrs. W. C. Bonner hostess.

Beginning Monday at 12:30, another series of contract bridge lessons will commence, Mrs. Bonner teaching. Classes will be held at Mrs. A. Smollen's home, 42 Owen avenue. As before, a half hour lesson will precede the play and prizes are to be awarded for high scores.

Mrs. J. Stephen Craig, chairman, of the Fourth Annual Santa Anita Turf Club, announced tickets are now on sale for the event scheduled for April 12.

PAGEANT PRESENTED

THANKS HELPERS

Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff, chairman of California History and Landmarks section of Arcadia Woman's club, today issued thanks to "those who assisted in the pageant staged at the woman's club last week either in effort or by their generosity in lending drapes, decorative articles, heirlooms and family pieces to decorate the auditorium. Especially do I wish to thank Mrs. Helen Lumpkin and Mrs. Florence Anderson for the beautiful music they provided; Mrs. Mabel Hoover of Holly Avenue P.-T. A. for the use of a California flag; Mrs. J. S. MacFarlane for so gallantly filling in when a scheduled speaker was unable to make his appearance."

MOTHERS' AUXILIARY FORMED FOR BOY SCOUT TROOP NO. 5

Although Mrs. P. A. Libby was elected president of the Mothers' Auxiliary of Boy Scout Troop No. 5, Mrs. A. R. Chambers, mother of Robert Chambers, troop leader, will act as president pro tem for the next two months to familiarize the new officers with Scout work and procedure.

The first Auxiliary organized in Arcadia; the group was formed at the home of Mrs. H. E. Cox, who will serve as secretary.

At the second meeting held Monday in the home of Mrs. Libby, Scout rules and regulations, and Auxiliary rules were read and discussed. The next meeting will be held on Monday, March 11, at the home of Mrs. D. L. Robertson, 170 W. Longden, with the group meeting the second Monday of each month thereafter.

Other officers named besides Mrs. Libby and Mrs. Cox are Mrs. W. H. Page, second vice-president; Mrs. O. L. Roberts, third vice-president; Mrs. M. R. Miller, fourth vice-president, and Mrs. L. Myers, treasurer.

On March 14 the Auxiliary will visit a meeting of the Alhambra Boy Scout Auxiliary to study methods adopted by that organization.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO HAVE MUSIC PROGRAM

The Neighborhood School of Music, Los Angeles, will present an instrumental musical program tomorrow at the Woman's club regular meeting, followed by an important business session. Mrs. Mark Millspaugh will preside.

Luncheon, in charge of Mrs. Emmy Kaskel, is slated for 12:15 and reservations may be phoned to the chairman.

Club affairs were discussed and plans outlined at the monthly executive board meeting held at Mrs. Millspaugh's home recently.

Those present were Mmes. James Stoker, Susan Riess, B. E. Rubottom, John Murfett, C. C. Hoffman, J. Stephen Craig and Miss Eva Reynolds.

GARDEN SECTION MEETS TUESDAY, MRS. PERRY

George E. Millard will tell members and friends of the Woman's club Garden section at Tuesday's meeting about chrysanthemums in his talk before that group. The session will convene at 1:15 with dessert and a business meeting at 2:15, presided over by Mrs. John Murfett at the home of Mrs. Margaret Perry, 71 Owen avenue. An open forum and question box will be, as usual part of the afternoon's meeting.

FEDERATION WORK TOLD BY CLUBWOMAN

"There are 14,000 clubs in the United States belonging to the General Federation of Woman's clubs with a total membership of more than two million," stated Mrs. E. T. Reed yesterday in her report on federation work of which she is secretary. Sixty clubs in foreign countries belong to the federation and look to this country's clubs for leadership and advice, especially along peace lines. While clubs are meeting October to June, the general federation president remains in Washington, D. C., where headquarters are located in a $70,000, five-story building which houses the various departments, the speaker further disclosed.

Mrs Mark Millspaugh in presiding over the business period, called for reports from Mrs. C. G. Meade who humorously told about attending a recent presidents' council; Mrs. Nellie White, radio; Mrs. Charles Lumpkin, music, and Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff, California history and landmarks.

During the luncheon Mrs. James E. Stoker, vice president, officiated in Mrs. Millspaugh's place, the latter unable to attend until 2 o'clock. Sixty-five were seated at the sweet pea and flag decorated tables. Mmes. Emmy Kaskel, John Owen, August Kaskel, Samuel S. V. Schermerhorn, O. H. Williams, McDonald, Steinle, C. L. Newell, Joe W. Hall and E. B. Pennington comprised the luncheon committee.

Members, all young, of the Neighborhood Music School, Los Angeles, a non-profit organization for children who wish to enrich their everyday life by expressing themselves musically, entertained the club with violin, piano, cornet and song numbers. Miss O'Dell, administrator of the school, explained its functions, stressing that the aims were not to make professionals. The club voted to take a membership. Mrs. W. C. Bonner, program chairman, introduced the speaker.

Club Section Postpones Meeting Until Next Week

Because of the heavy club calendar this week, the International Relations Section of Arcadia Woman's club will postpone the meeting scheduled for today until next Thursday, Mrs. Wood Glover, section chairman, announced this week.

Papers on Brazil, Paraguay, Rio de Janeiro, and the Cape Horn country will be read by members.

The meeting is to be held at the Glover home, 853 W. Duarte road.

Children Give Musical Program At Woman's Club

Talented children of the Neighborhood School of Music in Los Angeles, a non-profit institution founded to provide underprivileged children with musical talent an opportunity to study, entertained members of the Arcadia Women's Club at the regular meeting yesterday.

Mrs. J. S. Stoker, vice-president, presided in the absence of Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, who was guest of an out-of-town club.

Miss E. O'Neill, director of the school, told of the activities of the school amongst children of the poorer districts of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Emmy Kaskel headed the luncheon committee.

The business meeting followed with Mrs. Millspaugh in the chair. Mrs. Emma Meade gave an interesting report on the Presidents" Council held in Santa Monica at which she represented Mrs. Millspaugh.

CHRYSANTHEMUM GARDEN SECTION TOPIC TUESDAY

"Did you know there are more than 7000 named varieties of chrysanthemums and many thousand unnamed?" asked George E. Millard, Temple City at the February meeting of the Woman's Club, Garden Section held at Mrs. Margaret Perry's home. The speaker further related they originated in China but ours came from England. Fertilization planting and caring were fully discussed by Mr. Millard who is an authority.

Mrs. John Murfett presided over the business hour which followed dessert at 1:15 served to the 25 ladies attending. As usual the interesting open forum consumed a half hour or more, with questions from the question box. Tentative plans for the annual peach festival some time in March were talked about but no decision made.

Bulbs and flower arrangements are slated for the next meeting, March 19 at Mrs. H. H. Pike's home on Sunset Blvd.

Club Group to Meet with Mrs. Glover

The International Relations section of the Arcadia Woman's club, which should meet the fourth Thursday of the month, postponed its meeting until next Thursday, February 29, when the chairman, Mrs. Wood Glover, will be hostess to the group at her home, 853 West Duarte road, with Mrs. Marie Chambers as cohostess.

Dessert will be served at 1 o'clock and there will be several interesting features for the afternoon session. Various countries of South America will be discussed, that continent being the theme for the year's study.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Members of the History Section of Arcadia Woman's club will attend the District Conference of California History and Landmarks next Monday when that division makes a noontime pilgrimage to the home of Charles F. Lummis, 200 E. Avenue 43. Luncheon will be served to those making reservations.

MRS. LUMPKIN TO SING AT DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Mrs. June Webster, chairman, of District Federation Music Section will preside at the conference to be held next Monday at 1 p. m. in District Headquarters, at which Mrs. Helen Lumpkin of Arcadia will be the featured artist. She will present "Lullabies from Many Countries". Others on the program included Miss Jane McGowan and Jay Barbour. The West Adams Woman's club chorus will sing and Mrs. Beulah Bennett will give the biography of Irving Berlin.

MEMBERS ASK FOR 'REPEAT' ON OLD FASHIONED PARTY

With the Washington's Birthday party given by Arcadia Woman's club, only a few days old, requests for "repeats" already have been made to Mrs. Charles Stewart, general chairman.

The old fashioned dancing came as the second half of the program, which opened with a sprightly concert by the Toreadhor Band of Los Angeles. A grand march divided events and left guests flushed and happy for coming events.

More than a hundred took part in the festivities which concluded with a buffet supper served by Mrs. C. C. Bunting, and Mrs. Phillip A. Libby, and a committee.

Mrs. Robert McMaster prepared the patriotic decorations which decked the hall. Other committee members besides those named above responsible for the success of the affair were Mesdames Charles Hoover, Ardene Boller, and D. Stanley.

"BLITZKRIEG" PLANNED TO PUT TURF CLUB DANCE OVER

Mrs. James Stephen Craig is an exceptionally busy person these days.

For as general chairman of the Turf Club dance, sponsored by Arcadia Woman's club on Friday evening, April 12, she has interviewed prospective committee members, businessmen, Turf club officials and dozens and dozens of others while outlining her "first line of defense" for the dance's success.

When all plans are ready, Mrs. Craig's "blitzkreig" is expected to put the dance over as one of the outstanding successes of the year.

Like all good generals, Mrs. Craig finds her staff of extreme importance. She has added the following new workers to her general committee:

Responsible for stage decorations are Mrs. C. C. Hoffman and her committee, with Mrs. Eugene Perry directing the committee in charge of lounge and card room decorations. Mrs. Perry will be assisted by Mrs. Von Ausdal, Victor Wagoner, George Jones and Wade Shurtleff.

Mrs. E. E. Balling, will double in brass on the ticket and orchestra committees with Mrs. Helen Lumpkin as co-chairmen of the last named. They assisted Mrs. Craig in selecting a group of lovelies, Peggy Gilbert and her orchestra, to supply music for the evening.

Miss E. Ruth Evans, assisted by a committee of Juniors will reign at the check room while E. E. Balling and Charles Lumpkin will take tickets at the door.

Mrs. Glenn W. Watson and Mrs. Le Roy Anderson, card room chairmen, announced that members wishing to arrange bridge parties of four or more will be given a handsome special prize for their own group. Contract, auction, five hundred, pinochle and Chinese checkers will be played, with prizes for winners in each division.

Another departure this year will be the serving of sandwiches, pie, cake, and coffee, as well as ice-cream, and the usual "party" refreshments. Mrs. John Kaskel, noted in club circles as a superlative cook, will be in charge of this committee.

High school and junior college students have been extended a special invitation to attend the dance, Mrs. Craig said.

Woman's Club Plans Club Talent Day

Club Talent Day will feature the next regular meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club, to be held March 6. The luncheon speaker will discuss child welfare work, and the afternoon program will be varied and in keeping with St. Patrick's Day.

Mrs. Helen Lumpkin and Mrs. Lola True will each render a group of songs and there will be readings by Mrs. Belle Bonner, program chairman; toe dancing in costume by Mrs. Elsie Krupp's young daughter; fold dancing and group singing, and a specialty number by a club member whose identity has not been revealed.

Mrs. Kenneth Leslie will be luncheon chairman, with Mrs. Margaret McMaster in charge of the decorations.

MUSIC AND DANCING FEATURES OF WOMAN'S CLUB ESCORT NIGHT

Escort Night at the Arcadia Woman's club last Thursday provided a delightful evening's entertainment to about 100. The 25-piece Toreador band of Los Angeles furnished the first hour's entertainment, which was followed by old-fashioned dances and a grand march, accompanied by the band.

Miss Doris Edghill, of Los Angeles, directed the dances and contests, some very humorous, and everyone present entered heartily into the spirit of the evening. Mrs. Leroy Anderson and Miss McFarland assisted at the piano.

Mrs. Robert MacMaster was in charge of the attractive decorations, which included large flags, great sprays of greenery, and many beautiful flowers. Mrs. Charles W. Stewart and her committee were responsible for the lovely evening. Her assistants were Mesdames Charles Hoover, Ardene Boller, C. G. Bunting, Phillip A. Libby, Le Roy Anderson, and Jackson D. Stanley.

Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs and Miss Virginia Hostutler, of the local Junior Woman's club, attended a delightful progressive dinner in Glendale Monday evening, sponsored by the Junior President's Alumnae group of the Los Angeles District Federation of Woman's Clubs.

Peach Blossom Festival Set For March 20

Mrs. Elsie Murfett, chairman, and members of the Garden Section of Arcadia Woman's Club are planning final details for the sixth annual Peach Blossom Festival set for Wednesday, March 20, at the clubhouse.

With a magnificent bower of flowering peach as background the program will fittingly present, Mrs. Mildred Bryant Brooks, noted artist, in a discussion of the principles of flower arrangement.

The festival, one of the loveliest events of the club season, was inaugurated by Mrs. Nellie T. White, who although not in active management this year will act in a supervisory capacity.

SOUTH AMERICAN COUNTRIES STUDIED

Paraguay, Cape Horn and South America in general were talked about and described at the monthly meeting of the Woman's club International Relations section meeting held at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Wood Glover.

Before "traveling" in this land of romance the hostess and Mrs. A. R. Chambers, co-hostess, served dessert and coffee, followed by Mrs. Glover presiding over a brief business session.

Interesting and informative highlights of Paraguay were told by Mrs. C. S. Pulver. Mrs. Susan Riess titled her descriptive talk, "Up and Down the Americas," and Mrs. Glover chose the Cape Horn country. Round table discussions added diverting bits to the afternoon.

Flags of South America will be made at the next meeting, March 28, which opens in the morning at Mrs. Riess' home.

Those attending were: Mmes. James Stoker, H. E. Rubottom, Edgar T. Ried, Roth, G. G. Meade, Crupp, Robert Ferrante, S. L. Williams, G. H. Barngrover and Miss Eva Reynolds.

CLUB TALENT TO BE FEATURED

Club talent day will feature tomorrow's regular meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club. Mrs. Mary Moore, luncheon speaker, will discuss child welfare work with the afternoon program varied and in keeping with St. Patrick's Day.

Members are looking forward to musical entertainment by Mrs. Charles Lumpkin and Mrs. M. M. Trew and humorous readings by the program chairman, Mrs. W. C. Bonner.

Mrs. Kenneth B. Leslie and her committee will serve the 12:15 luncheon.

ARCADIA

Mary R. Moore will be in charge of a child welfare program to be presented at the Arcadia Women's Club during the luncheon hour Wednesday. A St. Patrick's program featuring club talent will be staged in the afternoon.

HONOR IRISH PATRON SAINT

Venerable St. Patrick was the incentive for all the fun at Arcadia Woman's club yesterday when members staged a merry Irish program of typical songs and dances.

On the program of "home talent" was a gay Irish folk dance performed by ten members in quaint Irisn costumes. They included Mesdames Juanita Bunting, May Glover, Maxine Balling, Frances Mc Donnell, Marion Hobbs, Belle Bonner, Helen Smollen, Blodwen Ferrante, Georgia Spragins, Margaret McMaster, Miss Alma McFarlin, folk dancing teacher, supervised.

Mrs. Lola Trew, wearing a dainty green organdy frock, sang an Irish folk song. Mrs. Belle Bonner received a nice hand for her clever reading of several Irish poems. One, an "anonymous" poem by a club member, disclosed Mrs. Emily M. Timerhoff as author after repeated demands of "author, author."

Highlights of the program included the spirited Irish jig of Mrs. Frances McDonnell, the group of three songs sung by Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, and the violin solos of Mrs. LeRoy Anderson. Community singing was another feature.

The serious part of the program came at the luncheon period, presided over by Mrs. Ina P. Millspaugh(president, when Mrs. Mary Moore, child welfare chairman, introduced Mrs. Raymond Catland, Los Angeles Distrist Federation child welfare chairman, who talked on the home's responsibility to the child.

She congratulated Mrs. Jane Adcock, president of Arcadia Co-ordinating Council, who was a guest of honor, on the efficiency of the body Mrs. Adcock headed. During Mrs. Catland's speech she praised juvenile radio programs of the type written by Harlan Ware, Arcadia writer for a national broadcasting company.

Mrs. Frances Leslie was chairman of the luncheon committee. She was assisted by Mesdames Smollen, Ella Owen, Ruth Riddle, Ann Evans, Annie Gervig, Roberta Scheffel, Alrena Ellison, M. Smith, Margaret McClary, Lucille Gregg. Decorations were arranged by Mrs. McMaster and Mrs. Ruth Wagoner.

Mrs. Glover Hostess to Club Group

An interesting meeting of the International Relations section of the Arcadia Woman's club was held at the home of Mrs. Wood Glover, 853 West Duarte road, last Thursday. The luncheon, served at noon with Mrs. Marie Chambers as cohostess, was accompanied by South American music.

Three excellent papers were read. Paraguay was discussed by Mrs. Mary Pulver. "Up and Down the Americas" was Mrs. Susan Riess's subject, and Mrs. May Glover discussed Cape Horn.

The next meeting, scheduled for March 28, will be preceded by a pot-luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Riess, 22 East Longden. Papers that day will deal with the Amazon country, Argentina, and Patagonia. The ladies will also busy themselves making flags of the South American countries to be used in an April program for the Woman's club.

LOCAL WOMAN IS HONORED

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president of Arcadia Woman's club will serve on the committee for the 10th Annual Woman's Civic Conference to be held April on the University of Southern California campus.

Mrs. Millspaugh will serve with Mrs. Alex Dewar of Glendale who is general chairman.

State and city government officials together with two university presidents, officers of the U. S. Army and Navy, and educators will take part in the all-day conference, according to Dr. W. Ballentine Henley of U.S.C. who is directing the event.

In the morning, President Rufus B. von KleinSmid of U. S. C. will address the assembly while six panel discussions will fill the afternoon program. Plans are being made to accommodate 1200 women.

IRISH MUSIC, DANCES FEATURE WOMAN'S CLUB TALENT PROGRAM

The Arcadia Woman's club Talent Day Wednesday was reported a great success. The varied program was almost entirely Irish in origin.

One of the noteworthy features was an Irish dance by "coleens" Belle Bonner, Maxine Balling, Marion Hobbs, Margaret McMaster, Blodwen Ferrante, Georgia Spraggins, Frances McDonnell, Helen Smollen, May Glover, and Juanita Bunting. Mrs. McDonnell's solo dance, "The Irish Washerwoman," was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Florence Anderson, local violinist, played "Londonderry Air," arranged by Kriesler, and an arrangement of "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms," by Helen Ware, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Helen Lumpkin. Mrs. Anderson then accompanied Mrs. Lumpkin in a group of Irish songs.

Three poems by Thomas Moore, American-Irish poet, were read by Mrs. Belle Bonner. Mrs. Lola True, in old-fashioned costume, sang a Kerry dance.

Mrs. Elma MacFarlane, was in charge of the dances and Mrs. Belle Bonner program chairman.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS SECTION TO MAKE FLAGS

In order to understand the world today Arcadia clubwomen are making a study of South America and the place it occupies in the scheme of things.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Wood Glover, chairman of International Relations section, they are studying the various countries.

Mrs. Glover was hostess at the regular meeting held in her home last week. She was assisted by Mrs. A. R. Chambers.

Following the dessert serving at 1 o'clock, Mrs. C. S. Pulver gave an informative paper on Paraguay while Mrs. H. E. Riess read "Up and Down the Americas" and Mrs. Glover discussed "Cape Horn". An open forum on South America brought forth many unusual facts.

The group is engaged in making South American flags which they will use at the special program they plan to present before the parent club sometime in April. These flags will be completed at the next meeting, a potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Riess. Argentine, Patagonia, and the Amazon countries are to be discussed then.

Members present included Mesdames J. A. Stoker, B. E. Rubottom, J. T. Reynolds, Roth, E. T. Reid, G. G. Meade, Krupp, Robert Ferrante, S. L. Williams and George Barngrover.

CLUB GROUP TO SEW

The Philanthropy section of the Arcadia Woman's club will meet next Wednesday, March 13, at 9:30 a. m. at the clubhouse. All ladies interested in the sewing project are welcome, whether club members or not, and should bring thimble, scissors, and sandwiches. Coffee will be served at noon.

HONOR BURBANK ON ARBOR DAY

By Mrs. Nellie A. White

Today, Thursday, March 7, is Arbor Day for the entire state of California. And this is a reminder that this week, March 5 to 10, is the annual tree planting week in Arcadia when every loyal citizen, who has not already done so, is urged to join in the movement to make our home city noted, far and wide, as "The City of Flowering Trees."

A double flowering peach tree planted in the home grounds this week and bursting into bloom next year simultaneously with hundreds of others already planted, will be not only a source of pleasure and delight to the owner, an attraction to every passerby, but will also honor Luther Burbank whose birthday we commemorate on Arbor Day. This man, the greatest "plant wizard" the world has ever known, who spent his entire life creating many of the beautiful trees, flowers and luscious fruits we enjoy today, added untold wealth to the floriculture and horticulture of California.

A double flowering peach tree with its wealth of exquisite, lovely blossoms, planted in his honor, will prove to be a source of joy and pride in the years to come. Do not delay it longer. The weather is ideal, the soil in the best possible condition.

HISTORY TOLD AT MEETING

California's production of cotton began in 1840 but it was not until 1933 that the crop became one of the state's leading products.

These interesting facts were contained in a paper read by Mrs. B. E. Rubottom at the February meeting of California History and Landmarks section held at the home of Mr. Eugene Perry, 71 Owen avenue.

John Muir was the subject of an interesting biography presented by Mrs. George Needham at the same meeting. Miss Eva Reynolds conducted the Spanish word drill and Miss Eva Reynolds, secretary, the historical roll call.

Mrs. E. M . Timerhoff, chairman, presided. A social hour followed with Mrs. George Barngrover pouring and Mrs. H. S. Nichols assisting the hostess.

Present were Mesdames Helen Lumpkin, Florence Muller, Irene Stoker, Marcia Crellin, Jane C Crane, Catherine Thomas and Ethel Frentress.

Mrs. Charles Crellin, 618 Fairview, will be hostess at the next meeting set for March 27.

FRIDAY, MARCH 8, 1940

CLUB HUSBANDS TO AID DANCE

While the Turf Club dance to be sponsored by Arcadia Woman's club at Los Angeles Turf club on Friday, April 12, might be called a feminine undertaking, it is still necessary to call upon tried-and-true club husbands to do a few odd jobs here and there.

Regardless of how emancipated women may become it is doubtful if they ever learn to drive a nail. Knowing this Mrs. James Stephen Craig, general chairman, took no chances when she appointed her carpentry committee and gave the chairmanship to A. L. Parker, one of the staunchest of club husbands.

Although the ladies can easily whip up breath-taking decorations, fluffiest of cakes, and organize a thousand committees to put over the most gigantic affair with the utmost aplomb, they could'nt possibly construct a stage.

And a stage must be constructed for the orchestra, which for this occasion is to be a dainty assembly of girls, under the baton of pretty Peggy Gilbert. Pulchritudinous no end, the orchestra ranks as one of the best, having been featured in the "Great Waltz" and are now playing on the radio.

Besides Mr. Parker, in the hammering brigade will be H. E. Riess, Mark Millspaugh, and E. J. Frentress. All veteran club husbands and all experienced in carrying chairs, putting up pictures, taking down drapes, and the ten thousand duties that fall to the lot of that unselfish specie, the Club-husband.

Mrs. Craig has issued a call for her committee to meet at the clubhouse next Thursday afternoon at 12:30. Each committee member is asked to take a lunch but to omit dessert as Mrs. Craig will bring enough for all.

It was also announced that members who wish to arrange private card parties of four or more tables will be given a special prize for their own group. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Craig.

Music Section To Hear Guest Artist Tuesday

The ancestry of the piano will be traced from the earliest, crudest instruments down to the beautiful multi-toned concert grands of today when the Music Section of Arcadia Woman's Club meets Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Florence Anderson, 474 Duarte road.

Mrs. Georgia Spragins will tell of the piano's history while Mrs. Flora McCaleb will give the biography of Chopin, Mrs. Harriet Barngrover will talk on Liszt and Mrs. Ethel Rubottom on Paderewski.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. Spragins, a guest artist, Mrs. Claude Bennett of Los Angeles, will play a group of illustrative piano numbers.

The meeting starts promptly at 1:30 o'clock with a dessert serving. Mesdames Blodwen Ferrante and Mabel Hoover will assist the hostess.

PIANO MUSIC TO BE THEME OF MEETING

The Music section of the Arcadia Woman's club will meet Tuesday, March 12, at 1 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Florence Anderson, 474 Duarte road. It is billed as an extra special meeting to be devoted to the study of piano music.

Biographies of Chopin, Lizst, and Paderewski will be given, and Mrs. G. S. Spraggins will read a paper on the history of the pianoforte. Mrs. Claude Bennet, guest pianist from Los Angeles, will present a group of selections. Response to roll call will be "Famous Pianists."

GUEST PIANIST TO PLAY FOR CLUB

"Matrons attending Tuesday's meeting of the Woman's club music section at Mrs. LeRoy Anderson's home will come away with a better understanding of piano music," comments the chairman, Mrs. Charles Lumpkin.

Mrs. Claude Bennet, guest pianist from Los Angeles plans to present a group of selections and Mrs. G. S. Spragins is preparing a paper on the history of the pianoforte. Biographies of Chopin, Lizst and Paderewski are also to be given.

Boy Scout Mothers to Meet Next Week

FAMOUS PIANISTS THEME OF CLUB MUSIC SECTION MEETING

Imagine pulling Paderewski's hair!

Roll call response at the Arcadia Woman's club music section meeting Tuesday disclosed the fact that Mrs. Margaret Weston had that unique privilege when a child. "Famous pianists" was the subject of the roll call.

Mrs. Claude Bennet, pianist, of Los Angeles, obtained through the courtesy of Mrs. Georgia Spragins, played three Schumann numbers interspersed with comments on the composer's life and works.

A history of the piano from the time of the virginal (named after Elizabeth, the virgin queen of England) and the pianoforte, was given by Mrs. Spragins, and a paper on Chopin was read by Mrs. Flora McCaleb. Chopin is noted for the brilliance and mysticism of his music, she pointed out.

Anecdotes taken from the memoirs of Paderewski were retold by Mrs. Ethel Rubottom to the great enjoyment of the group.

Concluding the program, Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff read selected clippings commenting on Lizst, and the chairman, Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, spoke briefly. Mrs. Florence Anderson, of Duarte road, was hostess, assisted by Mesdames Blodwen Ferrante, Mabel Hoover, and Janette Crane. There were 24 members and five guests present.

Plans were made for the music section program to be given before the Woman's club in May. This affair will celebrate the first birthday of the music section.

CAMELLIAS GARDEN SEC. TOPIC NEXT TUESDAY

Those attending the meeting of the Womans club Garden Section Tuesday will learn about camelia culture. Clarence Hearn local authority on these beautiful blossoms, is to be the guest speaker.

MONROVIA DAILY NEWS-POST,

Peach Blossom Time At Woman's Club Wednesday

For the Woman's club annual peach blossom festival, Garden Section members in charge of yesterday's program transformed the club rooms into veritable floral bowers with the lovely flowering peach predominating.

Mrs. John Murfett, chairman of the Garden Section, acknowledged her introduction by Mrs. Mark Millspaugh. president, with a brief address then presented the program chairman Mrs. Belle Bonner.

Mildred Bryant Brooks of Pasadena, noted etcher and artist showed many different types of flower arrangements, with combinations of colors and blossoms. Mrs. Brooks had appeared before the club Nov. 1 when she displayed etchings and related their histories. Betty Lou Smith and her teacher, Mr. Good of Pasadena, played several piano selections during the program hour.

At the brief business session, presided over by Mrs. Millspaugh, members elected the following for a nominating committee: Mmes. Needham, Horace S. Nichols, C. F. Noack, Jackson D. Stanley and E. J. Frentress. This committee will meet Friday with the president at her home.

Mrs. Caroline Ganther and her committee served the delicous luncheon, more than 100 enjoying the viands.

Mrs. Bonner announced the annual spring breakfast and fashion show for Tuesday at 11:30 in the clubhouse and is open to the public. Cards will be the diversion during the afternoon and all types of dresses morning, afternoon, beach wear evening, formal and informal will be modeled.

WOMAN'S CLUB BRIDGE, FASHION SHOW PLANNED

The March ways and means committee of the Arcadia Woman's club, with Mrs. Bert Morris as chairman, is sponsoring a bridge breakfast next Tuesday, March 26, at the clubhouse. A fashion show by the F. C. Nash company of Pasadena will be featured after the breakfast, directed by Miss Jane Robinsonson. Nash's will not only do the decorating but will furnish the music as well.

The remainder of the afternoon will be spent at bridge, both auction and contract, with attractive prizes to be awarded.

BLOSSOMS TRANSFORM WOMAN'S CLUBHOUSE

For the Woman's club annual peach blossom festival, garden section members in charge of yesterday's program transformed the club rooms into veritable floral bowers with the lovely flowering peach predominating.

Mrs. John Murfett, chairman of the garden section, acknowledged her introduction by Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, with a brief address then presented the program chairman, Mrs. Belle Bonner.

Mrs. Caroline Ganther and her committee served the delicious luncheon to more than 100.

Mrs. Bonner announced the annual spring breakfast and fashion show to take place Tuesday at 11:30 in the clubhouse and open to the public. Cards will be the diversion during the afternoon and all types of dresses—morning, afternoon, beach wear, evening, formal and informal, will be modeled.

Fashion Revue At Woman's Club Tuesday Morning

A post-Easter showing of smart spring fashions will take place at the benefit breakfast to be given next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Woman's Club of Arcadia.

The show, given by a Pasadena department store, will be staged against a background of special decorations and music.

Following breakfast, cards will be played during the afternoon.

Informal attire of slacks and morning frocks is suggested by the committee, headed by Mrs. Clara Morris. Assisting her are Mesdames Florence Anderson, Henrietta Anderson, Harriet Armstrong, Caroline Ganther, Frances McDonnell, Lolo Trew, Betty Craig, Marion Hobbs, Bessie Reid and Gertrude Schenck.

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS PEACH BLOSSOM FETE

Once again the Peach Blossom Festival staged by the Garden Section of the Arcadia Woman's club proved to be one of the outstanding affairs of the entire year when club members assembled at the clubhouse yesterday afternoon for the annual event.

The decorations were breathtakingly lovely, with delicate peach blossoms in bouquets, on luncheon tables, and in special niches about the hall, forming exquisite springtime pictures.

As lovely as the blossoms was Mildred Bryant Brooks, nationally known etcher, who lectured on flower arrangements. She demonstrated principles by building flower "pictures" before the eyes of her audience.

YOUNG PIANIST

With the stage, a veritable spring bower of lovely blossoms, plus the flower arrangements prepared by Mrs. Brooks, as a background, Betty Lou Smith, young daughter of Mrs. Carol P. Smith, looking like the spirit of spring herself in a dainty blue frock, presented a concert of piano music. Revealing excellent technique for so young a performer, little Miss Smith fittingly chose selections based on spring. She played Papillons by Olson, and three numbers by Grieg, To Spring, Butterflies, and Danse Caprice. Her teacher, Frederick A. Good of Pasadena, who very competently opened the afternoon program with a group of numbers, introduced her.

PRAISE CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Clarence Crane, chairman of the Festival, and Mrs. Harvey Moss, co-chairman, were highly praised for their splendid work. Mrs. Victor J. Wagoner, also came in for her share of compliments as did Mrs. John Murfett, section chairman, and each member of the Garden Section.

Responsible for the delicious luncheon, which incidently included the baking of twelve home-made cakes, was Mrs. C. F. Ganther, chairman. Assisting her were Mesdames Bert Morris, John Vanderbur, William Hobbs, C. O. Holmgreen, Schultz, C. S. Pulver, Mildred Petsch, Robert Ferrante, and Pates.

Presiding jointly were Mesdames Mark Millspaugh and John Murfett.

At the business meeting that followed Mesdames George M. Needham, Horace S. Nichols, C. F. Noack, Jackson D. Stanley, and E. J. Fentress, were appointed to the nominating committee, which will select candidates for the annual election of officers to be held on May 1.

CLUB WOMEN ENJOY BREAKFAST BRIDGE AND FASHION SHOW

The breakfast bridge and fashion show held at the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse on Tuesday was a very successful affair. It was presented by the March ways and means committee of the Woman's club, with Mrs. Bert Morris as chairman.

The fashion show, which followed the breakfast, was arranged by Miss Jane Robinson, of the F. C. Nash company of Pasadena. Miss Robinson introduced Mr. Nash, who in turn introduced their stylist, Miss Kay Veale. The stage was arranged as a desert resort and bathing suits and sand clothes were the first showings, featuring the new Inca prints. These were followed by street, afternoon and evening wear, 40 outfits in all, displayed by professional models. Quiet music by a hidden Hawaiian G. Lewis and Claude Bonner, string trio accompanied the showing.

Cards and games followed, with Mrs. Truman Reid, of Oil City, Pa., winning the door prize; Mesdames Ralph Ericsson, W. first, second, and third respectively in contract; Mrs. C. F. Noack first in auction; Miss Emelie Faulkner, Chinese checkers, and little Miss Florence Osterhout winning in rummy.

Assemblywoman To Speak Before Woman's Club

Assemblywoman Eleanor Miller will be guest speaker at the regular meeting of Arcadia Woman's club next Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Carl Randolph, current events chairman, will introduce the speaker, who will tell of events of the special session of the legislature called by Governor Culbert L. Olson last month.

Presiding at the 12:15 luncheon will be Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president. Mrs. Clarence Crane heads the luncheon committee and Mrs. C. E. Hoover, motion picture chairman will present the afternoon program scheduled for 2 o'clock.

Eagle Scout Badges To Be Awarded At Court of Honor

Boy Scout Troop No. 5, sponsored by the Woman's Club, under the leadership of Bob Chambers has charge of the Boy Scout Court of Honor program, April 4 at First Avenue school, 7:30 p. m.

Eddie Roberts and Bob Miller members of Troop No. 5, receive Eagle Scout awards, first boys in this troop of 27 claiming the honor.

Woman's Club Holds Peach Blossom Fete

The regular meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club last week featured the annual peach blossom festival in charge of the garden section of the club, with Mrs. John Murfett as chairman. The club rooms were transformed into a bower of beauty.

About 140 members enjoyed the luncheon served by Mrs. Caroline Ganther and her commitee. Mrs. Mildred Bryant Brooks, the speaker of the afternoon, talked on flower arrangement. Delightful music was contributed by Betty Lou Smith and her instructor Mr. Good, of Pasadena.

At a brief business meeting presided over by Mrs. M. A. Millspaugh, the president, the following members were elected to serve as a nominating committee: Mesdames George M. Needham, Horace S. Nichols, C. F. Noack, Jackson D. Stanley, and E. J. Frentress.

. . . Mrs. Nellie A. White, peach-blossom lady, who dreams of an Arcadia filled with flowering peach trees . . . looked especially charming at the Peach Blossom Festival at the Woman's club . . . I don't know whether it has the same effect on you, but peach blossoms make my heart sing . . . Mrs. Harriet Lucas, the dear, promised me a bouquet of peach blossoms last week and I got too busy with the horses to get over to pick them . . . now I suppose it is too late . . . (Wasn't Becker's peach blossom window the prettiest thing in town last week? . . . I stayed a long time feasting my eyes and I noticed others did too) . . .

. . . Eleanor Lucas Gibbs wore one of the new heart-shaped red hats to club meeting . . . and it was a knockout! Quite the newest thing, the off-the-face hat definitely calls for a pretty, young face like Eleanor's and not the over-sixty type I saw in Los Angeles the other day!

THURSDAY, MARCH 28, 1940.

Miss Barbara Geiger, president, will head the theatre party of Arcadia Woman's Club Juniors which plans to attend Pasadena Playhouse tomorrow night in abody.

Building Fund To Benefit From Turf Club Dance

"When you and your husband buy tickets to the Turf Club dance you are really donating a dollar and a half to the building fund and the committee is throwing in a party free!"

That was the unusual "slant" presented members this week by Mrs James Stephen Craig, general chairman of the annual dance to be presented by the Arcadia Woman's club, Friday evening, April 12 in the spacious Los Angeles Turf Club at Santa Anita Park.

"And that is what it amounts to," continued Mrs. Craig, "when you consider that the cost of the party is defrayed by the sale of advertising space in the dance programs and all proceeds are donated to the building fund."

According to Mrs. E. E. Balling, Jr., chairman of the ticket committee, the brisk sale of tickets continues merrily along and it is expected that an additional 200 may be printed to meet the demand. Tickets are on sale at Douglas Drug company and at Ericsson's Pharmacy or may be obtained from any member of the committee.

In order that distribution of card prizes may be more general, prizes for each table will be given in addition to the "grand prize" for high scores, card room committee members announced.

An orchestra of the first rank, refreshments, and cards will comprise the program of entertainment for the dance which is confidently expected to attract a record breaking crowd.

OUTLINE WORK OF COMMUNITY CHEST FOR YEAR

Youth activities and welfare work were equally stressed in the reports submitted Friday evening to President R. M. Dickinson of Arcadia Community Chest at a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce quarters in the Arcade building.

Heads of Chest agencies, representing the Coordinating Council, Y. M. C. A., Children's Clinic, Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scouts, told of their past years work.

The report filed on activities of the Children's Health clinic, sponsored by Arcadia P.-T. A. Council, during it's first year disclosed that thirty-six children, whose parents are financially unable to provide care, were given needed dental and medical care.

Mrs. L. L. Austin is chairman of this group, with Mrs. Robert McMaster, secretary, Mrs. W. G. Coombs, treasurer, and Mrs. Carl Bennett, case investigator, as assistants.

COUNCIL REPORT

According to the report submitted by Mrs. Jane Adcock, president of the Arcadia Coordinating Council, the council functions as a "clearing house" where information on questions and problems of relating to the community can be disseminated.

Of particular interest to this group during the past year was the study of the minimum wage law, pin ball and marble machine regulations, and the relief situation as it especially applies to the community.

PROVIDES RECREATION

Providing adequate and supervised recreational facilities for underprivileged boys and girls, giving a vocational dinner for graduating grammar school students, and maintaining an adjusting committee to serve as a council of social agencies for situations demanding special case work, and developing an index of the welfare resources of Arcadia, were only a few of the projects of the year past.

One hundred and five girls are numbered in the five Girl Scout troops of Arcadia, Mrs. Mary Baldwin Wheeler, chairman of Arcadia Girl Scout Community committee, reported. The Girl Scout program of character building activities includes studies in child care, reading and care of books, use of the public library, bird study, first aid, designing, international friendship, home training, and designing.

WELFARE REPORT

Since January 1, the Welfare Thrift shop's free employment bureau demonstrated its value by receiving ninety-eight first calls for household help and registering fifty-seven applicants. The shop also supplied milk to undernourished families, furnished transporation to county hospitals, provided a layette, made by the Woman's club, for an indigent mother, and rendered aid in inumerable other ways,, the report of the welfare committee disclosed. Mrs. Elsie Galloway is manager and Mrs. Adcock heads the executive committee, which is composed of represntives of civil organization.

CAMP FIRE

Recording the growth of camp Fire organizations was the report of Mrs. Coombs, chairman of the community committee. Ninety-six girls are engaged in the various character building activities of the group. Leaders are Mrs. Louis Goodwin, Mrs. J. E. Chandler, Mrs. Rose Chambers, Mrs. A. A. Arrington, Mrs. Mary Hathaway, Mrs. Charles Major, Mrs. E. L. Boucher, and Miss Belle Royal.

A complete report of the work of the Arcadia Y. M. C. A. and affiliated clubs was given by Ed Stevenson, president of the local committee.

MEMBERS NAMED

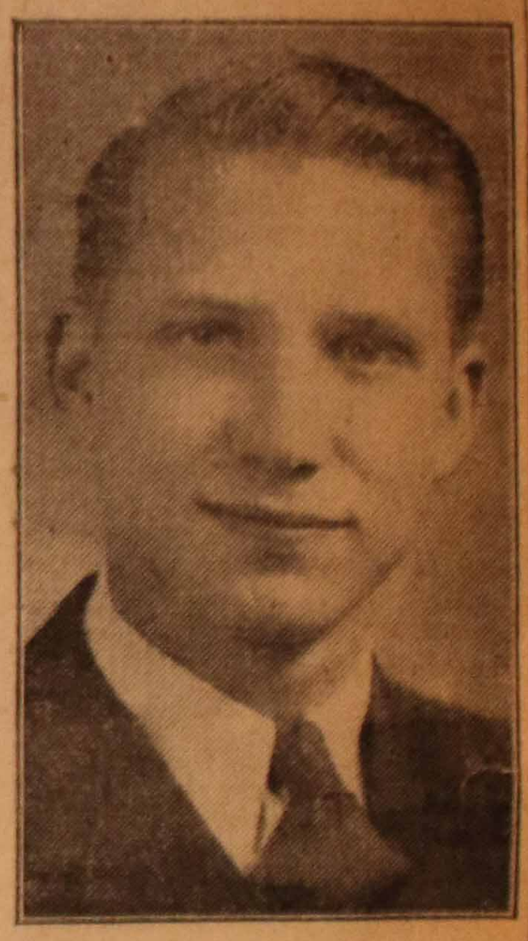
CHURCH MOVES ITS LOCATION

The Church of Christ which has been meeting at First and St. Joseph streets in Arcadia for the past seven years announces its new location. The new location is the Woman's Club Building at 324 South First street, opposite the First Avenue School.



HOYT HOUCHEN

Due to the rapid growth and the small facilities of the former place of meeting, a move has been needed for some time.

The minister is Hoyt Houchen, who has worked with the congegation for about three years, is twenty-one years of age and is now a student in George Pepperdine College. He has been engaged in preaching since he was sixteen years of age, and has been active in evangelistic meetings during the summer. Mr. Houchen is also a member of the college debating team which has made an outstanding record this year on the Pacific Coast. The squad ranked second this year on the Pacific Coast.

The Church's move to the Woman's Club Building is only temporary and will serve as a meeting place until its new building is constructed. The location of the new building will be at First and El Dorado streets. Plans are being made and it is hoped to have the structure completed in the near future.

Our Neighbor To the South Is Studied

The International Relations Section of Arcadia Woman's club met Thursday at 10 a. m. in the home of Mrs. Susan Reiss, for an all day session.

During the morning hours members worked on the collection of South American flags they are making under the supervision of Mrs. Elsie Krupp. A potluck luncheon at noontime divided the day, with the study program in the afternoon.

Mrs. Leanore Glasser gave a paper on South American vegetation stressing the growing of yerba mate and coffee; Mrs. Francis Williams told of explorations along the Amazon by hydroplane; Mrs. Mae Glover, section chairman, described the Chaco country, and Mrs. Irene Stoker outlined the lovely legend of the Christ of the Andes.

It was announced that a special meeting would be held today at 1:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Williams, 611 West Duarte road, with Mrs. Olive Hoffman as cohostess. Final arrangements for the program to be presented before the parent club on April 17 will be completed.

Those at the meeting were Mesdames Francis Leslie, Belle Bonner, Betty Roth, Bessie Reid, Florence Muller, Emma Meade, and those mentioned above.

Mrs. Crellin Tells of Trip To Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crellin were hosts to members of the California History and Landmarks Section of Arcadia Woman's club at the regular meeting, last Wednesday, held in their home.

After Spanish word drill conducted by Mrs. John Renshaw, Mrs. Crellin related highlights of a recent trip to Mexico, giving detailed description of Mexico's topography, vegetation and folkways. She paid particular attention to the beautiful and picturesque country surrounding Mexico City, and exhibited an extensive collection of pottery, silver, baskets, and pictures.

MOTHERS AUXILIARY

Mrs. W. H. Page and Mrs. F. P. Meyers will be co-hostesses at the former's home, 348 Camino Real, when the Mothers' Auxiliary of Boy Scout Troop No. 5 meets there next Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock for the April session. Mrs. P. A. Libby, president, is to preside.

MUSIC SECTION MEETS TUESDAY

American folk music will be discussed at the April meeting of the Music Section of Arcadia Woman's Club set for Tuesday, April 9, at the home of Mrs. C. F. Ganther, 2045 South Sixth avenue.

The meeting will start promptly at 1 o'clock, Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, chairman, announced. She urges all members to attend as final plans for the May Day program to be presented by the section before the Woman's club on May 1 will be made.

Mrs. H. E. Riess will tell of the life of Stephen Foster and the roll call subject will be "American Composers."

The subject of the afternoon has been divided into four divisions. Mrs. Eugene Harpole will discuss North American Indian music; Mrs. Lumpkin, Negro "mellows" and spirituals; Mrs. Eugene Perry, songs of the open range, and Mrs. A. R. Chambers, mountain songs.

MUSICAL PROGRAM FOR CLUB PLANNED

Final plans for the program to be given before the Arcadia Woman's club May 1 will be made Tuesday when the Music section meets at the home of Mrs. G. F. Ganther, 2045 South Sixth avenue. All members are urged to be there at 1 p. m. sharp.

The program will include all-American music and examples of musical expression typical of the North American Indians, the American Negro, the open range, and mountain music of the south, states Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, chairman. Illustrations "in person, not a record" will add interest to the program.

DANCE TICKETS SOUGHT HERE

Tickets for the Turf Club dance to be given by the Woman's Club of Arcadia at Santa Anita's beautiful Turf club Friday evening, April 12 are selling so fast that the ticket committee in all probability may be forced this week to print an additional 250, Mrs. James Stephen Craig, general chairman, reported.

"Yes, we are gratified at the wonderful response we have received from members, many have sold blocks of fifty tickets each, and nearly all ten or more. So it looks as if the forthcoming dance is going to be one of the largest on record," Mrs. Craig concluded.

According to the general chairman the co-operation given the club by Arcadia merchants has been whole-hearted. They have generously donated scores of articles to be used as table and sweepstake prizes in all divisions of the card room.

Among those giving prizes are Robert E. Sheehan, John Houlihan, drapery shop, Alice James Gift shop, Douglas Drug company, King's Pharmacy, Arcadia Gift shop, Coleman's Variety store, Arthur's Mens shop, S. L. Gillette's Shoe store, Arcadia Hardware, Ben Franklin stores, Moss' Perrenial Gardens, Ericsson's pharmacy and Hardy Harris' Electrical Appliance shop.

Peggy Gilbert's All Girl band, now finishing an engagement in pictures, before starting the season at the Samarkand Hotel in Santa Barbara, will play during the evening, and many entertaining events are scheduled.

CLUB GROUP TO MEET

Mrs. M. A. Hartnett, chairman of the Philanthropy section of the Arcadia Woman's club, announces the next regular meeting for next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Le Roy Schaumleffel, 30 El Dorado street, at 9:30 a. m., with plenty of work for everyone. The section will hold an apron sale at the regular club meeting on May 1.

MOTION PICTURE HISTORY, ASSEMBLY ACTIVITIES TOLD WOMAN'S CLUB

"The Romance of Motion Pictures," appropriate topic for this part of California, headlined the very excellent "bill" at the Arcadia Woman's club luncheon meeting Wednesday, over which Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, presided. Mrs. Mabel Hoover, motion picture chairman, was in charge of the program. Mrs. Edna Hamlet, district motion picture vice chairman, was the speaker, bringing glimpses of motion pictures from the time of tin reflectors used in place of footlights up to the present sound proof stage.

She traced the "galloping tintype" through its humble beginning as the illegitimate offspring of the stage plays, the only "legitimate" drama for stage folk to repute, to its present place in the sun.

With the tremendous power of motion pictures in influencing the thought of youngsters, there is no need, to quote Mrs. Hamlet, "to resort to propaganda, gangsters, or sex pictures." She recommended "Grapes of Wrath" as a picture well cast and acted and as a thought stimulator. "Think and vote" was her comment on the appalling situation truthfully depicted in this picture.

"Gone with the Wind" was good entertainment but had missed the points of the story, was Mrs. Hamlet's opinion.

"Rebecca" was named a venture into metaphysics and worth seeing.

Assemblywoman Eleanor Miller, of the 47th district, presented by Mrs. Carl Randolph, current events chairman, outlined the work done by the present special session of the Assembly, in relief appropriations and taxes.

A travel picture completed the meeting.

The committee on arrangements consisted of Mesdames Janet Crane, chairman, Pearl Schermerhorn, Ida Parker, Josephine Schaumleffel, Fanny Needham, Mae Pennington, Agnes Minten, and Miss Emilie Faulkner.

Decorations were in charge of Mesdames Isabel Evans, Alice Cline, and Will Ragan.

All Girl Band At Womans Club Turf Ball

For the fourth annual Woman's club dance at the Santa Anita Turf Club April 12 Peggy Gilbert and her all girl band will furnish dance music with speciality numbers interspersed.

These nationally known musicians appeared in the picture "The Great Waltz" and are now working with Universal and Rebuplic. Concluding their picture engagements they will be at the Hotel Samarkand, Santa Barbara this summer.

Mrs. J. Stephen Craig, general chairman reports tickets are going fast for this spring event and that Mrs. Glenn B. Watson and Mrs. LeRoy Anderson have charge of the card room where various games may be played. Door, card, and other prizes are to be awarded.

As in other years, the Los Angeles Turf Club is donating the use of their clubhouse for the affair.

RELIEF FUNDS ARE AMPLE ELEANOR MILLER TELLS CLUB

The aspects of the relief situation in California are so varied that is is difficult to understand them all unless one is at the very center of things.

So believes Miss Eleanor Miller, Pasadena assemblywoman, who spoke before the Woman's Club of Arcadia yesterday at the regular luncheon-meeting. That Miss Miller is at the "center of things" is evident in her record of twenty years in the California Legislature.

NO NEED FOR CUT

It was brought out in Miss Miller's talk that seventeen million dollars was appropriated by the Assembly to cover relief costs from January to June of this year. This fund, she stated, was ample to care for all relief needs and there was no reason for the recent forty per cent slash, which caused recent uproar and resulted in homes of dissenting assemblymen being in protest by the Workers' Alliance, an organization of reliefers.

She outlined procedure of the legislature and told briskly the operation of the two houses, explaining why it was necessary to "recess" until May 13 to avoid being called back repeatedly as threatened by the governor.

DISLIKES BOOK

Although Miss Miller hasn't read John Steinbeck's "Grapes of Wrath" she declared she has heard of it and heartily disapproves of the book, feeling that it presents a distorted view of the California farmer.

"People come to me to talk about the migrant problem in California as if we had never thought of it before. Why we of the Legislature have been working on that problem for years."

Mrs. Carl Randolph, current events chairman, introduced Miss Miller, describing her as "the dean of women legislators of America."

SINGS ART SONGS

On the afternoon program presented by Mrs. C. E. Hoover, motion picture program chairman, Mrs. Gwendolyn Van Pelt, of Arcadia, sang a group of art songs. Her numbers were "Big the Bend of the River" by Clara Edwards, "I'm in Love with Vienna," Johann Strauss, and an encore number by Brahms.

Mrs. Edna May Hamlet, District vice-chairman motion picture section, talked on "Romance of the Motion Pictures" and Rex Goodcell of the Automobile Club of Southern California showed an interesting travel film, "Glimpses of the West."

COMMITTEE

Presiding at the luncheon was Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president. Mrs. Clarence Crane was chairman of the luncheon committee. She was assisted by Mesdames C. F. Schermerhorn, LeRoy Shaumleffel, George Needham, A. L. Parker, E. B. Pennington, and Arthur Minten.

Decorations were in charge of Mesdames R. W. Evans, Alice Cline, and Will F. Ragan.

CLUB SECTION SEWS ON FLAGS

Mrs. Frances William entertained members of the International Section of Arcadia Woman's club at a special meeting in her home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Olive Hoffman was co-hostess and Mrs. May Glover, chairman, presided.

Mrs. Elsie Krupp supervised the sewing of the South American flags to be used at the program to be presented by the section at the Woman's club on April 17.

Boy Scouts Uniform Exchange

Mothers of growing Boy Scouts will welcome the idea of the uniform exchange set up by the Mothers' Auxiliary of Boy Scout Troop No. 5 at the regular meeting Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. William H. Page, 348 Camino Real.

The uniform exchange will function as a clearing place for uniforms where mothers may turn in a hopelessly outgrown uniform and receive a larger size.

Mrs. D. L. Robertson was placed in charge of the new enterprise. Mothers wishing to avail themselves of the exchange may telephone her at ATwater 7-2283 and she will call for the uniform.

EXPECT RECORD CROWD AT TURF CLUB DANCE

In the fashionable background of the Los Angeles Turf club, the fourth annual Turf Club Ball of the Arcadia Woman's club will get underway at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

Club and society women of this vicinity are planning special toilettes for the occasion, which is accounted one of the smartest of the entire club season.

A floral background of potted plants, ferns, and formal flower arrangements will provide a brilliant setting for the affair.

In the card room, presided over by Mrs. LeRoy Anderson and Mrs. Glenn Watson, prizes will be awarded in all divisions, which include bridge, 500, chinese checkers, and pinochle. Nineteen door prizes are to be given.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

According to Mrs. James Stephen Craig, general chairman, Judge Ardene Boller, popular young Arcadia professional man, will be master of ceremonies.

Peggy Gilbert's band of glamour girl radio and motion picture musicians is expected to attract a capacity crowd of more than 800 dancers.

THANKS MERCHANTS

Mrs. Craig wishes to thank the following merchants and business firms who have generously contributed to the affair:

Seven Up Bottling works, Child's Bakery, Shopping Bag market, Huntington and Monrovia Nurseries, Becker's Dress shop, Ericsson's Pottery shop, and all those mentioned previously.

Modern Bathing Suits Approved

Junior Members of Women's Clubs Think Past Garb Terrible

The modern bathing suit, brief as it may be, is far superior to the beach togs of years gone by, the junior members of the Los Angeles District of the California Federation of Women's Clubs decided yesterday.

The parade of past and present beach fashions which they presented on the strand of the Hotel St. Catherine, pointed out what they called the "awfulness" of bathing wear a few years ago.

A few moments before they adjourned the hi-jinks, they elected Mrs. William Gibbs as the new president of their division.

THE MONROVIA JOURNAL

TUESDAY, APRIL 16, 1940.

MRS. ELEANOR GIBBS, OF W. ARCADIA, DISTRICT, ELECTED PRESIDENT OF JR. WOMEN'S CLUBS OF L. A. DISTRICT

Mrs. Gibbs was elected without opposition, succeeding Mrs. Fred W. Hufford.

(Mrs. Gibbs was one of the contestants in the Monrovia Journal's contest last year.)

The Junior Girls, at the Catalina convention, revealed how they make special provision for club husbands and "steadies" on the night of their club meetings.

One club provides smoking facilities, reading material, and other diversions in their own clubhouse on the night of their meeting, inviting the boys in later for refreshments.

In another club, the club husbands without family responsibilities makes it a point to gather together themselves on club night at a movie or some other place.

Many husbands are even willing to help with the dishes in order to speed the young wife on her way —and more than one young wife revealed that her spouse has become an expert in wielding three-cornered panties for offspring thru experience gathered on club nights.

Mrs. R. A. Masser, junior sponsor for the district, revealed today the wide program of philanthropy that the girls carry on in addition to their regular club work.

"There are 51 clubs, with a membership totaling about 1700 in our junior groups," said Mrs. Masser. "Those girls enjoy many social functions. But their reports also show an active interest in child welfare, in safety, in work for crippled children, and especial work for the blind.

Youthful club husbands and boy friends, of the 1940 vintage, not only look with approval on the club activities of their wives and best girls, but they co-operate with them.

In fact, young husbands even offer to stay home and mind the baby on club night.

THE ARCADIA TRIBUNE

MRS. W. D. GIBBS IS ELECTED JUNIOR FEDERATION LEADER

One of the highest honors in clubdom came to Mrs. W. D. Gibbs (Eleanor Lucas) of Arcadia last weekend when she was unanimously chosen junior president of the Los Angeles District California Federation of Women's Clubs at the 39th annual convention in Catalina.

The honor came after two years work as district officer, first as hostess then as registrar and chairman of the blind welfare and philanthropy committee.

So outstanding was her leadership that her ability soon attracted the attention of district heads and she was nominated for the office she now fills.

Mrs. Gibbs served as first president of the Arcadia Juniors when that group was organized in November 1937, and was re-elected to serve again the following year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lucas, 379 Norman avenue.

A native of Mendon, Mo., Mrs. Gibbs was educated in Los Angeles schools, majoring in art at L. A. J. C. Her marriage nearly two years ago was one of the events of the social season.

Installation of the young leader will take place at a formal luncheon on May 11 at San Fernando Women's club. Mrs. Emma Messer, district advisor, is to be installing officer.

MRS. W. D. GIBBS

DISTRICT PRES. CALIF. FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS, RULED COCKTAIL PARTIES OUT AT CATALINA MEETING

No perching on high stools in swank cocktail rooms; No sipping of festive highball or "old-fashioned" in any public place;

No cocktail parties in hotel rooms. These rules were announced and made effective last week when several hundred clubwomen of Los Angeles, Inyo, Ventura, San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbar counties convened at Catalina for the annual convention of Los Angeles District, California Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Oscar S. Elvrum, district president, issued the edict that any district officer or chairman who goes cocktailing will be considered automatically to have resigned from her post.

Mrs. Elvrum declared that the convention is not held for a good time, but to transact district business.

"I have no desire to regulate the private lives of our members," said Mrs. Elvrum. "I know they are not intemperate in any sense.

"But when club leaders go to a convention, they cease to be individuals and become representatives of the entire district. They are the show window thru which the general public views the clubwomen. One woman taking one cocktail can be so exaggerated as to give a harmful impression of our work and personnel."

At several district conventions in recent years, cocktail parties were given, but were frowned upon by district leaders. At most of them, delegates and leaders took plain tea. But one party aroused a stir that is still talked about in whispers, and Mrs. Elvrum means to have no repetition in her administration.

GARDEN CLUB ROSE TEA

Following inspection of the hostess' charming gardens the group heard Neil Campbell of Pasadena lecture on culture of flowers and bulbs from seeds. Mrs. Nellie A. White gave a most interesting account of roses and their culture. Each member received a copy of a book on flower arrangements as a special gift from Mrs. White.

Mrs. John Murfett, section chairman, presided at the business meeting. Mesdames Clarence Crane, H. S. Nichols. J. S. Stoker and Miss Ruth Evans were co-hostesses.

Garden Section Met At Mrs. Parker's Tuesday

SEWING MEETING CALLED

Mrs. M. A. Hartnett, chairman of the Philanthropy section of the Arcadia Woman's club, announces an extra meeting next Wednesday morning, April 24, at the home of Mrs. C. L. Newell, 443 LeRoy avenue, with a pot luck luncheon at noon. The ladies will work on aprons for their sale at the next regular club meeting May 1.

Music Section Studies Native American Music

To the American Indian music was an integral part of his life. Each action from birth to death had its accompanying melody which could not be used for any other occasion.

Mrs. Ruth Harpole, told these facts on Indian music at the April meeting of the Music Section of the Arcadia Woman's club held last week in the home of Mrs. Caroline Ganther.

Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, section chairman, illustrated her contribution on negro music with original old songs. Mrs. Lumpkin's paper also disclosed that the word "tango" came from an African word "tangaro," and that the negro contribution to American music is a great one.

Mountain songs of Kentucky, collected by Mrs. A. R. Chambers while a teacher there, were sung by the group, and Mrs. Chambers outlined the musical background of that section

Songs of the open range were described by Mrs. Margaret Perry, and Mrs. Susan Riess gave a biography of Stephen Foster.

During the business period plans for the group's program to be presented before the Woman's club on May 1 were completed.

American Music Is Club Feature

Mrs. C. F. Ganther, 2045 S. Sixth avenue, was the hostess and Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, chairman, conducted the business meeting when plans were formulated for the May day program at the club. This occasion will mark the section's first anniversary.

North American Indian music was Mrs. Eugene Harpole's paper topic with Mrs. Lumpkin telling about the negro 'mellows' and spirituals of the South. Illustrating the chairman sang several of these unknown songs.

Having taught school in the Kentucky hill section, Mrs. A. R. Chambers, well versed in music of that district, sang a quaint old song which one of her pupils had written. Interesting conceptions of this native music were given.

Thirty members and friends were present and assisting the hostess in serving refreshments were Mrs. Fannie Needham, Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. John Vanderbur.

Will Paraphrase Famous Book At History Meeting

"Grapes of Wrath" will be paraphrased into "Grapes of Progress and Profit" for the information of members of California History and Landmarks section of Arcadia Woman's club when that group meets next Wednesday, April 24, at the home of Mrs. Florence Muller, 144 Alta street, at 1:45 p. m. for the April meeting.

Mrs. Emily M. Timerhoff, section chairman will give the above mentioned paper with Mrs. John Renshaw reporting on "Place Names of California." Roll Call of historical data and Spanish word drill will be held. Tea will conclude the meeting.

MRS. MULLER HOSTESS LANDMARKS SECTION

Members of the California History and Landmarks section Woman's Club, will meet at 1:45 April 24 with Mrs. Florence Muller, 144 Alta street for their regular session in charge of Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff.

Vice chairman, Mrs. John Renshaw after conducting tne usual Spanish word drill will give a talk as will Mrs. Timerhoff. Responses to roll call by Miss Eva Reynolds are history data. Tea concludes the after-

Bridge Expert To Lecture At Woman's Club

Bridge fans are jotting next Thursday, April 25, on their calendars for on that date Robert Lee Johnson, nationally known bridge authority, who conducts K. F. I.'s bridge hour, will lecture at the Arcadia Woman's club.

The occasion will be a dessert bridge, one in the series of finance committee benefit affairs. Mrs. Le Roy Anderson is chairman in charge. She will be assisted by Mesdames Charles W. Stewart, Harvey E. Moss, Jackson D. Stanley, Robert Ferrante, A. R. Chambers and George Needham.

Programmed for 12:30, tickets for the affair will be only 25c each. Reservations may be made through Mrs. Stewart at ATwater 7-1515, Mrs. Moss at ATwater 7-1841 or Mrs. Anderson at ATwater 7-2785.

TURF DANCE MAKES HISTORY

With the Fourth Annual Turf Club Dance of the Woman's Club of Arcadia gone blazing into history, members today are still heaping praise upon Mrs. James Stephen Craig, general chairman, for her brilliant executive ability.

The dance, held last Friday in the Los Angeles Turf Club, was one of the most charming affairs on record. Peggy Gilbert's All Girl band proved capable and smooth and the floral decorations formed a gracious backdrop for the smart evening ensembles of women guests.

An amusing event of the evening came at the square dance, called by Fred Lovell of Pasadena, when a group of the conservative old guard had to take the floor to show the younger members how to trip.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, assisted Mrs. Craig in her hostess duties. Presiding at the refreshment bar were Mrs. John C. Kaskel, Mrs. J. W. Owen and Mrs. H. E. Riess while the George Needhams were in charge of the check room.

At the door were Mrs. Charles Lumpkin, Mrs. E. E. Balling, jr., Mrs. Jackson D. Stanley and Mrs. Harvey E. Moss, with Mr. Lumpkin and Mr. Balling taking tickets.

Woman's Club Dance At Turf Club House Successful Affair

To the strains of Peggy Gilbert's all girl band between two and three hundred danced while in the card room adjoining another hundred guests enjoyed various games, contract, auction, pinochle and Chinese checkers.

Dancing features were the grand march and an old fashioned square dance. The club president, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh and Mr. Millspaugh led the march and Miss Barbara Geiger, Junior Woman's club president and her partner had the place of honor immediately back of them.

More than 30 door and card prizes were distributed with Judge Ardene Boller reading the lucky numbers for ticket holders to claim.

Mrs. J. Stephen Craig, general chairman was assisted by Mrs. E. E. Balling, jr., who had charge of the tickets; Mrs. LeRoy Anderson and Mrs. C. M. Roberts, games; Mrs. Fannie Needham, check room and many other club members.

"Much of the financial success is due to Arcadia merchants who liberally donated, and we especially thank the Monrovia Nurseries whose beautiful flowers decorated the foyer, 7 Up Bottling works, Child's Bakery, Shopping Bag, Beckers' Dress Shop and others,' stated Mrs. Craig.

Proceeds which will be about $300 are for the club's building fund as an addition is contemplated in the near future.

Old Ranch Goal Of History And Plant Lovers

Since official approval by the State of California was granted the old buildings on Rancho Santa Anita, and the historic ranch declared to be an authentic state landmark, visitors have increased by leaps and bounds.

In conformation of this state wide interest, members of women's clubs, service organizations, boys and girls clubs and other groups have made pilgrimages to the historic buildings.

Among recent visitors were members of the Garden Section of the Orange Women's club who journeyed here in a body to inspect the time-honored buildings and study the rare, old trees and plants.

Floyd Kingsley, ranch foreman since 1919, guided the party over the property, pointed out interesting sights, and outlined its history. Mrs. Francis Collins of Santiago Rancho headed the group.

Mrs. William D. Gibbs (Eleanor Lucas) and Miss Virginia Hostutler represented the Arcadia Juniors at the 39th annual convention of the Federated Woman's Clubs of the Los Angeles district at Catalina last Friday and Saturday, and Mrs. Gibbs had the great honor of being elected president of the Los Angeles District Juniors.

The fourth annual Turf Club ball staged by the Arcadia Woman's club last Friday called forth a turn-out of nearly 400.

Georgeous azaleas and other potted plants, used throughout the rooms of the Turf club, formed a colorful background for dancers and card players. The music was by Peggy Gilbert's all-girl band.

Seventeen tables of 500, contract and auction bridge, and Chinese checkers were in play under the direction of Mrs. LeRoy Anderson and Mrs. C. M. Roberts, and prizes were given for high score at each table.

Refreshments were in charge of Mesdames August Kaskel, Susan Riess, and J. W. Owen.

Judge A. D. Boller presided over the door prize drawing, and a great number of exceptionally fine prizes were won.

Mr. and Mrs. George Needham were in charge of the coat rooms. Mrs. Stephen Craig headed the committee on arrangements.

45 BOY SCOUTS GIVEN AWARDS AT COURT OF HONOR SESSION

Forty-five Arcadia Boy Scouts today held higher rankings following presentation of awards April 4, in the auditorium of the First Avenue School during the regular Court of honor here.

INSTALL P.-T.A. COUNCIL HEADS AT ANNUAL LUNCHEON

Multi-colored spring blossoms and bright spring frocks of members wove a tapestry of color at the annual P.-T. A. Reciprocity luncheon staged Thursday by Arcadia P.-T. A. Council in the Woman's clubhouse, with Mrs. Ralph Scofield, retiring president, presiding.

Following introductions of guests, who represented civic groups, service clubs, and other community bodies, Mrs. Leslie W. Day, council historian, read an informative report of the past year's work.

NEW OFFICERS

Officers installed with Mrs. Hathaway include Mrs. Wood Glover, first vice president; Mrs. Irene Harrison, second vice president; Mrs. L. L. Austin, third vice president; Mrs. Mae Brown, recording secretary; Mrs. Lewis Pates, corresponding secretary; Mrs. H. J. Burns, financial secretary; Mrs. Coombs, treasurer; Mrs. Samuel L. Mundy, historian, and Mrs. H. S. Hawkins, auditor.

During the luncheon period, Mrs. Frances Potts, music teacher of Arcadia-Monrovia-Duarte High school presented the Girls' Glee club in recital.

COUNCIL COMPLIMENTED

Arcadia Council P.-T. A. was complimented twice for excellence at the 29th annual convention of First District P.-T. A. held Tuesday at Pasadena Civic auditorium.

First, for the efficiency of the child health clinic, headed by Mrs. L. L. Austin, and again for presenting four life memberships this season. Four memberships in a council of three associations is considered exceptional.

Attending from the three Arcadia associations were Mesdames E. E. Balling, Jr., Milo R. Sabin, R. W. Othmer, E. J. Beynon, William H. Hobbs, Ethlyn Gromeier, R. M. Bauer, E. W. Leeper, Arlene Brown, Dorothy M. Burns, V. M. Pullen, Ruth Harpole, Mabel Hoover, Juanita Bunting, Mary Hathaway, Irene Harrison, Katherine Mundy, Nina Blethen, Hazel Gruwell, and Helen Scofield, council president, who reported on the year's work.

At the annual press luncheon Mrs. Balling and Mrs. Sabin entertained Mrs. Alfred Verner of the Bulletin, and Miss Marjorie Hesse, of the Tribune and News as their guests.

FIRE CHIEF TO SPEAK

Fire Chief James Nellis will talk on fire prevention at the First Avenue P.-T. A. meeting next Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. in the school auditorium.

Annual election and installation of officers is scheduled, and Mrs. Helen Lumpkin and Mrs. LeRoy Anderson will present a musical program.

Music Section To Present Club Program

Important events are scheduled for Arcadia Woman's club meeting next Wednesday afternoon.

Besides the annual election of officers, which will take place during the afternoon, the music section will present a scintillant program in honor of its first anniversary.

Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, section chairman, announces that Nicholas Angelo, Hollywood tenor, and Marie Chandler Lindsey, musical reader, will be guest artists. Mr. Angelo will be remembered as soloist when the San Gabriel Valley symphony appeared here in concert.

Besides the guest artists and unnamed "surprise", the Mothers' chorus will sing and two members, Mrs. LeRoy Anderson and Mrs. Milo R. Sabin will present a duet. Another feature will be the appearance of a stringed trio, composed of Evelyn Jacobsen, Betty Ann Lumpkin, and Willard Ganther.

Mrs. Lena Davidson will discuss "Women in Music" at the luncheon, with Mrs. Mark Millspaugh in the chair. Mrs. A. A. Smollen is luncheon chairman. In honor of the event, music section members will be hostesses at each luncheon table where home made birthday cakes, baked and decorated especially for the occasion will be served.

MISSION BELL LEGEND TOLD

California's lovely place names were traced and explained by Mrs. John Renshaw at the regular meeting of the California History and Landmarks section of Arcadia Woman's club last week held in the home of Mrs. Florence Muller, 144 Alta.

It was revealed during Mrs. Renshaw's lecture that finding the meaning and source of California names was profitable and stimulating.

Mrs. J. M. McFarlin related a lovely legend of the largest bell at Mission San Gabriel while Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman, gave a most informative report on the raisin industry tracing its history from the time of Hannibal to modern days.

According to members the historical roll call conducted at each meeting by Miss Eva Reynolds, secretary, has grown into a miniature symposium on history.

Two guests of honor, Mrs. J. W. Owen and Mrs. O. G. Woodworth of Sioux City, Ia., were introduced. Assisting the hostess were Mesdames E. L. Perry, George Barngrover, Frank V. Hoagland, Clarence Crane, Helen Lumpkin, B. E. Rubottom, E. J. Frentress, G. H. Thomas, C. F. Ganther, Eva Falconer, J. C. Cridlebaugh, Mark Millspaugh, and Miss Eva Reynolds.

Mrs. C. E. Hoover, 419 Fairview, will be hostess at the May meeting.

NOMINATE MRS. J. A. STOKER AS PRESIDENT WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. James A. Stoker, charter member and active worker for twenty-five years, was nominated to the presidency of Arcadia Woman's club, yesterday afternoon, at the regular luncheon meeting. She will be unopposed.

With the exception of Mrs. Wood Glover and Mrs. John Murfett, who were both named for vice-presidency, there will be no contest at the election on May 1.

The list of nominations are as follows: Mrs. G. H. Thomas, second vice-president; Mrs. E. E. Balling Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. E. J. Frentress, corresponding secretary; Miss Ruth Evans, treasurer; Mrs. Edgar T. Reid, Federation secretary; Mrs. G. L. Jones Jr., program chairman; Mrs. Harvey E. Moss, parliamentarian, and Mrs. Bert Morris, trustee.

A native of South Dakota, Mrs. Stoker is a graduate of the University of Minnesota. She has resided in Arcadia for twenty seven years. She will succeed Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, who has served two terms as president.

SECTION PROGRAM

At the program hour, Mrs. Wood Glover, chairman, and members of the International Relations section, presented a program on South America. W. G. Coombs, principal of First Avenue school, screened two films on Argentine.

Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, president-elect of the Los Angeles District Juniors, was among the guests of honor.

Mrs. A. E. Gruben and Mrs. Elizabeth Walker were co-chairmen of the luncheon committee. Assisting were Mesdames Alice Cline, R. W. Evans, H. S. Nichols, G. H. Thomas, H. E. Riess, and Glenn Watson. Decorations were in charge of Mesdames M. A. Harnett, Walter Hartnett, Carl Randolph, and Edgar T. Reid.

HISTORY AND LANDMARKS SECTION MEETS WITH MRS. MULLER

Indian place names in this state, human interest story, and industry formed an interesting and engrossing melange at the April meeting, Cay., History and Landmarks section, Arcadia Woman's club which met at Mrs. Florence Muller's, 144 Alta st., and was attended by 25 ladies.

Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff presided over the brief business meeting with roll call a symposium of historical data and significance.

Concludng the usual Spanish word drill, Mrs. John Renshaw enlightened the group on various Indian name places. Mrs. C. J. MacFarlane narrated a story about the sweetest toned bell in San Gabriel Mission and the chairman told of the vast growth of California's largest industry, grapes.

The hostess, with Mrs. John Vanderbur, Mrs. Susan Riess, and Mrs. Fannie Needham, served tea at the conclusion of the afternoon.

THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1940

MUSIC SECTION STAGES GRAND CLUB PROGRAM

Lilting as spring and harmonious as a major triad was the "Day at the Music Section" program presented by section members yesterday afternoon at the Woman's club in celebration of their first birthday.

Along with the affair's attractiveness, a highly practical turn was taken when Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, chairman, presented Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, with a check for forty dollars as the section's donation to the club treasury.

Dainty decorations of music clefs and staffs, pastel colored formals of members, and huge bouquets of flowers, formed a charming background for the program featuring Nicholas Angelo, opera tenor, Marie Chandler Lindsey, musical reader, piano duets by Mrs. Milo R. Sabin, and Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, and numbers by the Mothers' chorus.

STRINGED TRIO

Evelyn Jacobson, Betty Ann Lumpkin and Willard Ganther formed the stringed trio that played, and Mrs. Lena Davidson spoke at the luncheon on "Women in Music."

Mrs. Emily Timerhoff, section member, at the request of the section, composed an original poem in honor of the occasion, which she recited as her contribution.

ELECT OFFICERS

At the election held at the conclusion of the program, Mrs. James S. Stoker was chosen president, with Mrs. Wood Glover, vice-president; Mrs. G. H. Thomas, second vice-president; Mrs. E. E. Balling jr., corresponding secretary; Miss Ruth Evans, treasurer; Mrs. Edgar T. Reid, Federation secretary; Mrs. G. L. Jones jr., program chairman; Mrs. Harvey E. Moss parliamentarian and Mrs. Bert Morris, trustee, as her official family.

There was no contest for vice-president as Mrs. John Murfett withdrew before the election.

COMMITTEES NAMED

Mrs. A. A. Smollen was luncheon chairman with Mesdames Stoker, J. J. McFarlane, Kenneth Leslie, W. P. Osterhout, S. L. Chase, F. V. Hoagland, J. W. Owen, J. Thompson, R. N. McMaster, J. W. Schweisthal, Edward Kaurin, and C. G Bunting, assisting.

On the decorating committee were Mesdames Bert Ruboltom, S. C Lumpkin, G. S. Spragins, E. L. Perry, W. C. Bonner and Flora McCaleb Shepherd.

Music Section Stages Fine Program At Woman's Club

Members of the Woman's club yesterday were given a rare musical treat when the music section of the club took over the program reigns with the chairman, Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, acting as master of ceremonies.

Accompanied by Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, Nicholas Angelo, tenor, sang several numbers, among them the famous clown song from "Il Pagliacci." Mrs. Milo R. Sabin and Mrs. Anderson played two piano duets and Mrs. Marie Chandler Lindsey entertained with a delightful pianologue. The Mothers' chorus, under Mrs. Mabel Nye's direction, sang and a trio of high school students, Betty Ann Lumpkin, Willard Ganther and Evelyn Jacobsen, performed in a gracious manner.

During the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, election results were announced; Mrs. James E. Stoker, president; Mrs. Wood Glover, first vice president; Mrs. G. H. Thomas, second vice president; Mrs. Edwin E. Balling Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. E. J. Frentress, corresponding secretary, Mrs. George L. Evans, treasurer; Mrs. G. L, Jones, program chairman; Mrs. Harvey Moss, parliamentarian; Mrs. E. T, Reed, federation secretary and the two trustees, Mrs. J. S. Craig and Mrs. Bert Morris.

At the next meeting Mrs. Stoker will report on the state convention, which she attended as a delegate from the club.

Approximately 150 were seated for luncheon in charge of Mrs. A. Smollen. White birthday cakes bearing one lighted candle were on each table and hostesses were music section members.

Among Mrs. Smollen's assistants were; Mmes. Stoker, J. W. Schweisthal, J. J. M, MacFarlane. Robert McMaster, Bertha Thompson, Julia Ekman and Frank Hoagland.

The next meeting will be on May 15.

Mothers' Chorus Sings for Arcadia Women's Club Program

The Mothers' Chorus of Monrovia-Arcadia-Duarte high school, directed by its leader, Mrs. Roy V. Nye, contributed a group of song numbers to the May-Day program with which the Arcadia Woman's Club yesterday celebrated the first birthday anniversary party of its year-old music section, of which Mrs. Helen Lumpkin is chairman.

Mrs. Nye chose to present her singers in three numbers from their repertoire which reflected the bright, sunny moods of May-Day: Protheroe's gay, lilting "Strawberry Fair", Joseph W. Clokey's "Far-Away Song", with its pensive look across a sunny valley, and the wishful "Make My Heart a Place where Angels Dwell", in which the incidental soprano solo was sung by Mrs. Lumpkin herself. Mrs. Grace Bouma played excellent accompaniments.

The singers met with the same cordial appreciation that is accorded them on all the programs on which they appear; they sing with excellent ensemble effectiveness, their most marked impression being created by the beauty of the group tone quality. The pastel shades of their gowns were right for a May-Day atmosphere.

MUSIC SECTION MEMBERS ENTERTAIN WOMAN'S CLUB WITH VARIED PROGRAM

Wednesday's meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club was literally "set to music." In the capable hands of Mrs. Helen Lumpkin and the Music section, a graphic resume of the year's work in the section was brought before the club, and each type of music studied during the year was illustrated.

As an example of group singing or choral music, the P.-T. A. mother's chorus, directed by Mrs. Mabel Nye, sang a group of numbers embodying in their scope the lightness of the folk song and the inspiration of the sacred song. Mrs. Grace Bauma was at the piano.

Piano music was illustrated by duets by Mrs. Florence Anderson, and Mrs. Lucile Sabin.

The voice of Nicholas Angelo brought opera arias to a very appreciative audience and he responded again and again to the demand and approval of the music lovers.

A trio composed of Evelyn Jacobson, violinist, Betty Ann Lumpkin, cellist, and Willard Ganther, pianist, added a bit of symphony to the varied program, which included musical readings by Marie Chandler Lindsey and a paper on Indian music read by Mrs. Ruth Harpole.

The program followed the regular club luncheon, at which time Mrs. Lena Davidson, of Glendale, spoke on "Women in Music."

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh presided.

NOTED BRIDGE EXPERT ATTENDS PARTY HERE

Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, April finance chairman for the Arcadia Woman's club, was responsible for a successful dessert bridge held last Thursday at the clubhouse. There was a very large attendance, due probably to the fact that Robert Lee Johnson, nationally known bridge authority, was present. Mr. Johnson moved about among the tables answering all questions put to him.

Epic of Music Appreciation

"When Music,Heavenly Maid was young"
We had not grouped together,
I- But since she's grown sweetly mature,
We are hers in anyweather.
2- We've studied her,and appreciate
Her fine,entrancing harmonies
Of Sacred strains; the Operas,
American, and Symphonies;
3- With Composers too we're intimate,
And instruments--new and antique--
4- Life's true enrichment we have gained,
Through months of Soul annuities;
We'll share with you--if you approve--
Through section,club,communities.

MRS. MULLER INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Enroute to Radio City yesterday afternoon Mrs. J. S. Stoker and a party of clubwomen were involved in an accident when the Stoker car in which they were riding and another machine collided at Verdugo and Fletcher Drive in Eagle Rock.

Mrs. Florence Muller, who received several glass cuts and suffered shock was taken to the Windsor hospital for treatment. Others in the party—which included Mrs. Pearl Schermerhorn, Mrs. Keenan, and Miss Eva Reynolds—were shaken but not seriously injured.

THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1940.

JUNIORS HONOR THEIR MOTHERS

Honor guests included Mesdames H. G. Riess, Simon Walters, Stanley Brown, Mark Millspaugh, J. E. Hostutler, Fred Brown and Alice Cline.

Members present were Miss Barbara Geiger, Mrs. Dorothy Dobbings, Miss Virginia Brown, Mrs. Margaret Chambers, Miss Edith Ekman and Miss Hostutler.

CLUB BOARD MEETS

The year's final executive board meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club was held Monday at the home of Mrs. E. J. Frentress, 260 Camino Real, with Mrs. J. Stephen Craig as assisting hostess. At noon the ladies enjoyed a pot-luck luncheon out of doors under the rose and grape arbor. Board members present besides the hostesses were Mesdames Mark Millspaugh, James A. Stoker, H. E. Riess, John Murfett, C. C. Hoffman, Edgar T. Reid, W. Claude Bonner and Miss Eva Reynolds. Mrs. B. E. Rubottom is serving on the jury in Los Angeles and was unable to attend.

Junior Club Women Entertain Mothers

Members of the Arcadia Junior Woman's club entertained their mothers at breakfast Sunday at Carpenter's. The table was centered with red roses, and a lovely corsage was given to each mother. Miss Virginia Hostutler read a beautiful tribute to the mothers assembled.

Juniors attending were Barbara Geiger, Dorothy Dobbins, Virginia Brown, Margaret Chambers, Edith Ekman, and Virginia Hostutler. Guests were Mesdames H. E. Riess, Simon Walters, Stanley Brown, John Hostutler, Fred Brown, Mark Millspaugh, with Miss Ekman and Alice Cline as special guests.

This has became an annual affair.

Woman's Club Board Holds Final Meeting

Following a short business meeting presided over by Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, retiring president, luncheon was served in the beautiful setting of the rose arbor. Mrs. Betty Craig was co-hostess.

With the exception of Mrs. Ethel Rubottom, who is on jury duty in Los Angeles, all members were present. They were Mesdames Irene Stoker, Susan Riess, Elsie Murfett, Clive Hoffman, Bessie Reid, Belle Bonner, Eva Reynolds, Craig, Millspaugh and the hostess.

MEMBERS REJECT PROPOSED INCREASE IN WOMAN'S CLUB DUES

Arcadia Woman's club members unanimously rejected the proposal to increase club fees from three to five dollars per annum yesterday at the business meeting which followed the regular luncheon meeting.

One of the special features of the afternoon was the stork table where Mesdames Joe Hall, J. W. Schweisthal, Hugh Cockshott, and George W. Schenck, were seated with their infants born during the club year.

Mrs. J. S. Stoker, president-elect, gave an informative review of the C. F. W. C. convention at Fresno, where she represented the local club.

Mrs. J. W. Owen headed the luncheon committee with Mesdames George Needham, G. G. Meade, C. O. Holmgreen, Edgar T. Reid, Marian Moore, Harry Nesbitt, E. J. Frentress C. C. Hoffman, J. S. Craig and Betty Warner, assisting. Mrs. E. L. Perry and Mrs. Robert McMaster were in charge of decorations.

After the meeting adjourned Mrs. Nellie White headed a group of more than sixty members, who toured Radio City and attended Jean Hersholt's broadcast of "Dr. Christian."

Patricia Sabin Played For Music Section Womans Club

Eleven year old Patricia Sabin, daughter of the Milo R. Sabins, Tuesday appeared before the Woman's club Music Section meeting playing three piano selections with a young artist's finish and technique. Other musical entertainment was a variety of songs by Mrs. Helen Lumpkin; trio numbers by Jascha Gegna, violinist, Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, piano and violin, and Mrs. Walter Quayle 'cello. The performers delighted their audience and were called on for several encores.

During the morning, Mrs. Lumpkin, chairman, presided over business when election of officers was held. Mrs. Lumpkin was re-elected chairman; Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, vice-chairman; Mrs. A. R. Chambers treasurer; seating chairman, Mrs. E. J. Frentress; Mrs., Janet Crane, secretary; Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff, clipping book chairman; Mrs. Fannie Needham, hospitality chairman and Mrs. Sabin, press chairman.

So complete is the press clipping book compiled by Mrs. Timerhoff that it was decided to send it to the General Federation of Women's club convention in Minneapolis next month.

Mrs. E. E. Balling, Jr, of San Simeon Road opened her home for the gathering and following luncheon the afternoon was devoted to entertainment.

Interesting reveleations were disclosed during the "what the music section has meant to me the past year," commenth by those attending. Mrs. Susan Riess made a historian report and Mrs. Timerhoff read several outstanding clippings from the press.

This was the final meeting of the year, the new year beginning in October. About 40 attended.

WOMAN'S CLUB MUSIC SECTION CHOOSES OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Open discussion among the Arcadia Woman's club music section members upon the subject "What the music section has given me" revealed that a deeper appreciation of music and a fuller knowledge of musicians and their instruments had resulted and that music had found a place even in the lives of non-musicians.

The discussion followed a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Maxine Balling, 836 San Simeon road, Tuesday, at which officers were elected for the ensuing year. Mrs. Helen Lumpkin retained the chairmanship; Mrs. Le Roy Anderson will be vice-chairman; Mesdames Marie Chambers, treasurer; Janet Crane, secretary; E. E. Timerhoff, clipping chairman, Fanny Needham, hospitality, E. J. Frentress "chair" chairman, Lucile Sabin, press.

The clipping book for 1940 will be sent for display to the General Federation Council of Women's Clubs in Milwaukee, Wis.

A pot-luck luncheon was enjoyed at noon with dessert served by Mesdames Maxine Balling, B. O. Hagen, Edgar Hough, Bertha Nickols, Bess Hoagland, and Lucile Sabin.

An impromptu program excellent and varied included ensemble music by Jascha Gegna, guest violinist; Mrs. Wayne Quayle, cellist, and Mrs. Le Roy Anderson; piano solo by little Miss Patricia Sabin; violin duets by Mr. Gegna and Mrs. Anderson unaccompanied; and songs by Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, accompanied by Mrs. Anderson, with violin obligato by Mr. Gegna. A request for a "baby song" by the tiny daughter of the hostess was fulfilled by a Brahms lullaby sung by Mrs. Lumpkin.

The reading of the historian's report by Mrs. Susan Reiss and clippings read by Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff rounded out a full day for the section.

Garden Section To Elect Officers Next Tuesday

All members of the Garden Section of Arcadia Woman's club are urged to attend the May meeting to be held next Tuesday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Anne A. Felt and Miss Pearl Smith at 280 Hacienda drive as the annual election of officers is scheduled.

Ms. Elsie Murfett, chairman, will preside at the meeting, which will include an open forum, question box, and a talk on lathe houses by Mrs. H. B. Lewis.

An illustrated lecture on flower arrangement will be given by Mrs. J. M. Reed.

Club Women Visit Columbia Studios

A goodly number gathered at the meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club last week to enjoy a lovely luncheon served by Mrs. Agnes Minten and her committee, followed by a short business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh.

At 2 p. m. about 60 members left by automobile for Columbia Square, Hollywood, for a personally conducted tour of the KNX studios arranged by Mrs. Nellie White, club radio chairman. The afternoon proved interesting and highly educational but was somewhat marred by the knowledge that one carload of club members had met with an accident en route.

A car driven by Mrs. J. S. Stoker, accompanied by Mrs. Florence Muller, Mrs. Pearl Schermerhorn, Mrs. Keenan and Miss Eva Reynolds, collided with another machine at Verdugo and Fletcher drive in Eagle Rock. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt, but Mrs. Muller suffered the most injuries.

PAPER DRIVE

Boys of Scout Troop No. 5 will hold a paper drive Monday through Friday, Scoutmaster Robert Chambers, announced yesterday. Prizes will be given the patrol bringing in the largest number of papers.

HISTORY SECTION WILL ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Annual election of officers of California History and Landmarks section, Arcadia Woman's club, is scheduled next Wednesday, May 22, when the group meets at the home of Mrs. C. E. Hoover, 419 Fairview avenue. Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman, will preside, with Miss Eva Reynolds in charge of historical roll call and Mrs. John Renshaw, Spanish word drill.

ARCADIANS WITNESS FORMAL INSTALLATION OF MRS. GIBBS

More than 165 clubwomen from Los Angeles county attended the Fiesta luncheon to witness formal installation of officers of the Los Angeles District Juniors Saturday afternoon at the Elks club in San Fernando.

Mrs. William D. Gibbs (Eleanor Lucas), of Arcadia, was installed as president by Mrs. Emma B. Masser, District junior advisor, in a charming candlelight ceremony. At the conclusion of the rites, Miss Virginia Hostutler, newly elected president of Arcadia Juniors, presented Mrs. Gibbs with a handsome bouquet as a gift from her home club.

Following presentation of a gold pin and gavel to Mrs. Fred Hufford, Redondo Beach, retiring president, Mrs. Gibbs, introduced her mother, Mrs. Harriet Lucas, to the gathering.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS

Cup awards were presented durthe luncheon to San Fernando Cosmos club and Eagle Rock 20th Century club for highest attendance at conferences; to San Fernando Cosmos Juniors for 100% attendance at meetings; to El Segundo Juniors for the biggest increase in membership.

LIST WINNERS

Other awards went to Santa Monica Bay Women's club Juniors for largest attendance at the luncheon; to Landcaster Juniors for club coming the greatest distance and to

WINS ART AWARD

In the Arcadia party were Miss Hostutler, Mrs. Dorothy Dobbings, Miss Virginia Brown, and Mrs. John E. Hostutler.

MRS. MURFETT RE-ELECTED

Mrs. John Murfett was re-elected chairman of the Garden Section of Arcadia Woman's club Tuesday afternoon at the regular meeting held in the Santa Anita Oaks, home of Mrs. Anne A. Felt and Miss Pearl Smith.

Other second-term officers chosen with Mrs. Murfett were Mrs. Horace S. Nichols, secretary, and Mrs. Jackson D. Stanley, treasurer.

The election followed dessert, which was served at 1:30. An open forum preceded an informative speech by Mrs. T. A. Dodson of San Gabriel who discussed lathe houses and shade plants.

At the conclusion of the meeting thirty-six members inspected the gardens of their hostesses.

CO-ORDINATING COUNCIL MEETS

Outlining a tentative summer recreation plan for boys and girls, members of the Arcadia Co-ordinating Council met in regular session Monday afternoon in the Teacher's room of First Avenue school, with Mrs. Jane Adcock, president, in the chair.

Following adoption of the plan, details of which will be released later, Mrs. Faith Coombs ,chairman of the character building committee, reported on her method of streamlining summer camp placements of underprivileged children. Last year, ten children from this locality were sent to camps.

Members attending the meeting were: E. E. Westerhouse, Superintendent of Arcadia Schools; Mrs. Leona Byfield, school nurse; Principal W. G. Coombs, First Avenue school; Mrs. Ellen Norris, Red Cross; Mrs. Ora Stine, American Legion Auxiliary; George L. Jones, Santa Anita village, and Mrs. Jones; Mrs. Meyer Fink, First Avenue P.-T. A.; Mrs. Wood Glover, P.-T. A. council; Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, Woman's club; Mrs. Eva Bober, county health center; R. M. Dickinson, chamber of commerce, and Mr. Wheatley, executive secretary of County Co-ordinating council.

Mrs. Murfett Again Heads Garden Section

Thirty six Garden Section members, Woman's club, Tuesday participated in the May meeting held at the beautiful home of Mrs. Anne A. Felt and her sister, Miss Pearl Smith. 280 Hacienda Drive, Santa Anita Oaks.

Election of officers resulted in Mrs. John Murfett, Mrs. S. Horace Nichols and Mrs. Jackson D. Stanley, being re-elected chairman, secretary and treasurer, respectively.

From the patio members enjoyed the semi-formal garden with its orchard background as Mrs. T. A. Dodson of San Gabriel enlightened the group on lath houses, giving an instructive talk on begonias, ferns and other shade plants. Mrs. C. W. Moore talked about carnation culture and care. The usual open forum and question box formed an interesting part of the meeting.

After inspection of the garden, members adjourned to meet for their year's final session June 18 at Mrs. William Brandt's home, 718 W. Huntington drive.

Mrs. Hoover Hostess To History and Land Marks Group

Disclosing interesting data of this state's early days members of the California History and Landmarks section, Woman's club, during the roll call by Mrs. George Needham at the monthly meeting were also apprised that the spiney rugged Joshua tree, indigenous to parts of nearby desert country, belongs to the lily family.

Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff presided over the meeting held at Mrs. C. E. Hoover's home on Fairview avenue last week.

Mrs. John Renshaw, conducting the Spanish word drill, chose family names of early settlers and pioneers who played an important part in California's upbuilding and progress.

A letter of condolence from the section will be sent John Stephen McGroarty who recently lost his wife. Both have been closely identified with California landmarks and their peservation for several decades.

Election of officers will take place June 12, the season's final meeting to be held at Mrs Timerhoff's home. Approximately 20 ladies were present.

CONVENTION REPORTS HEARD

Reporting on the C. F. W. C. convention at Catalina, Mrs. S. J. Hathaway of Monrovia, district history chairman, proved to be a delightful raconteur at the regular meeting of California History and Landmarks section Arcadia Woman's club, held last week at the home of Mrs. C. E. Hoover.

Mrs. Fanny Needham, conducted the roll call in the absence of Miss Eva Reynolds, secretary. Information gleaned ranged from facts about Joshua trees, to reports on "A Journal of a Cruise of the Pacific" writen by Midshipman Toler in 1843.

Motion was passed to send a letter of condolence to John Steven McGroarty on the death of his wife, who was "ever an active participant in California history."

Election of officers was postponed until the June 12 meeting to be a potluck picnic in the oak arbor at Sylvania, the home of the chairman, Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff.

Tea was served by the hostess at the conclusion of the meeting. Assisting her were Mesdames Ella Owen, Fanny Needham and Catherine Thomas.

MRS. GLOVER RE-ELECTED I. R. SECTION CHAIRMAN

Beginning their fall season in October, International Relations section, Woman's club, will meet the fourth Monday of each month. This decision was made at the year's concluding meeting held in the clubhouse and presided over by Mrs. Wood Glover.

During the afternoon election of officers resulted in Mrs. Glover's re-election as chairman Mrs. Mary Pulver, vice chairman; Mrs. Elsie C. Krupp, secretary, treasurer; Mrs. W. C, Bonner, ways and means, and Mrs. C, C, Hoffman, publicity. Mrs, G, G, Meade gave a stimulating and informative talk on Chile. Other members spoke on various parts of South America.

Those present were: Mmes. Glover, Meade, James Stoker, Hoffman, Bonner, Pulver, Leola Brown and George Needham.

Mrs. Glover Re-Elected

Mrs G. G. Meade read an informative paper on Chile, which received much praise. Summer reading on South America was passed out to members.

At the election, Mrs. Glover was re-elected chairman, with Mrs. C. S. Pulver, vice-president; Mrs. Elsie C. Krupp, secretary - treasurer; Mrs. Belle Bonner, ways and means, and Mrs. Olive Hoffman, publicity, as assistants.

The section has suspended activities until the fourth Monday in October.

PLAN LUNCHEON FOR COMMITTEE

Invited are Mesdames Bertha Lewis, Rowena Dillingham, Florence Boller, Grace K. Stanley, Mabel Hoover, Jessie Stewart, Bertha Nichols, Anne Felt, Ruth Wagoner, Florence Anderson, and Miss Pearl Smith.

MRS. INA MILLSPAUGH

SETS RECORD FOR OTHERS TO AIM AT

Completing an outstanding record of two years as president of Arcadia Woman's club, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh will preside at her last meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the clubhouse.

Mrs. Millspaugh, who began her term of office in 1938, has won the love and respect of her fellow club members. She has worked unceasingly for the club's benefit and during her regime many of the brightest events of its history have taken place.

Among these was the burning of the club's mortgage, making Arcadia's club one of the few mortgageless ones in the state and organization of three new sections, a music group, international relations study section, and a philanthropy and welfare section.

Under her aegis, membership has increased, and special attention has been paid to the new women moving into the community. Many of these are now members and actively engaged in club work.

When club women bid farewell to her next week they will feel that she has established a brilliant record for presidents of coming years to aim at.

Mrs. Millspaugh will have charge of the formal installation ceremony inducting Mrs. J. S. Stoker and her staff into office. As is the custom, one minute reports of chairmen on the past year's work will be heard. A prize is to be given for the best and most original of these.

Mrs. Alice Moss and her hospitality committee will serve tea at the social hour that follows.

NEW OFFICERS INSTALLED BY WOMAN'S CLUB

Graciousness was the keynote yesterday afternoon when new officers of the Arcadia Woman's club were installed by Mrs. Rex Harbert, district officer, of Monrovia, with a yellow rose ceremony.

Symbolizing the relationship of the individual club to the Federation, the roses were presented Mrs. James S. Stoker and her staff of officers as a sign of their investiture of office.

Gowned in vari-colored floor-length gowns, the incoming and retiring officers made a gracious picture as they stood in line beside Mrs. Harbert, Mrs. Stoker, and Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, outgoing president, who retired after a brilliant reign of two years.

Incoming officers receiving the rose symbols were Mrs. Wood Glover, vice-president; Mrs. G. H. Thomas, second vice-president; Mrs. E. E. Balling Jr., recording secretary; Miss Ruth Evans, treasurer; Mrs. Edgar T. Reid, Federation secretary; Mrs. G. L. Jones, Jr., program chairman; Mrs. Harvey E. Moss, parliamentarian; Mrs. E. J. Frentress, corresponding secretary; Mrs. James S. Craig, and Mrs. Bert Morris, trustees.

Officers retiring with Mrs. Millspaugh were Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, who completed four years work as trustee; Miss Eva Reynolds, parliamentarian; Mrs. Claud Bonner, program chairman; Mrs. John Murfett, treasurer; Mrs. H. E. Riess; and Mrs. Bert Rubottom, corresponding secretary, who was unable to be present.

PRESENT GIFTS

At the conclusion of the installation ceremonies, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, past president, presented Mrs. Millspaugh with her Federation pin and gavel as a gift of the club. Previously Mrs. Millspaugh

Mrs. Leiland Atherton Irish is also scheduled to speak.

AMBULANCE FUND FETES

With the generous contributions made by Arcadians this week to the ambulance fund of the San Gabriel Valley Newspaperwomen's association, Arcadia's quota is definitely assured.

Miss Carol Weld, head of the American Volunteer Ambulance corps, today reiterated the desperate need of ambulances abroad as long as hostilities continue. "Even in the event that a truce is declared in France, ambulances will be needed there to continue evacuation of civilian wounded."

DONORS NAMED

Heading the list of donors for the week are Mrs. R. P. Almour, Charles J. Beery, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stewart, Mrs. Clarence Crane, Le Roy Anderson, Mrs. Schreiber, Mary Jane Porter, Clifton B. Herd, Mrs. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Douglas, Mrs. Lena A. Multer, Mrs. Mary Moore, Mrs. Georgia McMillan and two contributors who wished to remain anonymous.

Besides the list of benefits already scheduled in Arcadia and surrounding valley communities, Mrs. Moore of the Moore Country school, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Homer Ormsby placed their homes and gardens at the disposal of the committee.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Today, Mrs. James Stephen Craig, and her committee, are giving a benefit dessert bridge at the Arcadia Woman's club to start promptly at 1:30 o'clock, with play set for 2 o'clock. Miss Olive Sedgeman, English singer, will present a group of three songs. She will be accompanied by Dean Arnold G. H. Bode, rector emeritus of Church of the Ascension, Sierra Madre, and a noted organist-composer, who will play one of his original compositions. Mrs. B. R. Charles, the original Prudence Penney, will speak briefly on the work of the ambulance corps.

ATHLETIC CLUB

On Wednesday, the Santa Anita Athletic club will hold its benefit dessert bridge at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Linden, 1820 South Santa Anita drive. Full details of the affair are given elsewhere in this paper.

The entire campaign will culminate in a gigantic party to be held at the beautiful ranch home of District Attorney and Mrs. Buron Fitts in Duarte the afternoon of July 20. The beautiful oil painting donated by Mrs. Geraldine Birch of Pasadena, nationally known artist, will be exhibited at this affair.

Mrs. Lumpkin and John Van derbur were in charge of the informal musical program pre sented during the evening. Twenty-five couples participated in the affair.

Woman's Club Garden Section Closes Season

Mrs. John Murfett re-elected with Mrs. Bertha Nichols, secretary, Mrs. Jackson D. Stanley, treasurer and Mrs. Margaret Perry vice-chairman, who has been district chairman of roadside beautification, were installed as 1940-41 officers in the attractive garden of the hostess' home.

Revising by-laws and changing the meeting date to the second Wednesday of each month formed the business hours highlights. Mrs. Murfett presided.

The thirty members and guests present heard E. Rober of Los Angeles talk on pelargonium (geraniums), the speaker illustrating his talk with a varied selection of the flowers. Mrs. Harry Marshall brought many varieties of the day lily, also told interesting facts about this beautiful plant.

In summing up accomplishments of the past year, Mrs. Murfett revealed a material membership increase, reflecting a growing interest in the section by Arcadia ladies.

Announcement will be made later where the October 9 meeting is to be held.

WOMAN'S CLUB GARDEN SECTION HOLDS LAST MEETING OF SEASON

The season's last meeting of the garden section of the Arcadia Woman's club was held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. W. Evans, 48 West Camino Real, with Mrs. William Brandt as co-hostess. Thirty ladies enjoyed a pot-luck luncheon at noon served out-of-doors.

The following officers were inducted for the coming year: Mrs. John Murfett, chairman; Mrs. J. D. Stanley, treasurer; Mrs. Horace S. Nichols, secretary, and Mrs. Eugene L. Perry, vice-chairman.

Meetings will be resumed next October.

MOTHERS PLAN PARTY FOR SCOUT TROOP 5

The mothers' auxiliary of Boy Scout Troop 5 held its last meeting of the season recently at Mrs. H. P. Staff's home, 325 Lemon, with Mrs. C. B. Larson serving as co-hostess.

Plans were made for a swimming party for the troop on June 25 in Santa Anita Park. The boys are to convene at 2 p. m. and will be joined by their parents for a picnic supper at 6:30.

Mothers present were Mesdames Homer Brown, H. E. Cox, P. A. Libby, H. P. Meyers, Melba Miller, O. L. Roberts, H. P. Staff, A. R. Chambers, Robert Chambers, D. L. Robertson, C. B. Larson, W. G. Coombs, and Robert Oakley.

Junior Woman's Club Officers Installed

The Junior Woman's club of Arcadia, with a representation from West Arcadia met at Eaton's Santa Anita grill last night for a supper, welcoming the incoming officers. Following the supper the girls gathered at the club house at First and Diamond at 8 p. m. to install the new leaders.

They are Virginia Hostutler, 436 W. Duarte road, president; Edith Ekman, 1500 South First, vice-president; Virginia Brown, Le Roy avenue, secretary; and Louise Evans, 48 Camino Real, treasurer. The last named girl is the secretary for Bob Touchon at his service station on the corner of Baldwin and Duarte.

NEW JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB OFFICERS INSTALLED IN IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

In an impressive candlelight ceremony, members of the new staff of the Arcadia Junior Woman's club were installed into their respective offices, Thursday evening of last week at the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse.

Miss Virginia Hostutler, newly installed president, wore a blue formal gown and a lei of gardenias and pink roses. She and Miss Barbara Geiger, retiring president, were presented with flowers by Mrs. James Stoker, president of the Arcadia Woman's club.

The officers replacing Mrs. Dorothy Dobbings, vice-president; Mrs. Margaret Chambers, secretary; Miss Marjorie Dickson, treasurer; Mrs. Eleanor Gibbs, federation secretary, were Miss Edith Elman, Miss Virginia Brown, Miss Louise Evans, Miss Barbara Geiger, respectively.

Miss Geiger presented the outgoing sponsors, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh and Mrs. Arthur Chambers, with corsages of yellow roses and gardenias and a gift. Gifts were also given to her board members. The new sponsors, Mrs. James Stoker, Mrs. Wood Glover, and Mrs. Ingram, were introduced.

Refreshments of tea, ice cream, cake, candy and nuts were served in the foyer. Mrs. Millspaugh and Mrs. Stoker poured.

Coming events planned by the juniors include a series of parties for the purpose of increasing the club's membership and bridge parties to promote funds for welfare work. Young women wishing to participate in the club's activities may contact the president.

AMBULANCE BENEFIT SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

The delightfully informal card party given last Thursday at the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse for the benefit of the war ambulance fund was a very successful and profitable affair, according to Mrs. J. Stephen Craig, chairman. Mrs. Benjamin Bee of San Marino and Mrs. Mark Millspaugh received the prizes.

Musical Treat At Woman's Club

Members of the Arcadia Woman's club, who gathered Thursday for an afternoon of bridge when Mrs. James Stephen Craig staged a benefit bridge for the San Gabriel Valley Newspaperwomen association's ambulance fund, were accorded an unusual musical treat.

Dean Arnold G. H. Bode, distinguished organist who has held posts at Oxford University, Rochester Cathedral, University of Wyoming, and many other places, appeared as accompanist to Miss Olive Sedgeman, young English singer, in a group of three songs and later played two of his own compositions.

Preceeding the musicial program, Mrs. Claire Charles, retired newspaperwoman, and club member, explained the work of the American Volunteer Ambulance corps, which organization the newspaperwomen are assisting.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, junior past president, won the door prize, which was donated by Mrs. Alice James. Mrs. Bert Morris and Mrs. George Jones assisted the chairman.

DISTRICT JUNIOR ADVISOR INDUCTS NEW OFFICERS

Club inductions are lovely things. And the formal ceremony placing Miss Virginia Hostutler, president of the Arcadia Juniors, and her staff, into office at the Woman's club, Thursday was no exception.

The incoming president, gowned in turquoise blue organdy, with a lei of gardenias, roses and bovardia, the gift of Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, president District Juniors, and first president of the Arcadia club, received the symbolical candle from Miss Barbara Geiger, retiring president. Later she presented Miss Geiger, with a past president's pin, the gift of the club.

GIVE FLOWERS

Both the retiring and incoming presidents were given bouquets of flowers by Mrs. James A. Stoker, senior club president, who wore peach chiffon.

New Junior officers include Miss Edith Ekman, vice-president; Miss Virginia Brown, secretary; Miss Louise Evans, treasurer, and Miss Geiger, Federation secretary.

DESCRIBE GOWNS

Miss Geiger, blue and white striped organza; Miss Dorothy Dobbings, vice-president, turquoise blue crepe; Mrs. Margaret Chambers, secretary, black crepe with red linen bolero; Miss Margery Dickson, printed crepe. Retiring sponsor, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, past senior president, wore printed chiffon.

PRESENT PROGRAM

Before hearing reports of retiring chairmen, a musical program was presented by Mrs. Gibbs, who was in charge of the evening. Marion Edwards and Rosemary Dougherty presented violin duets and Mrs. Gibbs, frocked in pink net with quilted blue jacket, sang several solos.

Assisting Mrs. Gibbs on the committee were Misses Evans, Eleanora Ott, Dobbing and Mrs. Chambers.

WOMAN'S CLUB EXPECTS BRILLIANT NEW SEASON

Arcadia Woman's club ended one of the most successful years in history with the close of the 1939-40 season on June 5.

With the retirement of Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, who ended a two years' term, the new officers, headed by Mrs. James A. Stoker, were installed in a lovely ceremony conducted by Mrs. Rex P. Harbert, of Monrovia.

Mrs. W. C. Bonner, program chairman, arranged a group of outstanding programs during the year, in addition to which the music, history, and international relations sections presented unusual and thought-provoking program fare.

TWO NEW SECTIONS

Mrs. Wood Glover, the new vice-president, organized the international relations section this year and Mrs. M. A. Hartnett the new philanthropy section. Mrs. Glover was re-elected and will continue as head of her section although Mrs. Hartnett retired and Mrs. Robert McMaster will guide the philanthropy section next season.

The garden section was most active under Mrs. John Murfett with the Peach Blossom festival as the high point of the year. Mrs. Helen Lumpkin was unanimously chosen to carry on as chairman of the music section, the club's largest section, a second term. So outstanding has been her work in preparing sparkling programs that the membership has increased rapidly in this group.

FOUNDER RETIRES

Mrs. C. E. Hoover replaces Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff, beloved founder of the history section, who organized the section six years ago, as chairman. Each year this section's annual program is anticipated by the club membership as one of the memorable ones of the season.

Thirty new members increased the club's personnel to 175. Mrs. Winnie Tester was chairman in charge of this most important work.

The annual Turf club ball held at Santa Anita Race track this year will go down in club annals as one of the most successful of all. Mrs. James Stephen Craig was chairman in charge.

OFFICIAL STAFF

With Mesdames Glover, vice-president; G. H. Thomas, second vice-president; E. E. Balling jr., corresponding secretary; Edgar T. Reid, federation secretary; G. J. Jones jr., program chairman, Harvey Moss, parliamentarian, and Miss Ruth Evans, treasurer; Mrs. Bert Morris, and Mrs. James Stephen Craig trustees, assisting Mrs. Stoker, on the governing body, the club looks forward to an even more brilliant future.

by the able leadership of Mrs. May Glover.

The Philanthropy Committee experienced a most useful & interesting year with Mrs. Shirley Hartnett as Chairman. They made layettes, clothes, bedding for many needy ones.

The Chrysanthemum Show was as beautiful as in former years, and the Club House was a bower of beauty.

The program written and directed by our own "Jimmy" (Mrs. Emilei Dimitcheff) "The Rogers of the State through the years" proved so successful that it was repeated at Headquarters for the District meeting of California History and Landmarks.

The Turf Club Ball, under the inspired management of Mrs. Betty Craig was the crowning event of the year. And the

I must speak of the wonderful, artistic work of the Decorating Committee, headed by Mrs. Margaret Mc. Master and Mrs. Gertrude Schenck. Every meeting the Hall was made lovely by this committee.

The Club bought some pottery coffee jugs for use at the luncheons, and these have greatly simplified the work of the waitresses.

Just one more item must be mentioned, and my yearly chronicle will be 1939-40 History of the Woman's Club of Arcadia.

The Woman's Club of Arcadia has had a peaceful year under the leadership of our beloved President, Mrs. Dora Milsaugh; a year free from debt.

Right at the beginning of the year we lost two of our members. Mrs. Mae Dunham, our early President was released from her years of suffering and ill health; and Mrs. Bertha Lash, a splendid club woman, and member of the board, was also called.

The membership of the club was increased by 36 new, and 3 reinstated members, and at least two more prospective members in the two baby girls born to Mrs. Schenck and Mrs. Schweisthal. There were also two baby boys born to Mr. Hall and Mrs. Cockshott, but these boys will probably grow up to be just long suffering Club husbands, as our own dear husbands are.

There was a lusty new Section born to the club, the Music Section, which has had an instructive and delightful year under the gifted leadership of Mrs. Helen Lumpkin.

The International Section has been brought to an enthusiastic rebirth
